Norma Greathouse
Senior 1969

To Norma Greathouse - Senior 1969:

May God bless you for being one of my greatest and dearest friends. Our friendship has meant so much to me.

I hope that your college years will be great fun and a big success.

I know that we will be able to keep in touch over the years — our friendship means at least that much — and more.

May God bless & keep you always.

Love ya,

(the year when the work begins)

Devoted is she to her country as a peace-abiding nation, having taught the world-wide language of music in an army school located in Germany. Possessed within her is a love toward the flag and for what it stands.

Serving is she who directs the choirs at Kimball and performs the difficult task of producing outstanding musicals each year during the spring.

Respected is she by her students such that membership in the concert choir has increased by almost forty per cent.

Understanding is she who reflects the character of a truly jovial person, yet expertly gets down to business when a task is at hand.

Due to these outstanding qualities which she possesses, we dedicate the 1969 Excalibur to . . .

Miss Martha Hayes

FOREWORD

What is the Excalibur? Unimportant it may seem at the present time. However, it is the story of the year in pictures, words, and memories.

In a few years, when your ring has long since been put away, you will want to remember the way it was back in 1968-69. Memories of football games, exams, coronation, graduation, and the familiar phrase "We are the Knights of Kimball High"—that's what Excalibur is.

Despite how much Kimball changes, it will remain in ranking with other high schools second to none. We of the Excalibur '69 hope this annual will help you remember the school as it was, and how great it is to be a "Knight."

THE STRUCTURES: The main entrance stretches majestically below the warmth of the sun, awaiting the endless arrival of students.

ORGANIZATIONS: Troubadear officers tensely ready themselves for haltime performance.

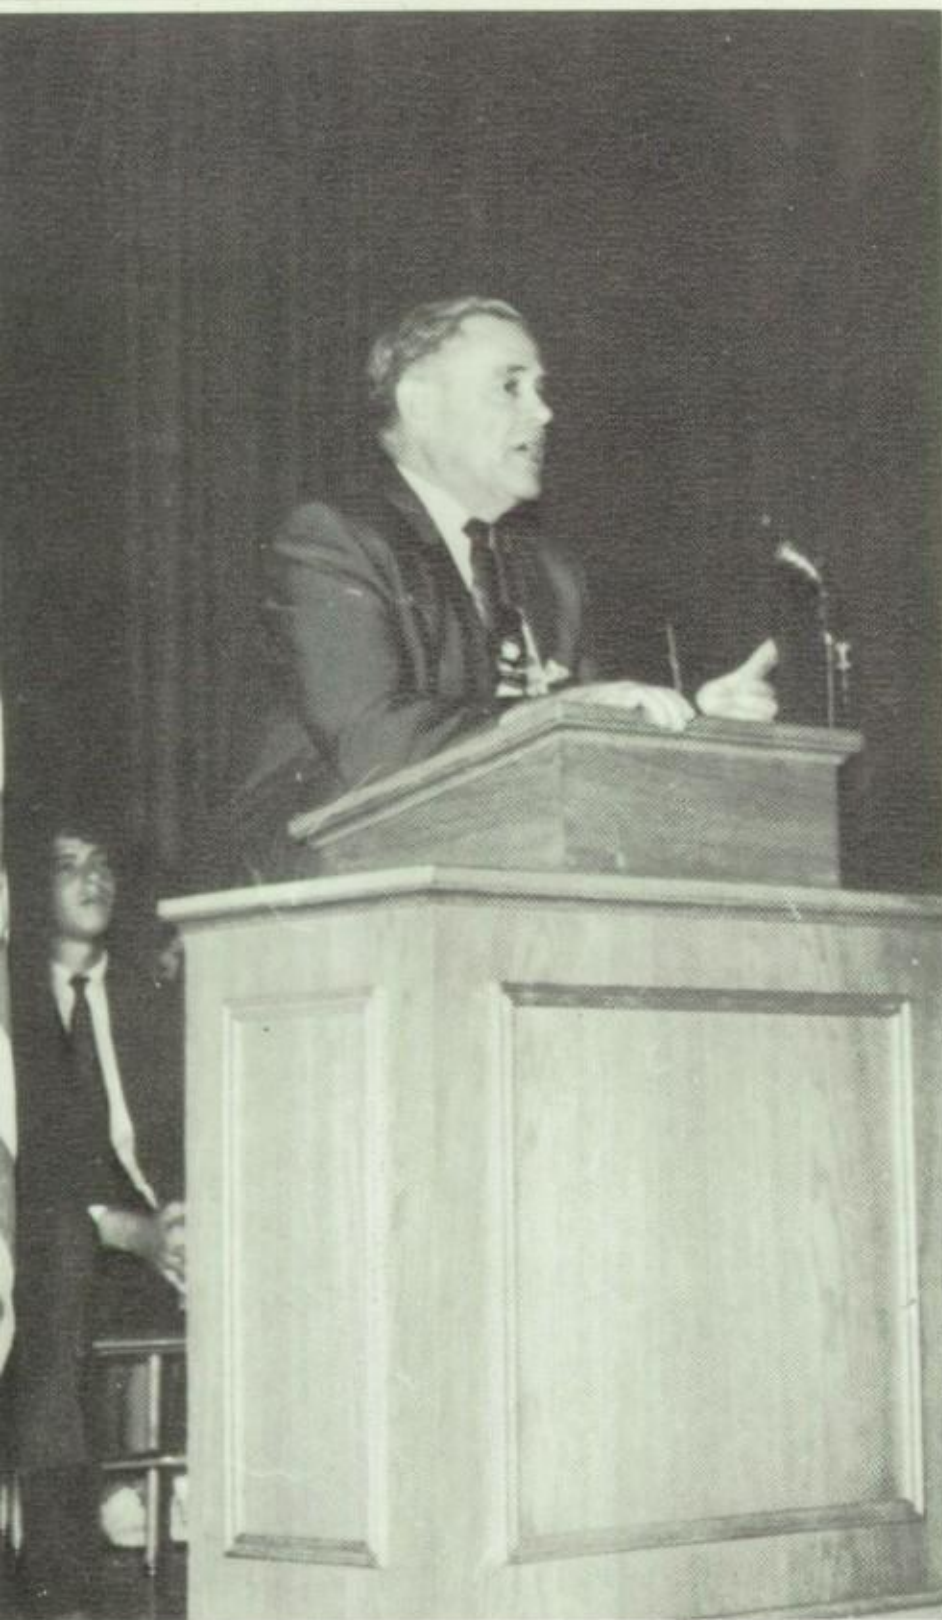

OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES: Pat Huff points out scenic appearance outside Marsalis Zoo.

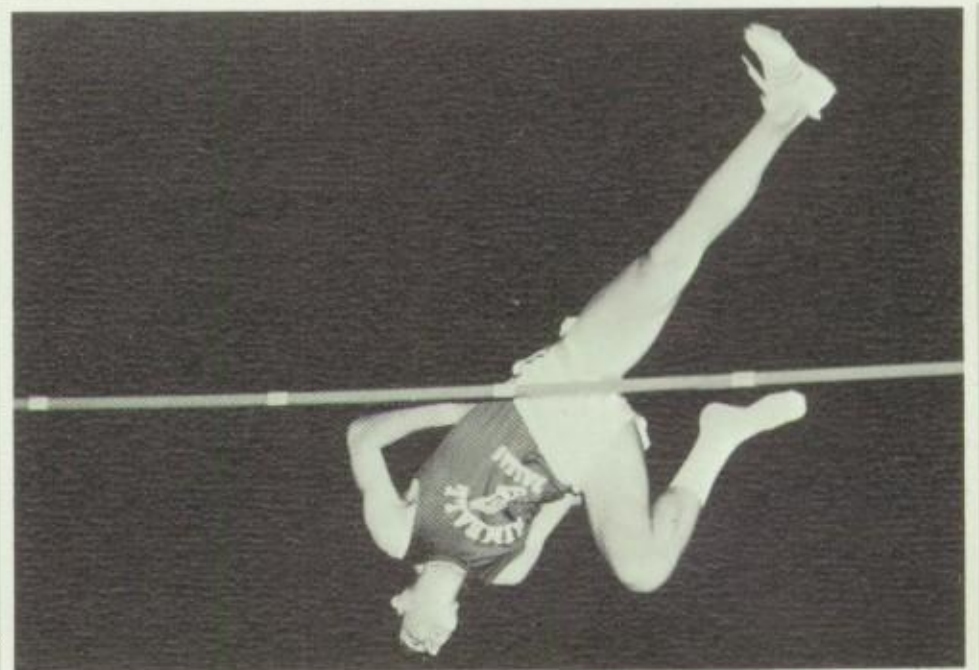

Aspects of Student Life

On the humid morning of September 4, the shrill ringing of the almost forgotten school bell marks the beginning of another school year. Greetings fly through the air between friends separated by the lull of summer, starting another year of excitement and Kimball tradition.

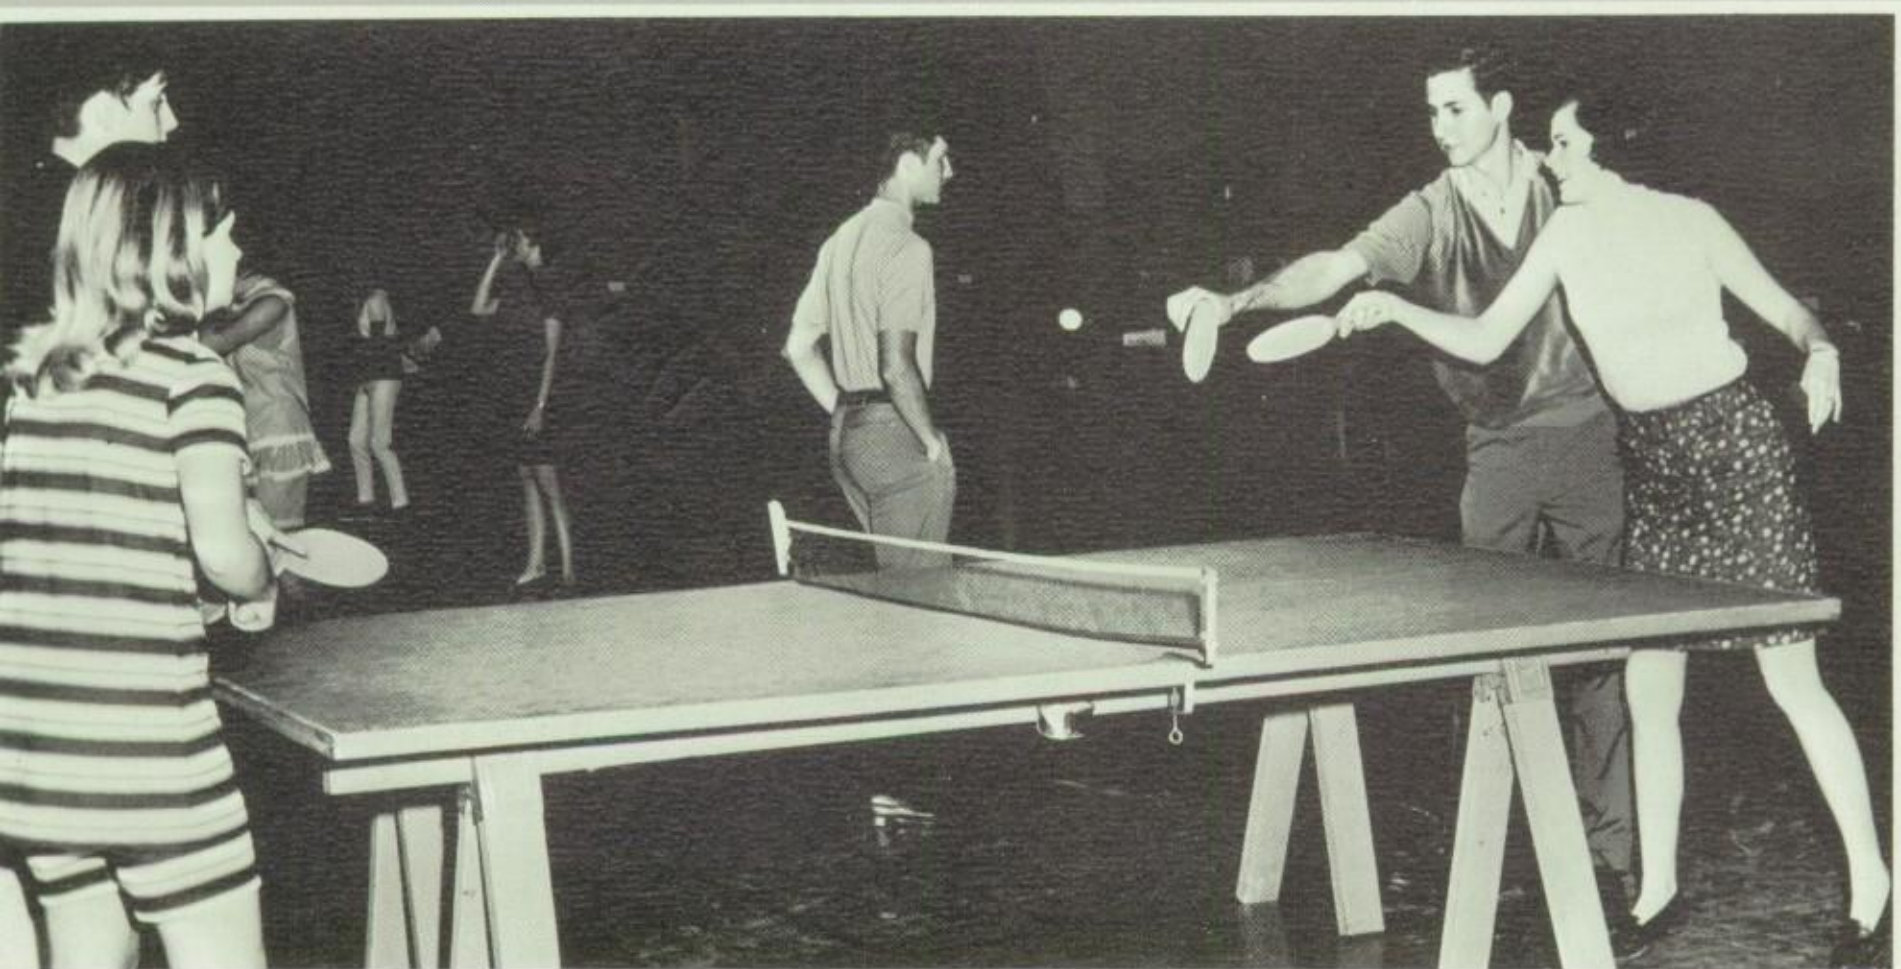

The bearing upon us of our social activities may seem minute during our high school days. Yet they set the basic memories of these cherished years. This is visualized through five general phases: sports, academic achievement, the building structure, organizations, and activities. All are fundamental steps behind the worthwhile year of a student at Kimball.

ACADEMIC: Mr. Durrett tells sophomores of the importance of setting scholastic goals, with Steve Tobolowsky, a fine example of this, seated behind him.

SPORTS: Eugene Stoner clears the high jump bar at 6'-3".

SCHOOL ACTIVITIES: Dianne Boyd teams up victoriously in table tennis match at Fundango.

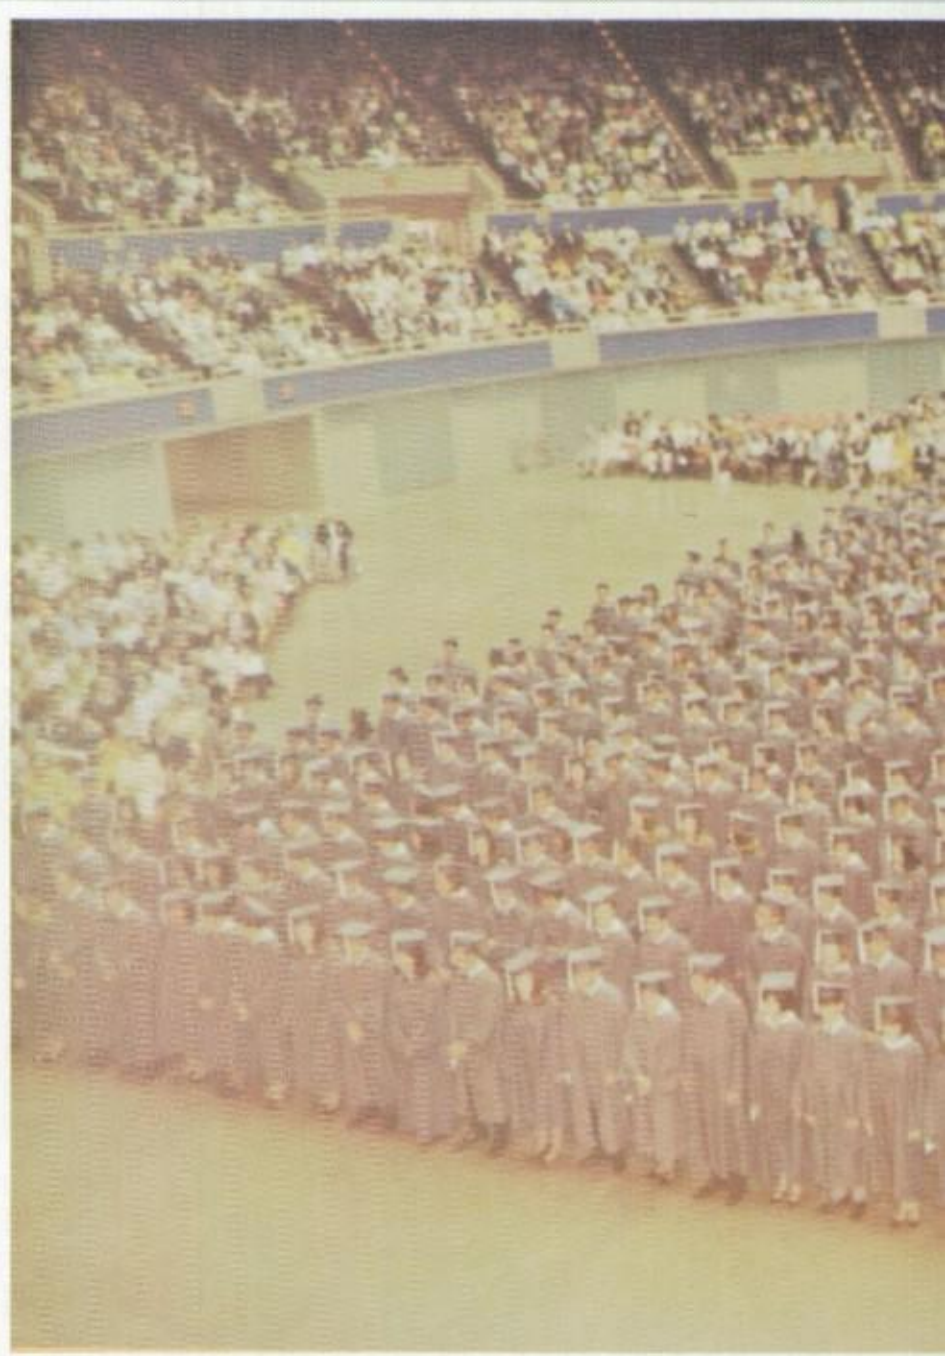

High Goals Develop Academic Achievement

Diligently the students work to finish their assignments. Whether they are concluding the last problems of math homework, or completing their long awaited senior themes, or possibly adding the final touches to a science fair project, each student develops pride in his accomplishments.

What is the purpose behind such perseverance? Most youth have the desire to develop personal achievement. Many are rewarded by membership in the National Honor Society or by being chosen for the Roundtable.

Leadership is a common motive behind the hard work of other students. This type of person represents Kimball in different academic fields; in speech and drama, for example, or a participant in the Student Council.

Climaxing the three years at Kimball is graduation and the receiving of diplomas. The large number of students graduating with honors reflects the desire and leadership present at Kimball—one of the fundamental objectives behind the lives of students at Kimball High School. This is a Kimballite's way of upholding the school motto, "We Always Seek the Best."

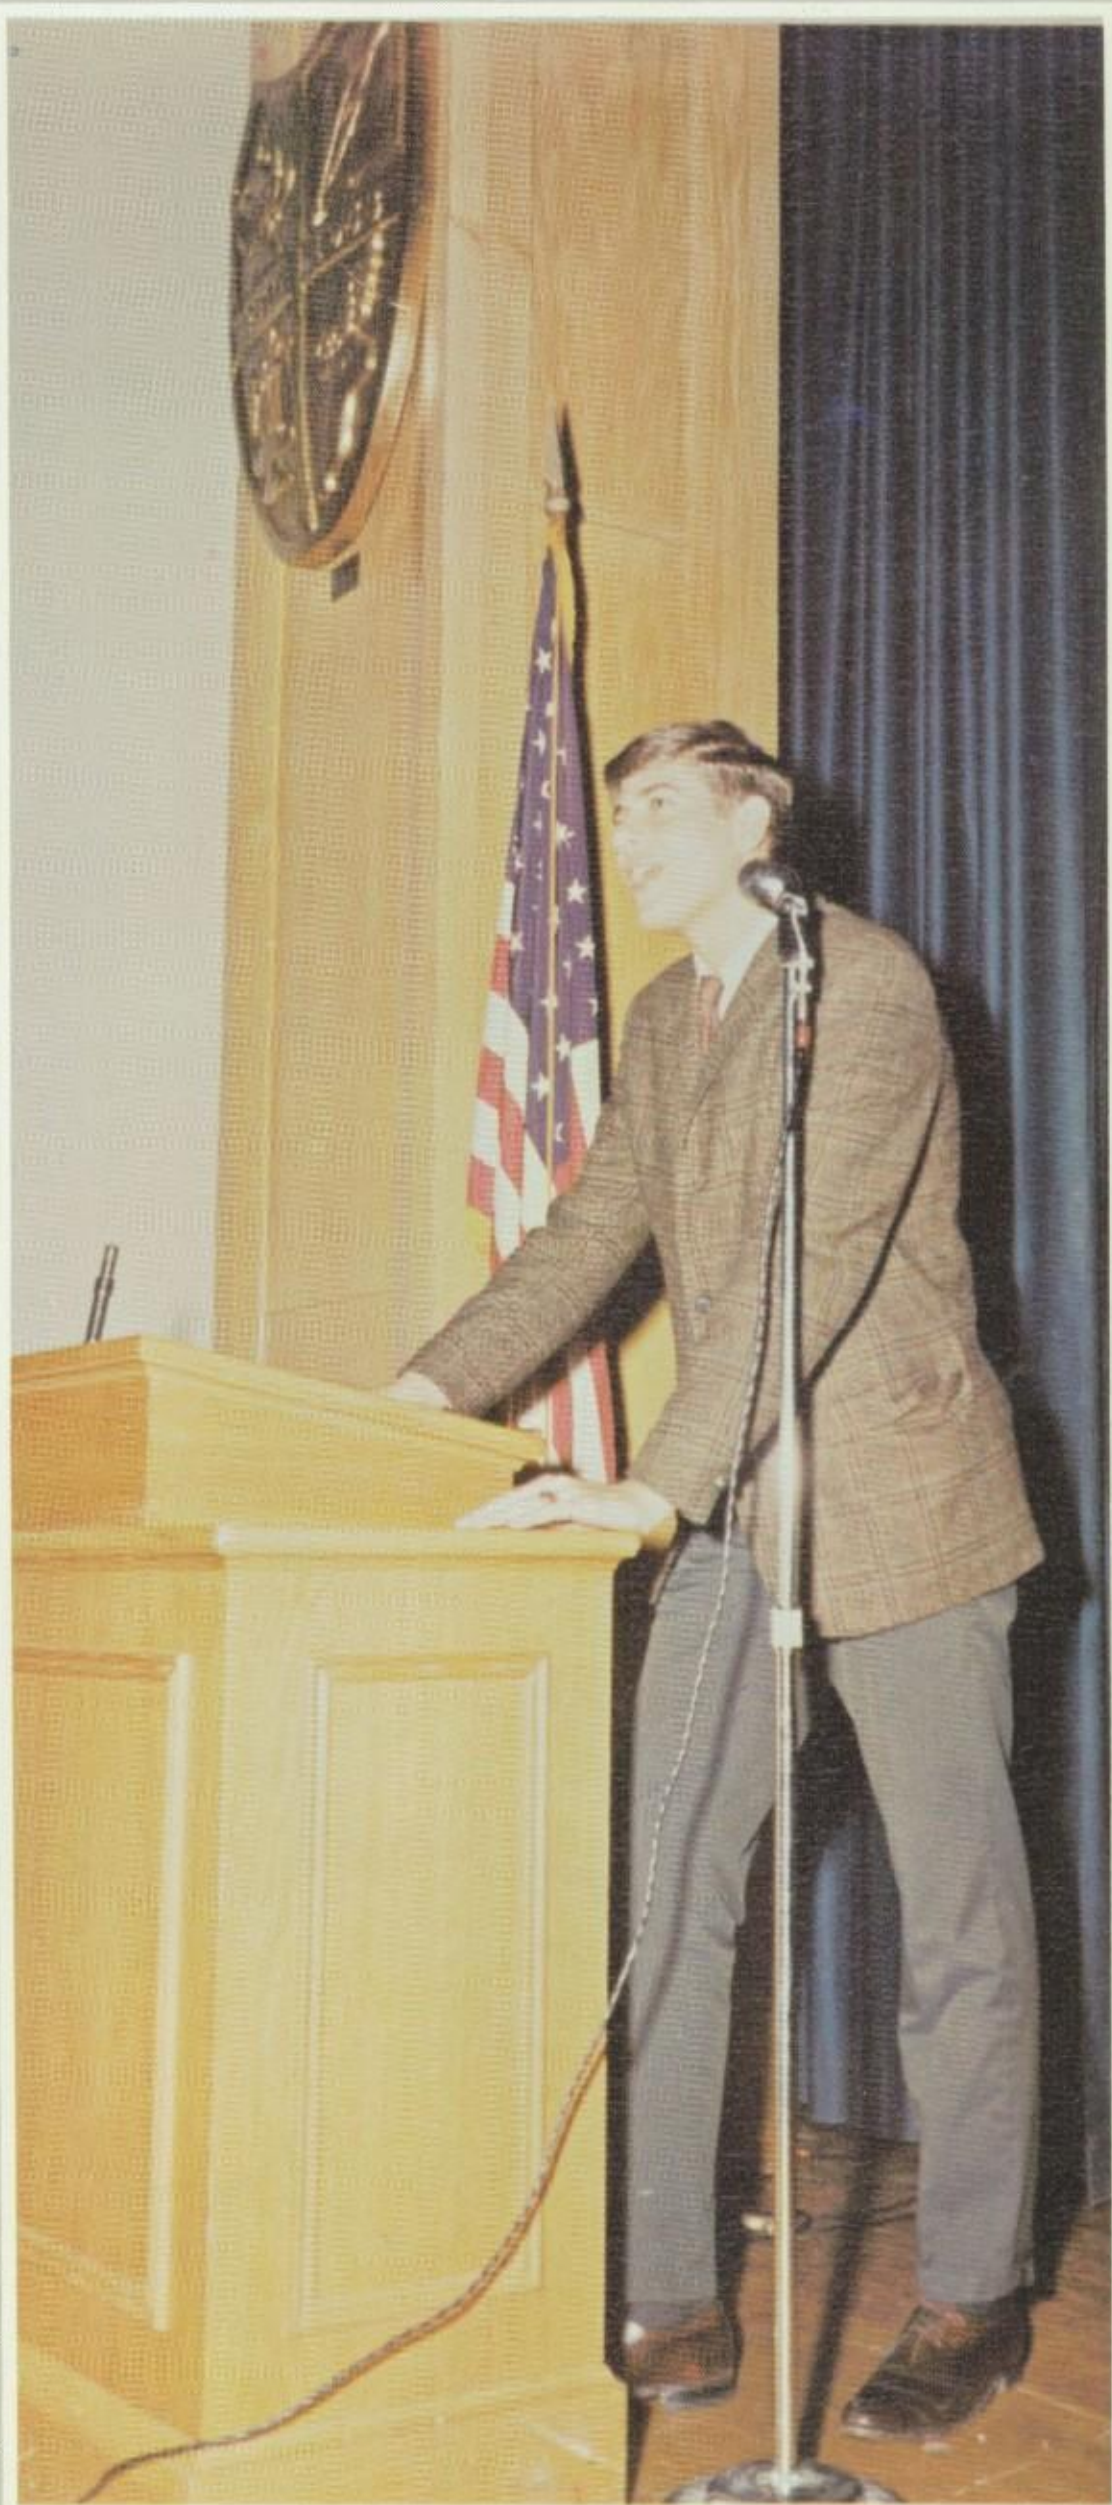

Graduation: the finale to twelve years work.

Seniors prepare to inform sophomores of the many Kimball organizations.

National Honor Society president, Mike Hall, stresses the importance of academic achievement.

Mr. Durrett prepares for the trip to Longview.

Park benches in downtown Dallas provide a shady spot on a hot September day.

Even thinking creates a problem for Bobby Davis.

Excited students load the thirteen busses bound for Longview.

Thrills at Fundango include a stimulating game of volleyball.

Activities Yield Enjoyment to Memories of Kimball

Equally important as education is the involvement in social activities, both in the school and around the city. Although ideas of enjoyment may vary among students, the basic fundamentals of pleasure appeal to all—parties, pep assemblies, going to a movie, or taking it easy in a park on a warm afternoon.

Increasing school spirit before upcoming football games, the cheerleaders lead yells and perform skits. A bus trip to Longview is another phase of excitement that will not soon be forgotten.

Spotlighting the activities within the school are homecoming; plays by the drama department, junior, and senior class; an annual musical production; and finally, the beautiful pageantry of the coronation. However, for seniors, this is just the beginning of an attempt to make this last year the very best. Next on their agenda are the senior activities—picnic, swim party, luncheon, then graduation, followed by the all night party.

Outside of school, Kimballites find other locations of activities—strolling through the surroundings of Turtle Creek, a day at Six Flags, or sightseeing and shopping around downtown Dallas. Whatever the form of entertainment, student life portrays a role of primary importance in the education and growth of each student at Kimball High School.

The Beauty of Kimball

Amidst the rapid expansion of a growing metropolis, there stands a large and stately structure. A structure which, although just entering its second decade since completion, is ever-so-strong in framework—both of construction and of student pride and loyalty.

Upon entering Kimball, a student quickly develops this loyalty, not only from what he encounters, but also from what he sees. The symbolic tradition of the school seal within the foyer doors quickly sets the mood. Looking toward both sides, he sees the vast, beautiful auditorium extending before him; towards the right he views the true symbol of Kimball standing in the showcase—the Kimball Knight.

Yet there are other sights which a student at Kimball treasures. Walking swiftly through the long halls between classes is an example of the fast moving pace at Kimball. The tranquil bubbling of the fountain in the west courtyard helps to ease one as he glances up from a difficult test. From whatever perspective we observe our school, these sights will turn into fond memories in years to come.

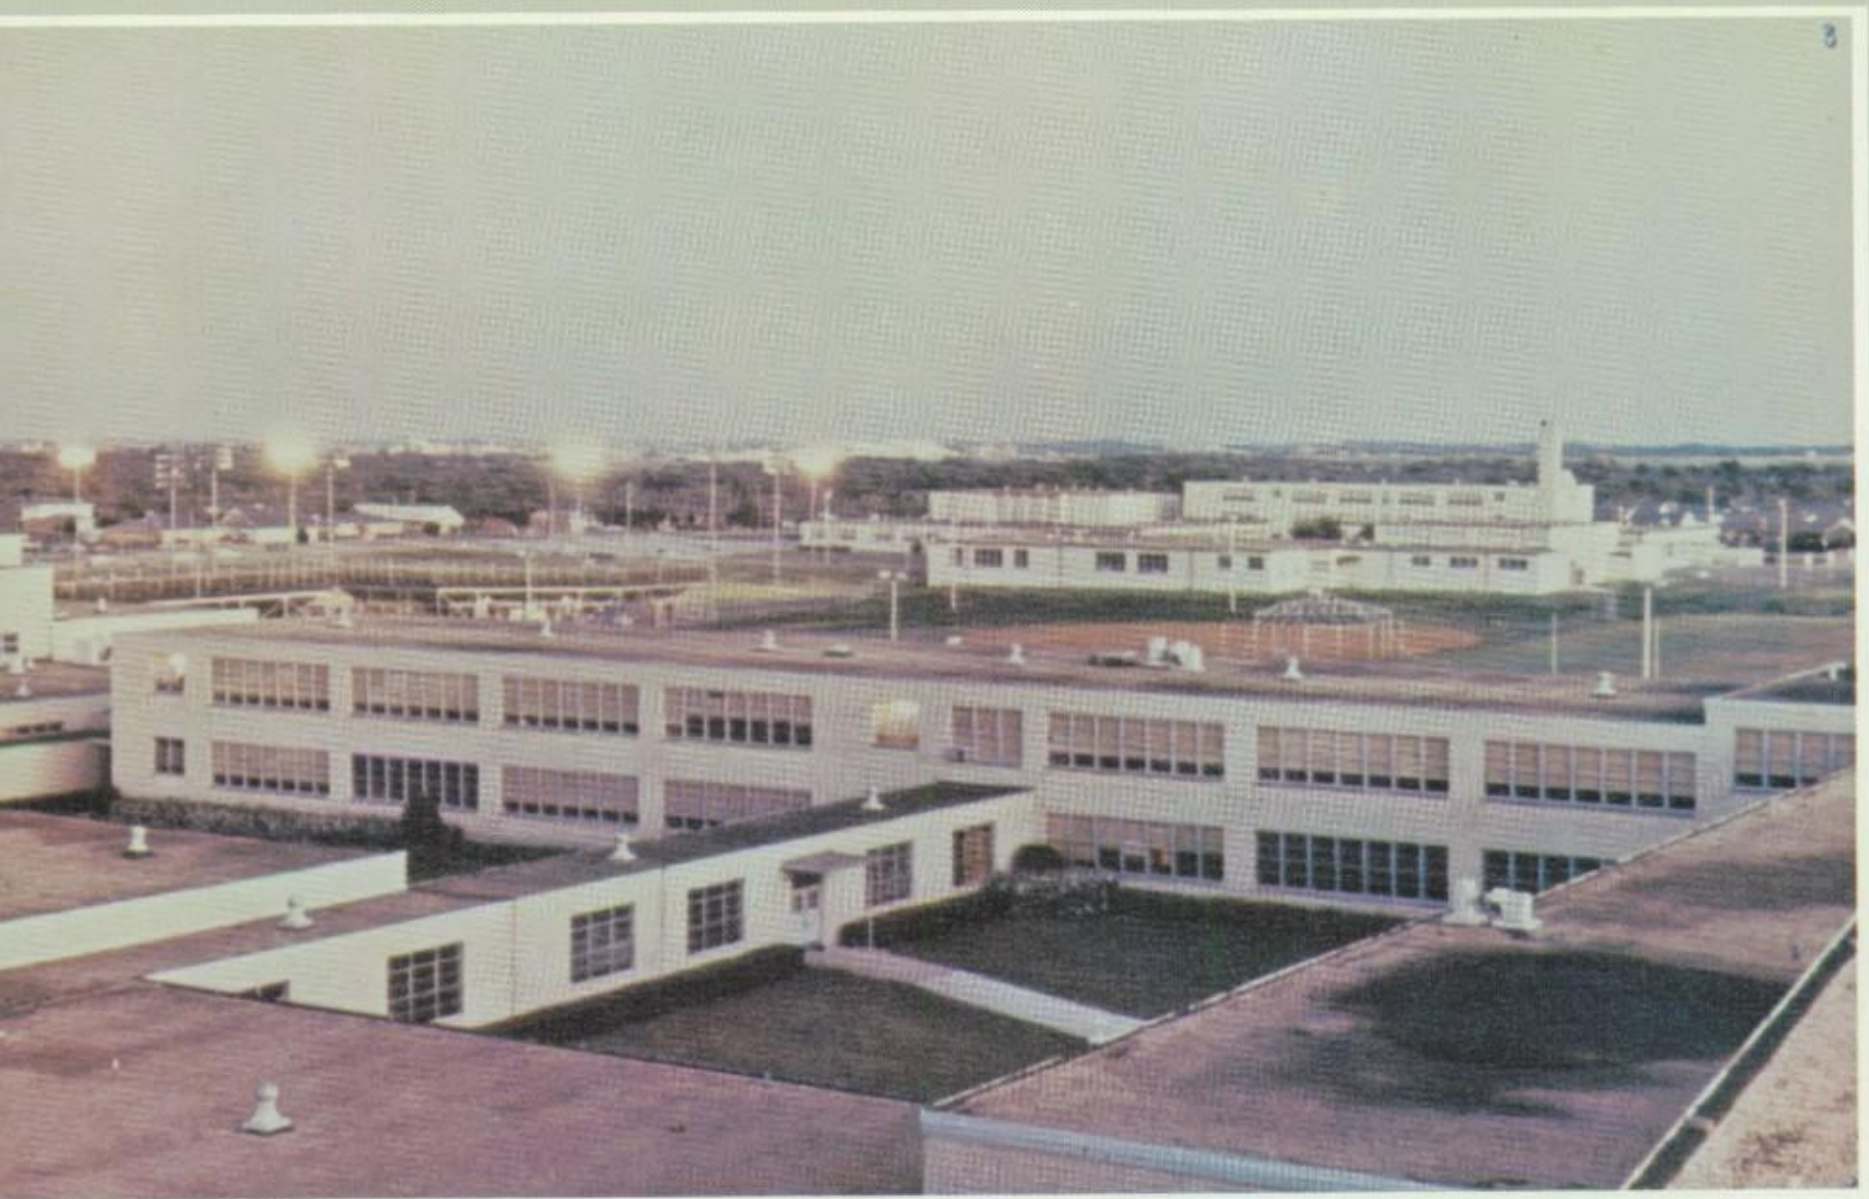

A symbol of beauty, the fountain stands in the west courtyard.

Four Seasons*

Emotions strike the faces of Kimball fans as Knights struggle for first down.

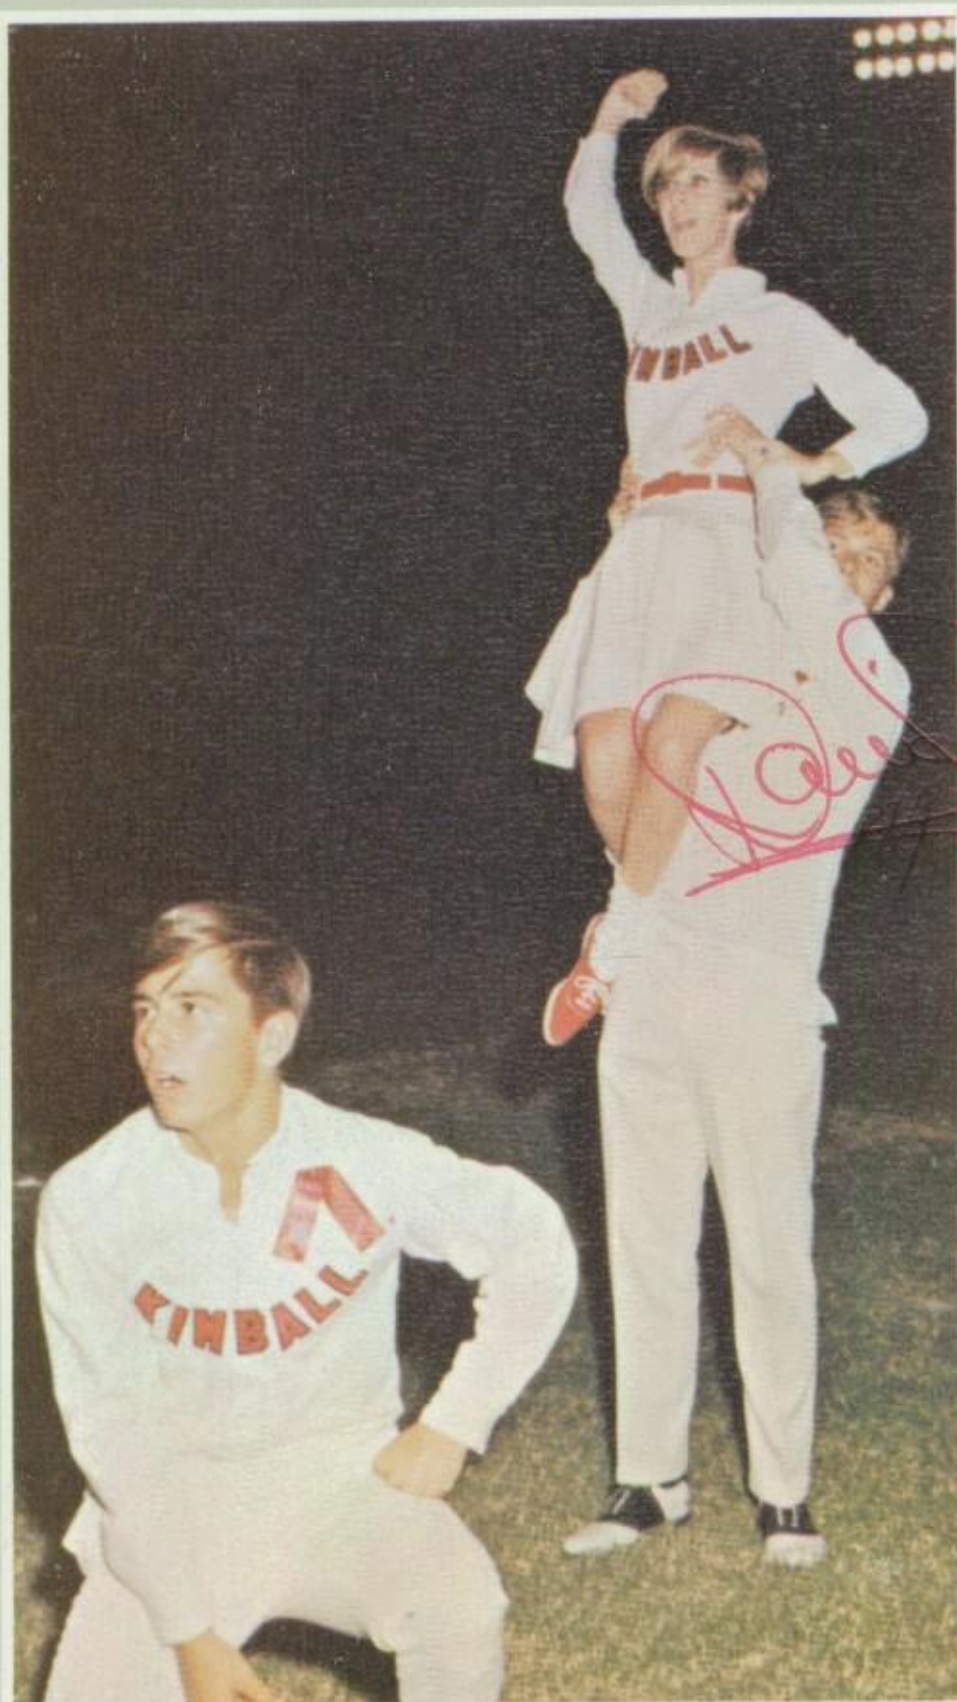

Terry McCullough warms up prior to Adamson contest.

Mr. Durrett, reliving olden coaching days, offers timely advice to William Poe.

Marie Lenheiser, David Pearson, and Mike Crutcher lead Kimball cheers.

John Hummel wins 880 district race hands down.

Mastery in various fields of sports has long since become a yearly expected occurrence at Kimball. In the ten previous years, the athletic department is credited with at least one zone championship in each existing sport—a fine record for so young an institution.

It has been said that credit goes where credit is due. And due it is to those youths who have in the past year made athletics at Kimball a dreaded force in the eyes of their competitors. Those included are the captains of the teams, who along with the coaches build team spirit and desire for excellence. However, most worthy of this credit are the teams themselves. For they are the foundations which unify the student body into a single unit—one that takes pride in being a living organism in the life of Kimball.

Organizations Offer Students the Opportunity to Serve, Perform, and Lead

Banquets, speakers, and projects: these are all part of the role played by organizations upon student life. Adding pleasure to a student's years in high school, numerous forms of organizations are each a little different for the varying interests among individuals.

Why do people take part in the many clubs at Kimball? Through fellowship with other students, pupils break the monotony of studying, homework assignments, and tests. High spirited fun develops through participation in athletic organizations. A knowledge of peoples from other countries is gained through membership in the language organizations.

However, there are those who wish to do something for Kimball and less privileged people. For these it is possible to join service clubs. Members of the student council and library council work to better Kimball. Such groups as the Y-Teens raise money and give their services for the needy children of our area.

Whatever activities and accomplishments each club performs, they all serve to promote the value of student life at Kimball.

Unexpected action occurs at the FHA initiation banquet.

Members of the marching band tensely await their first performance of the season.

Cheryl Tharp parades her newspaper costume at the A Jamais initiation.

During the chivalrous period of the legendary King Arthur, to obtain the ranking of a knight in King Arthur's court was the highest goal for which an adventurous young page could aim. Only those displaying the most daring gallantry while engaged in battle, and those who yielded the most faithful service toward the king, received a position at the mythical king's Roundtable.

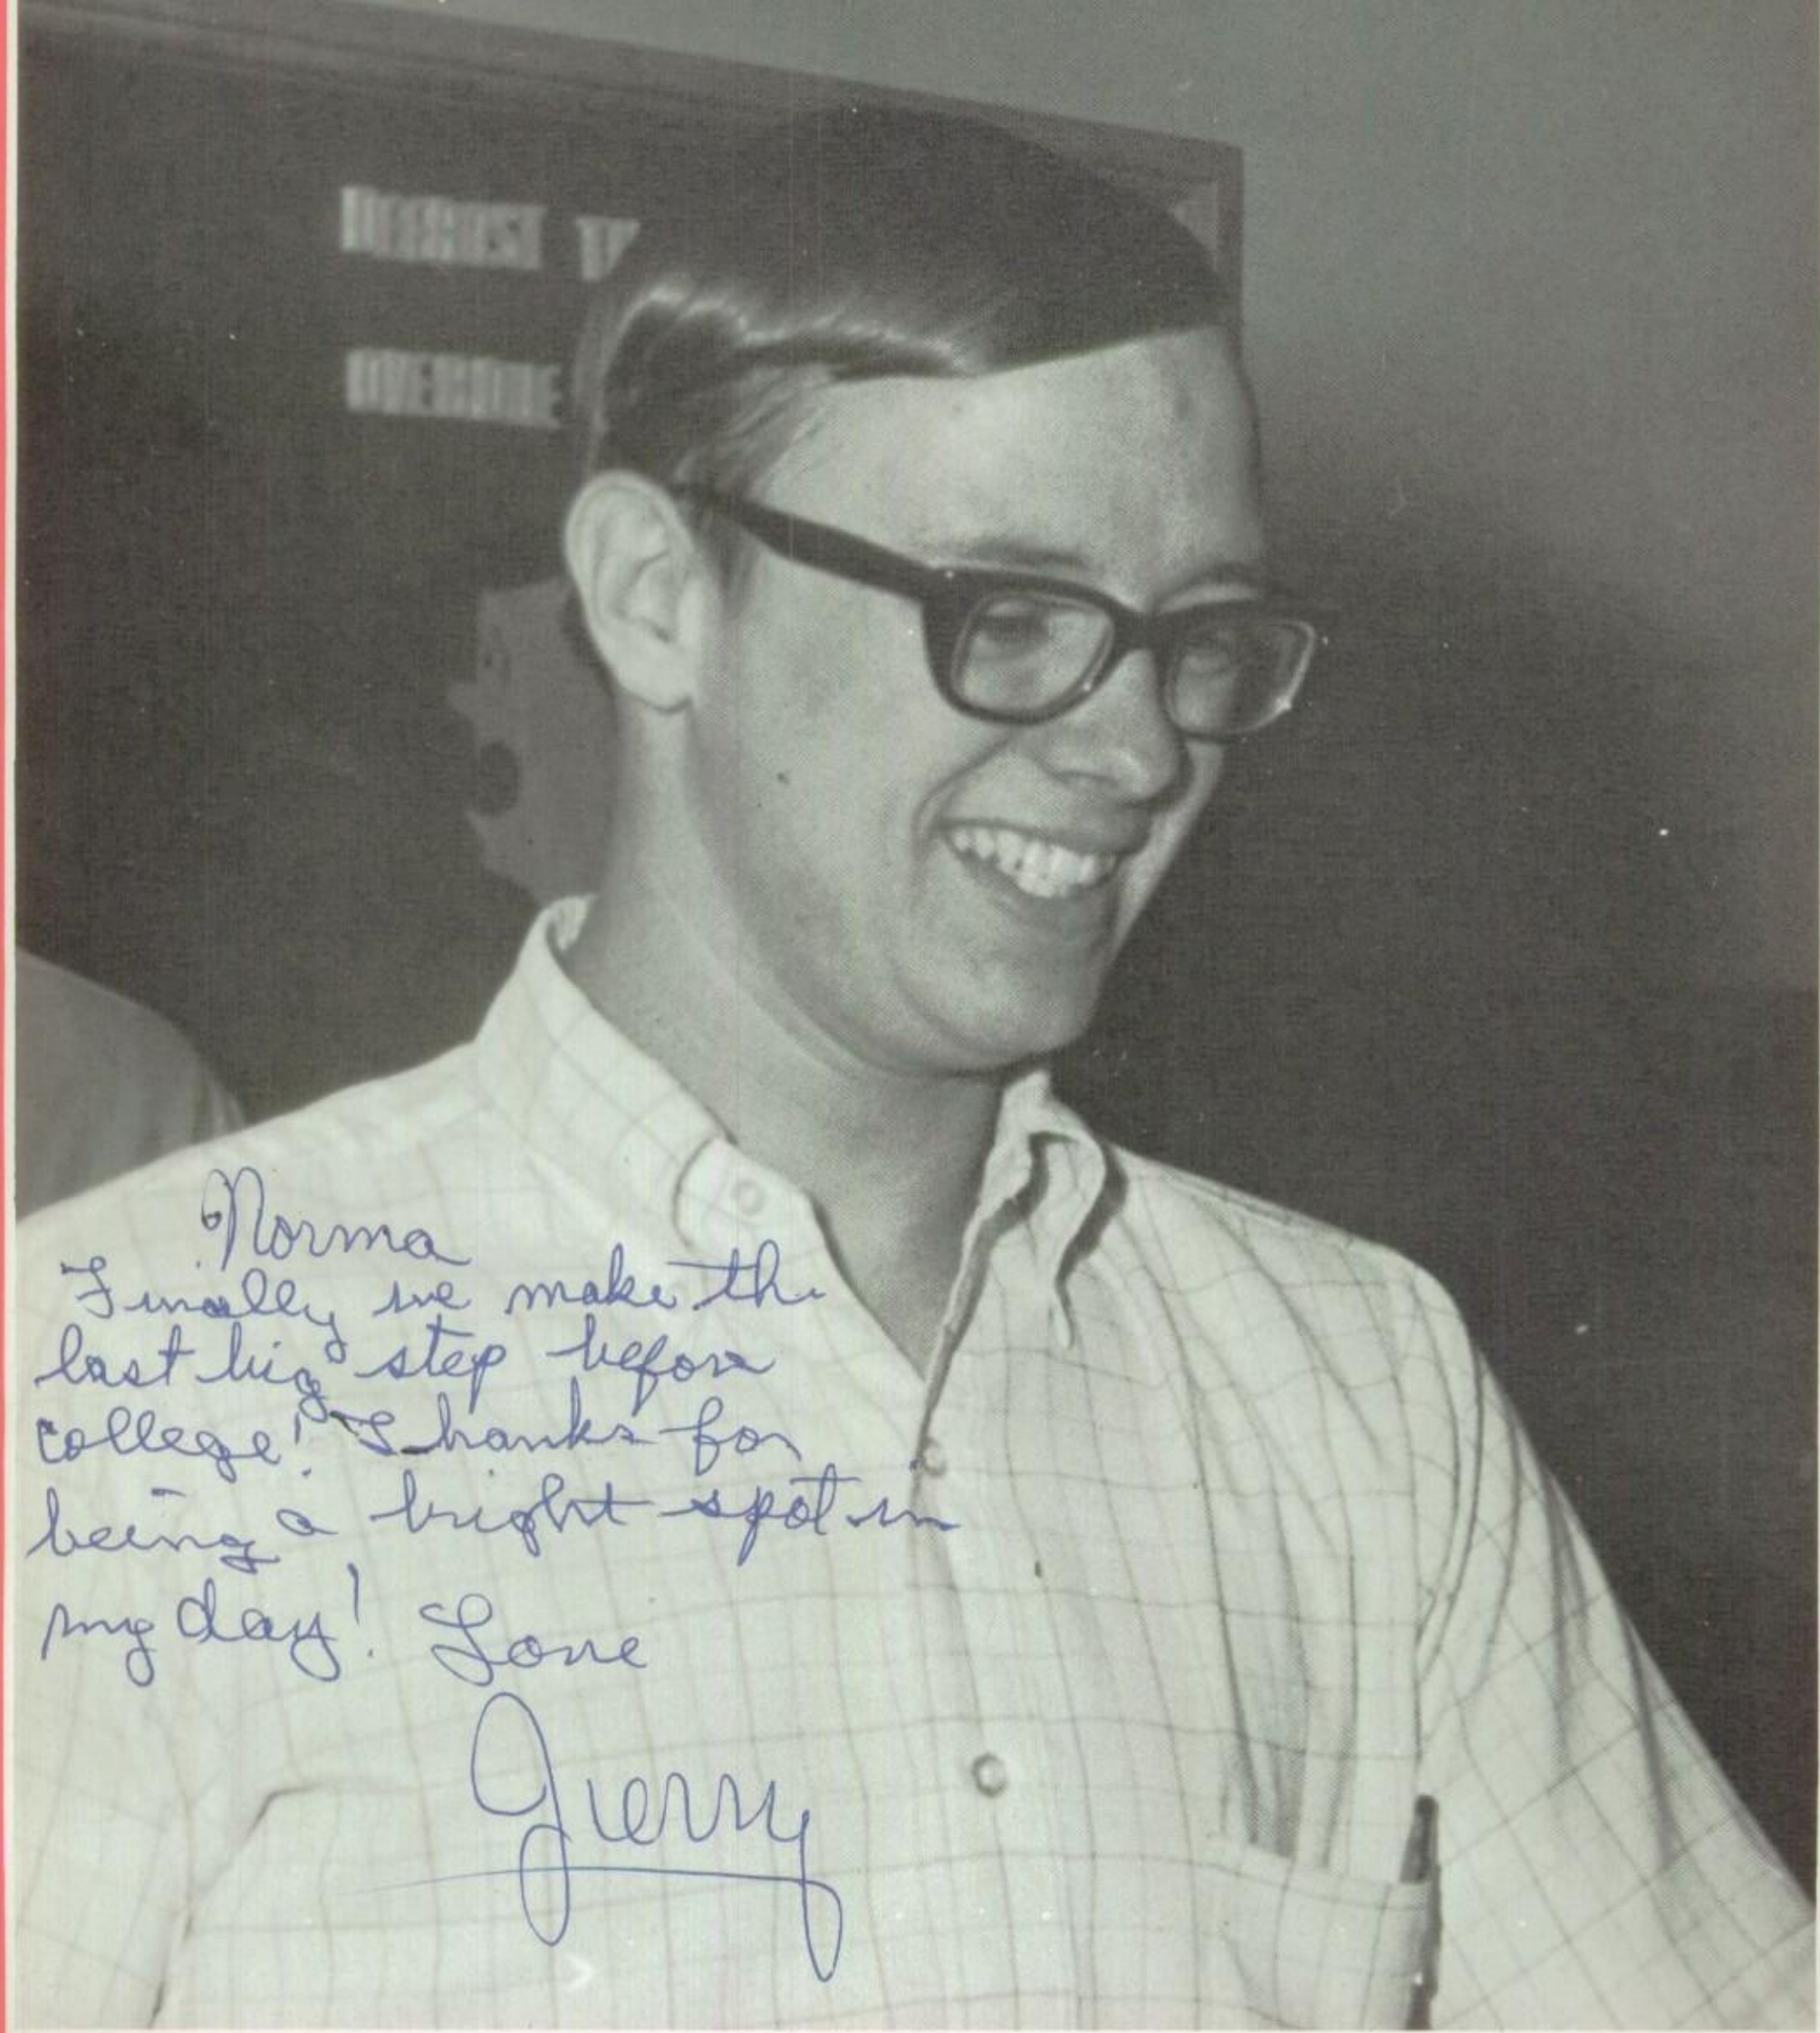

Upon the mention of chivalry and knighthood, one immediately visualizes such names as Sir Galahad, Pellinore, and Sir Lancelot, all three of which were outstanding members of the Roundtable of King Arthur.

Far from the legendary are the Justin F. Kimball Roundtable and its members. Contained within this group are twelve of the most distinguished youth any school could ever have to offer. Selected from the senior class by the members of the faculty, this is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student from Kimball. Each member has continually proven himself as an asset to the classroom, as well as a service to the student body. These are the workhorses that have led Kimball this past year down the golden pathway of success.

Roundtable

Norma
Finally we make the last big step before college! Thanks for being a bright spot in my day! Love

Jerry

Jerry Smith

Earning the respect of fellow students and faculty members is an important factor in the success of a student during his high school years. Certainly no one will doubt that Jerry Smith has accomplished this goal.

Jerry has worked diligently while serving as vice-president of the student body during his senior year.

A three year letterman in tennis with All-City recognition in doubles competition, Jerry has been honored as captain for two successive years.

It has been Jerry's overall attitude that has brought him the trust of his teachers and classmates.

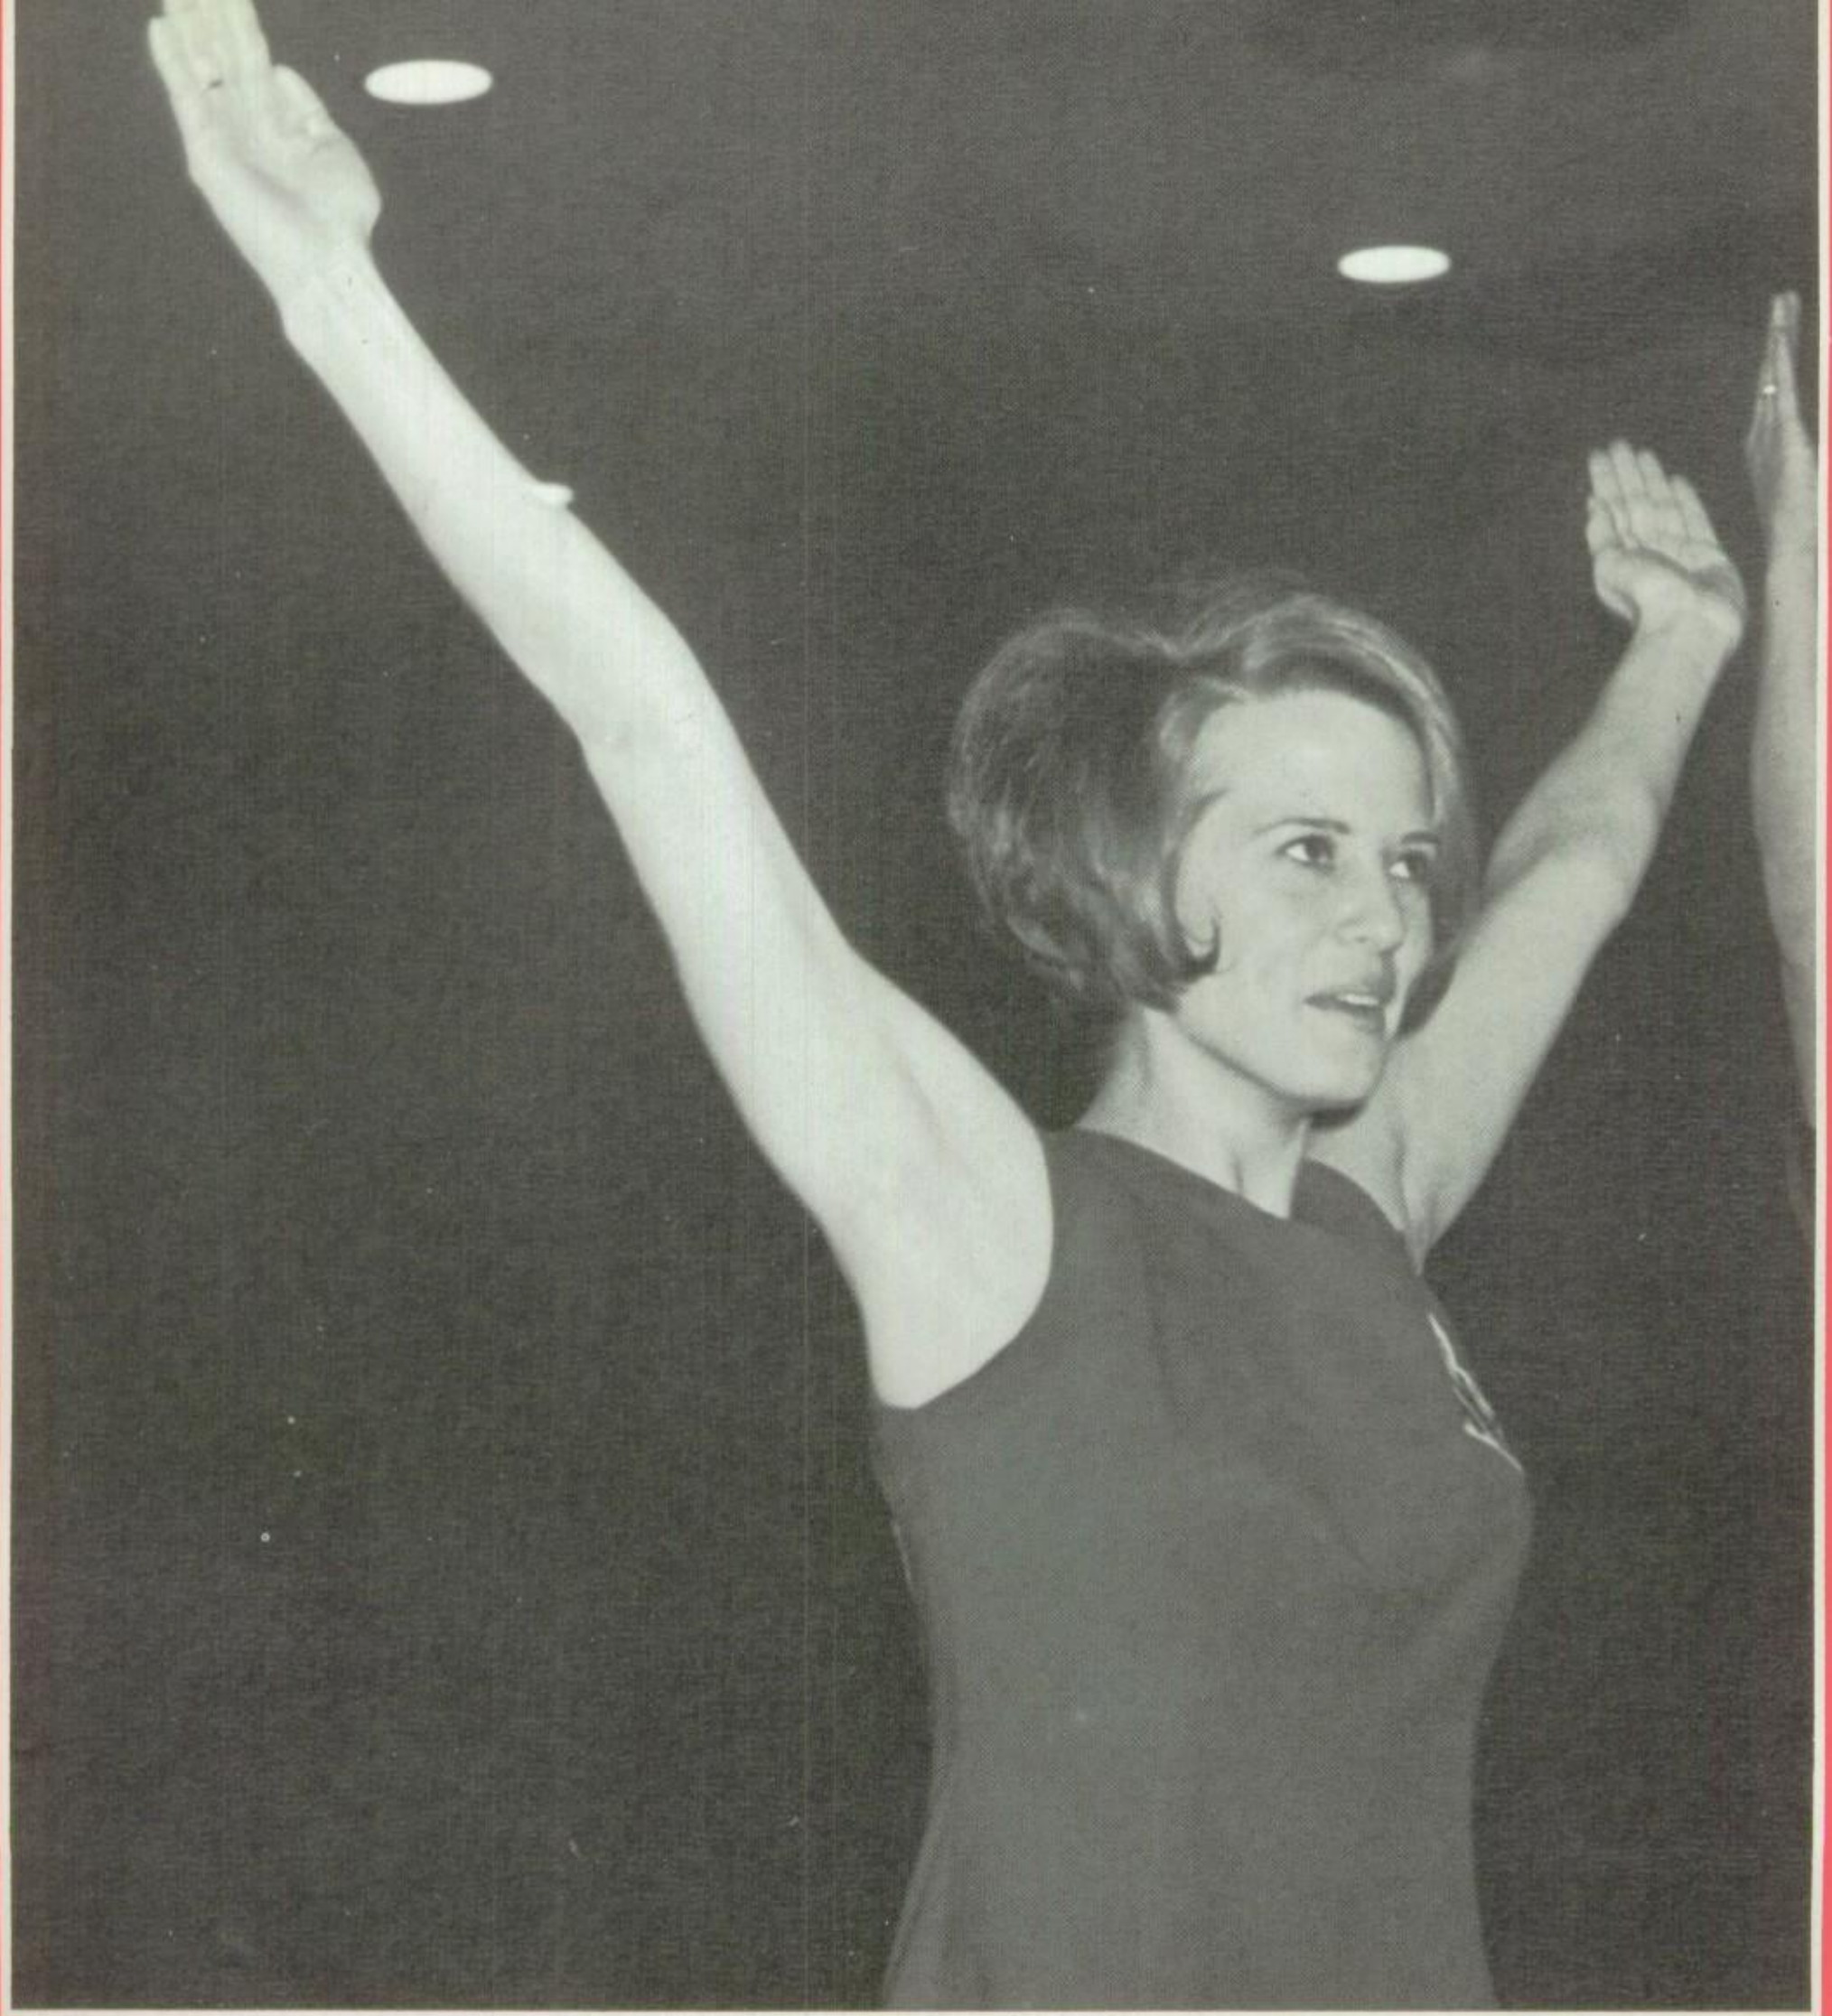

Paula Idt

Through the years, the flawless accuracy and precision of the Kimball Troubadears have been distinguishably recognized throughout the city. The person most responsible for developing and maintaining the perfection of the drill team this year has been captain Paula Idt. Her sense of authority and leadership have made Paula most worthy of this position.

Equal in degree to Paula's leadership abilities have been her scholastic endeavors. Each year, she has ranked academically at the top of her class.

Whether seen as a small white patch in a sea of scarlet Troubadear uniforms, or as a studious classroom worker, both display Paula's self determination to apply herself with the utmost of her capabilities.

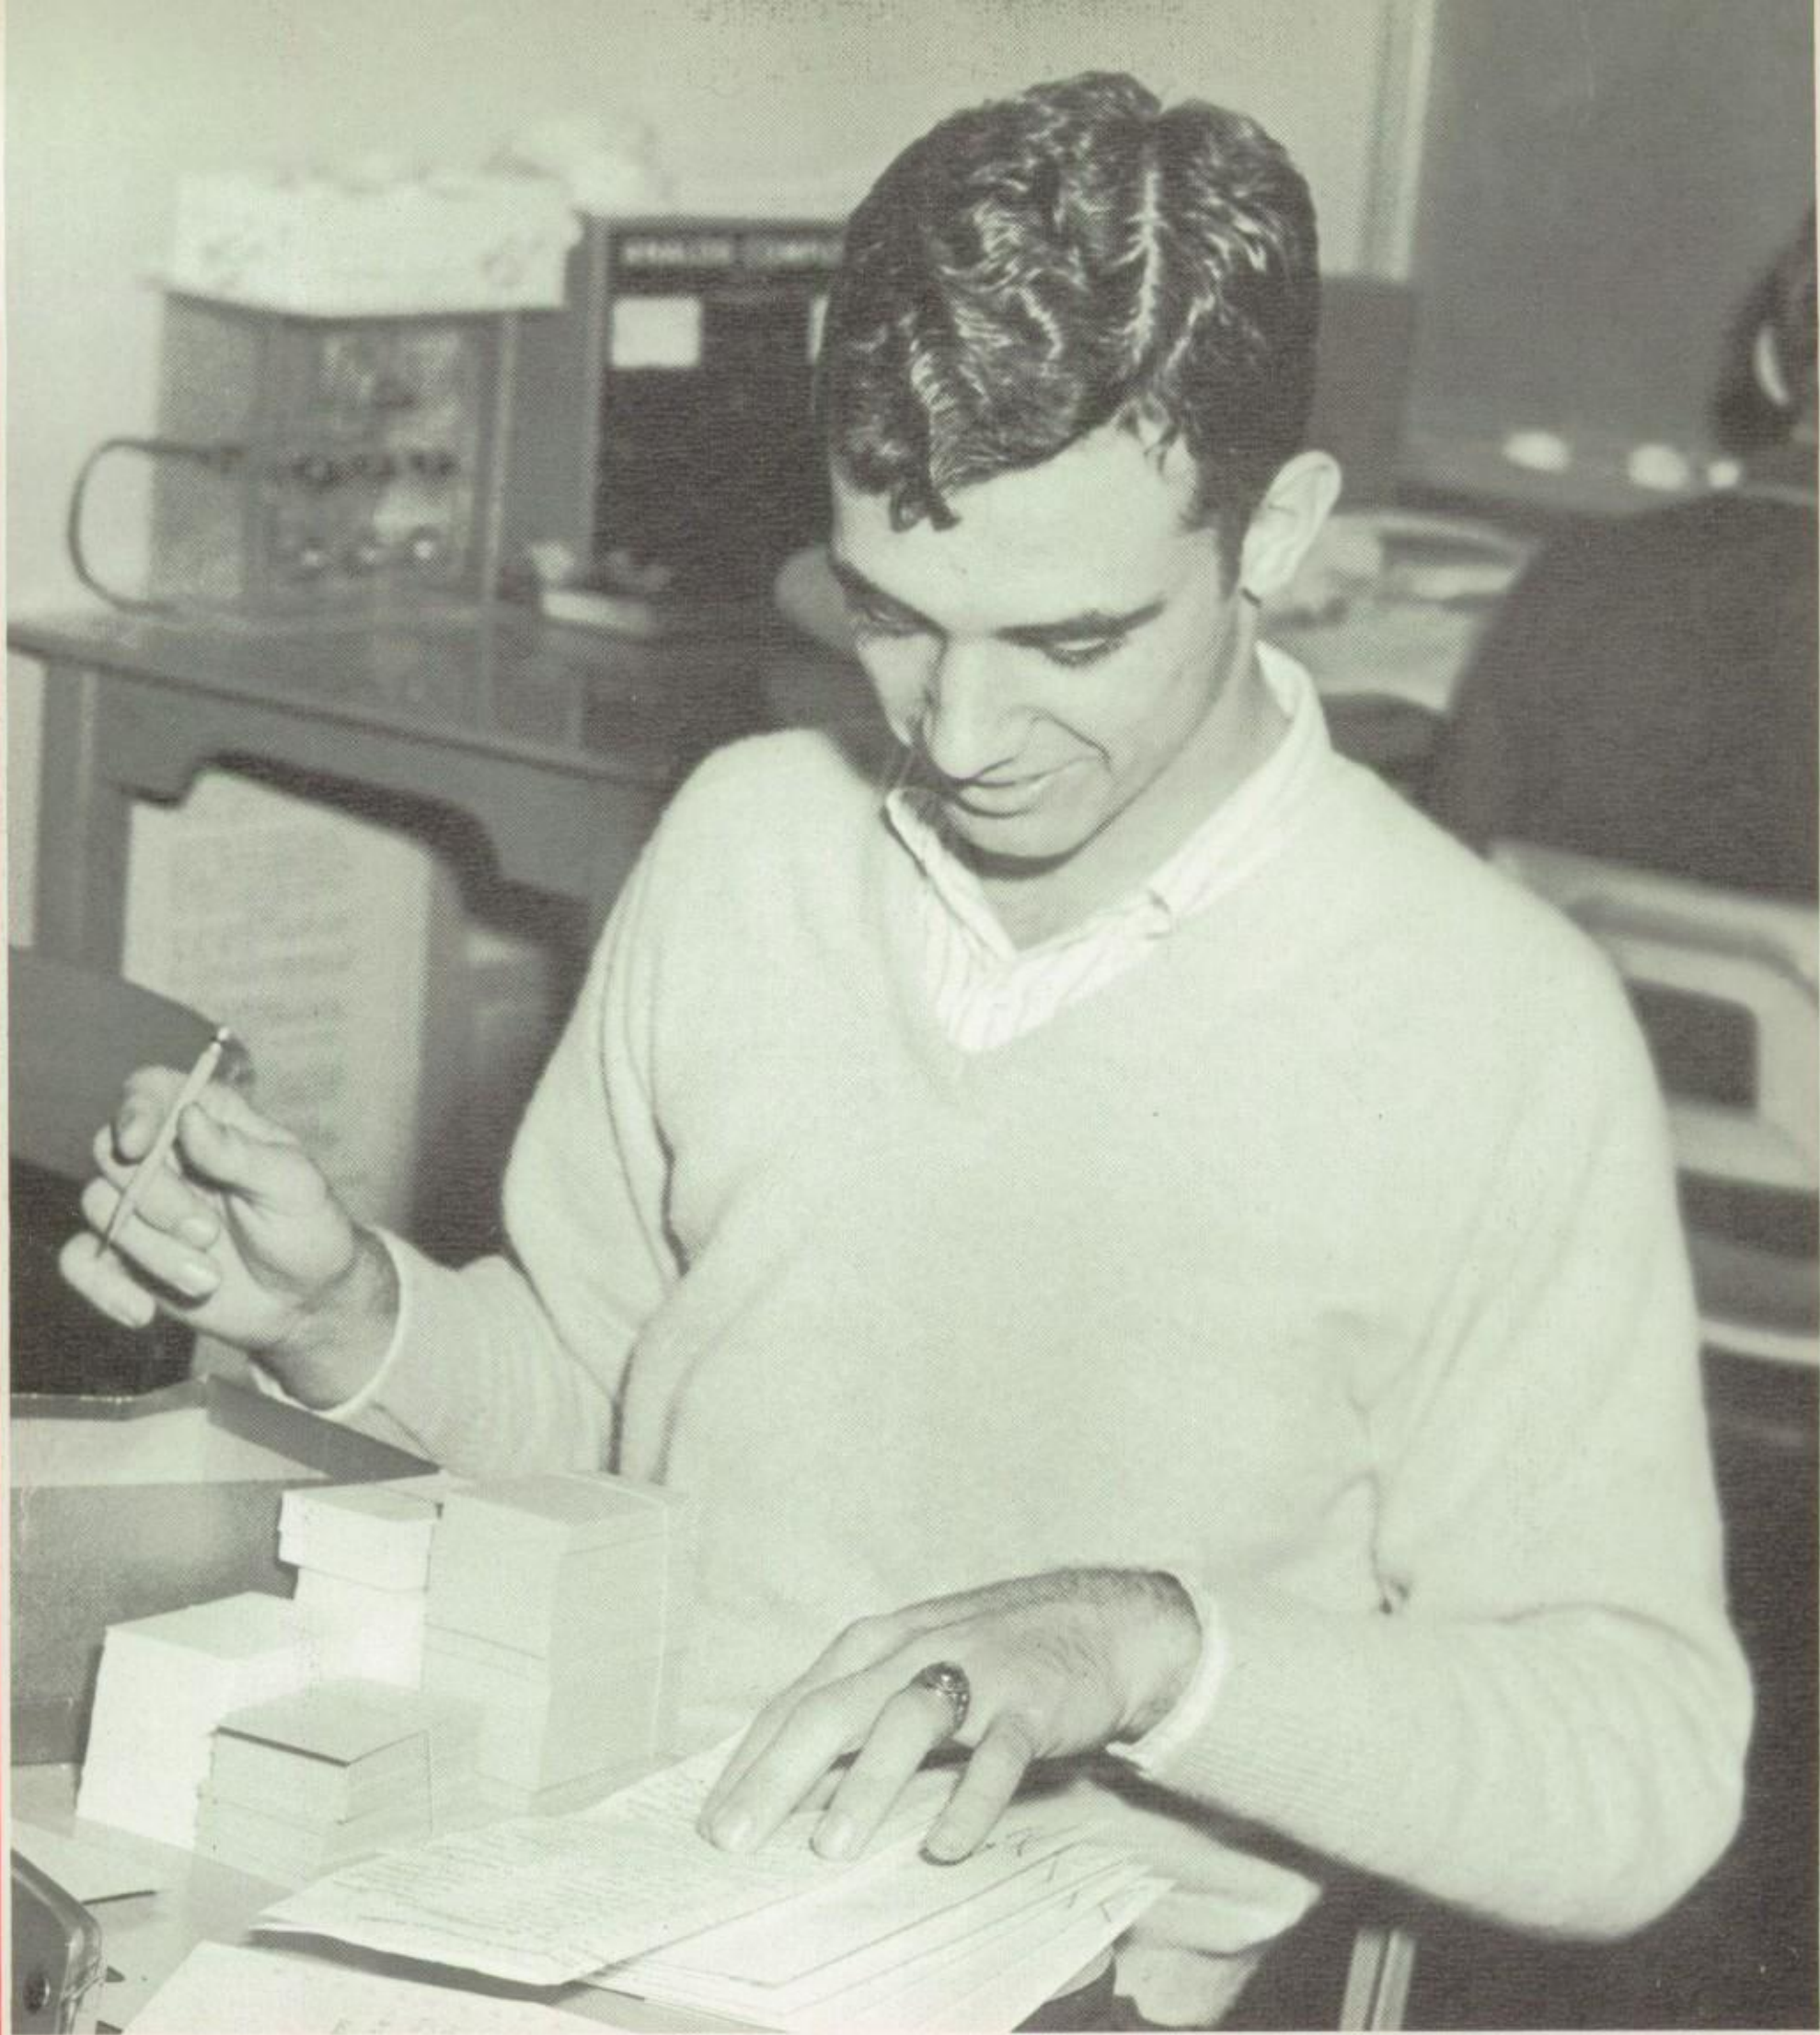

Gayle Cordray

Leadership can be considered as both an honor obtained over a period of time and a present responsibility or obligation to others. Gayle Cordray's outgoing nature, beauty, and perseverance are just qualifications for leadership.

Every one of the daily functions of a high school is dependent on such interested students as Gayle. Directing the cheers and spirit of Kimball during pep assemblies as a cheerleader has kept Gayle busy during the past two years. Her countless hours of practice in coordinating the organization of each yell with the other cheerleaders have not been in vain, however. Gayle has been fortunate enough to serve as a cheerleader for the Dallas Cowboys football team.

As unbelievable as it may seem, Gayle has managed to find time to serve in many other school functions, including being on the Junior Play advertising committee and a group guide for El Sol.

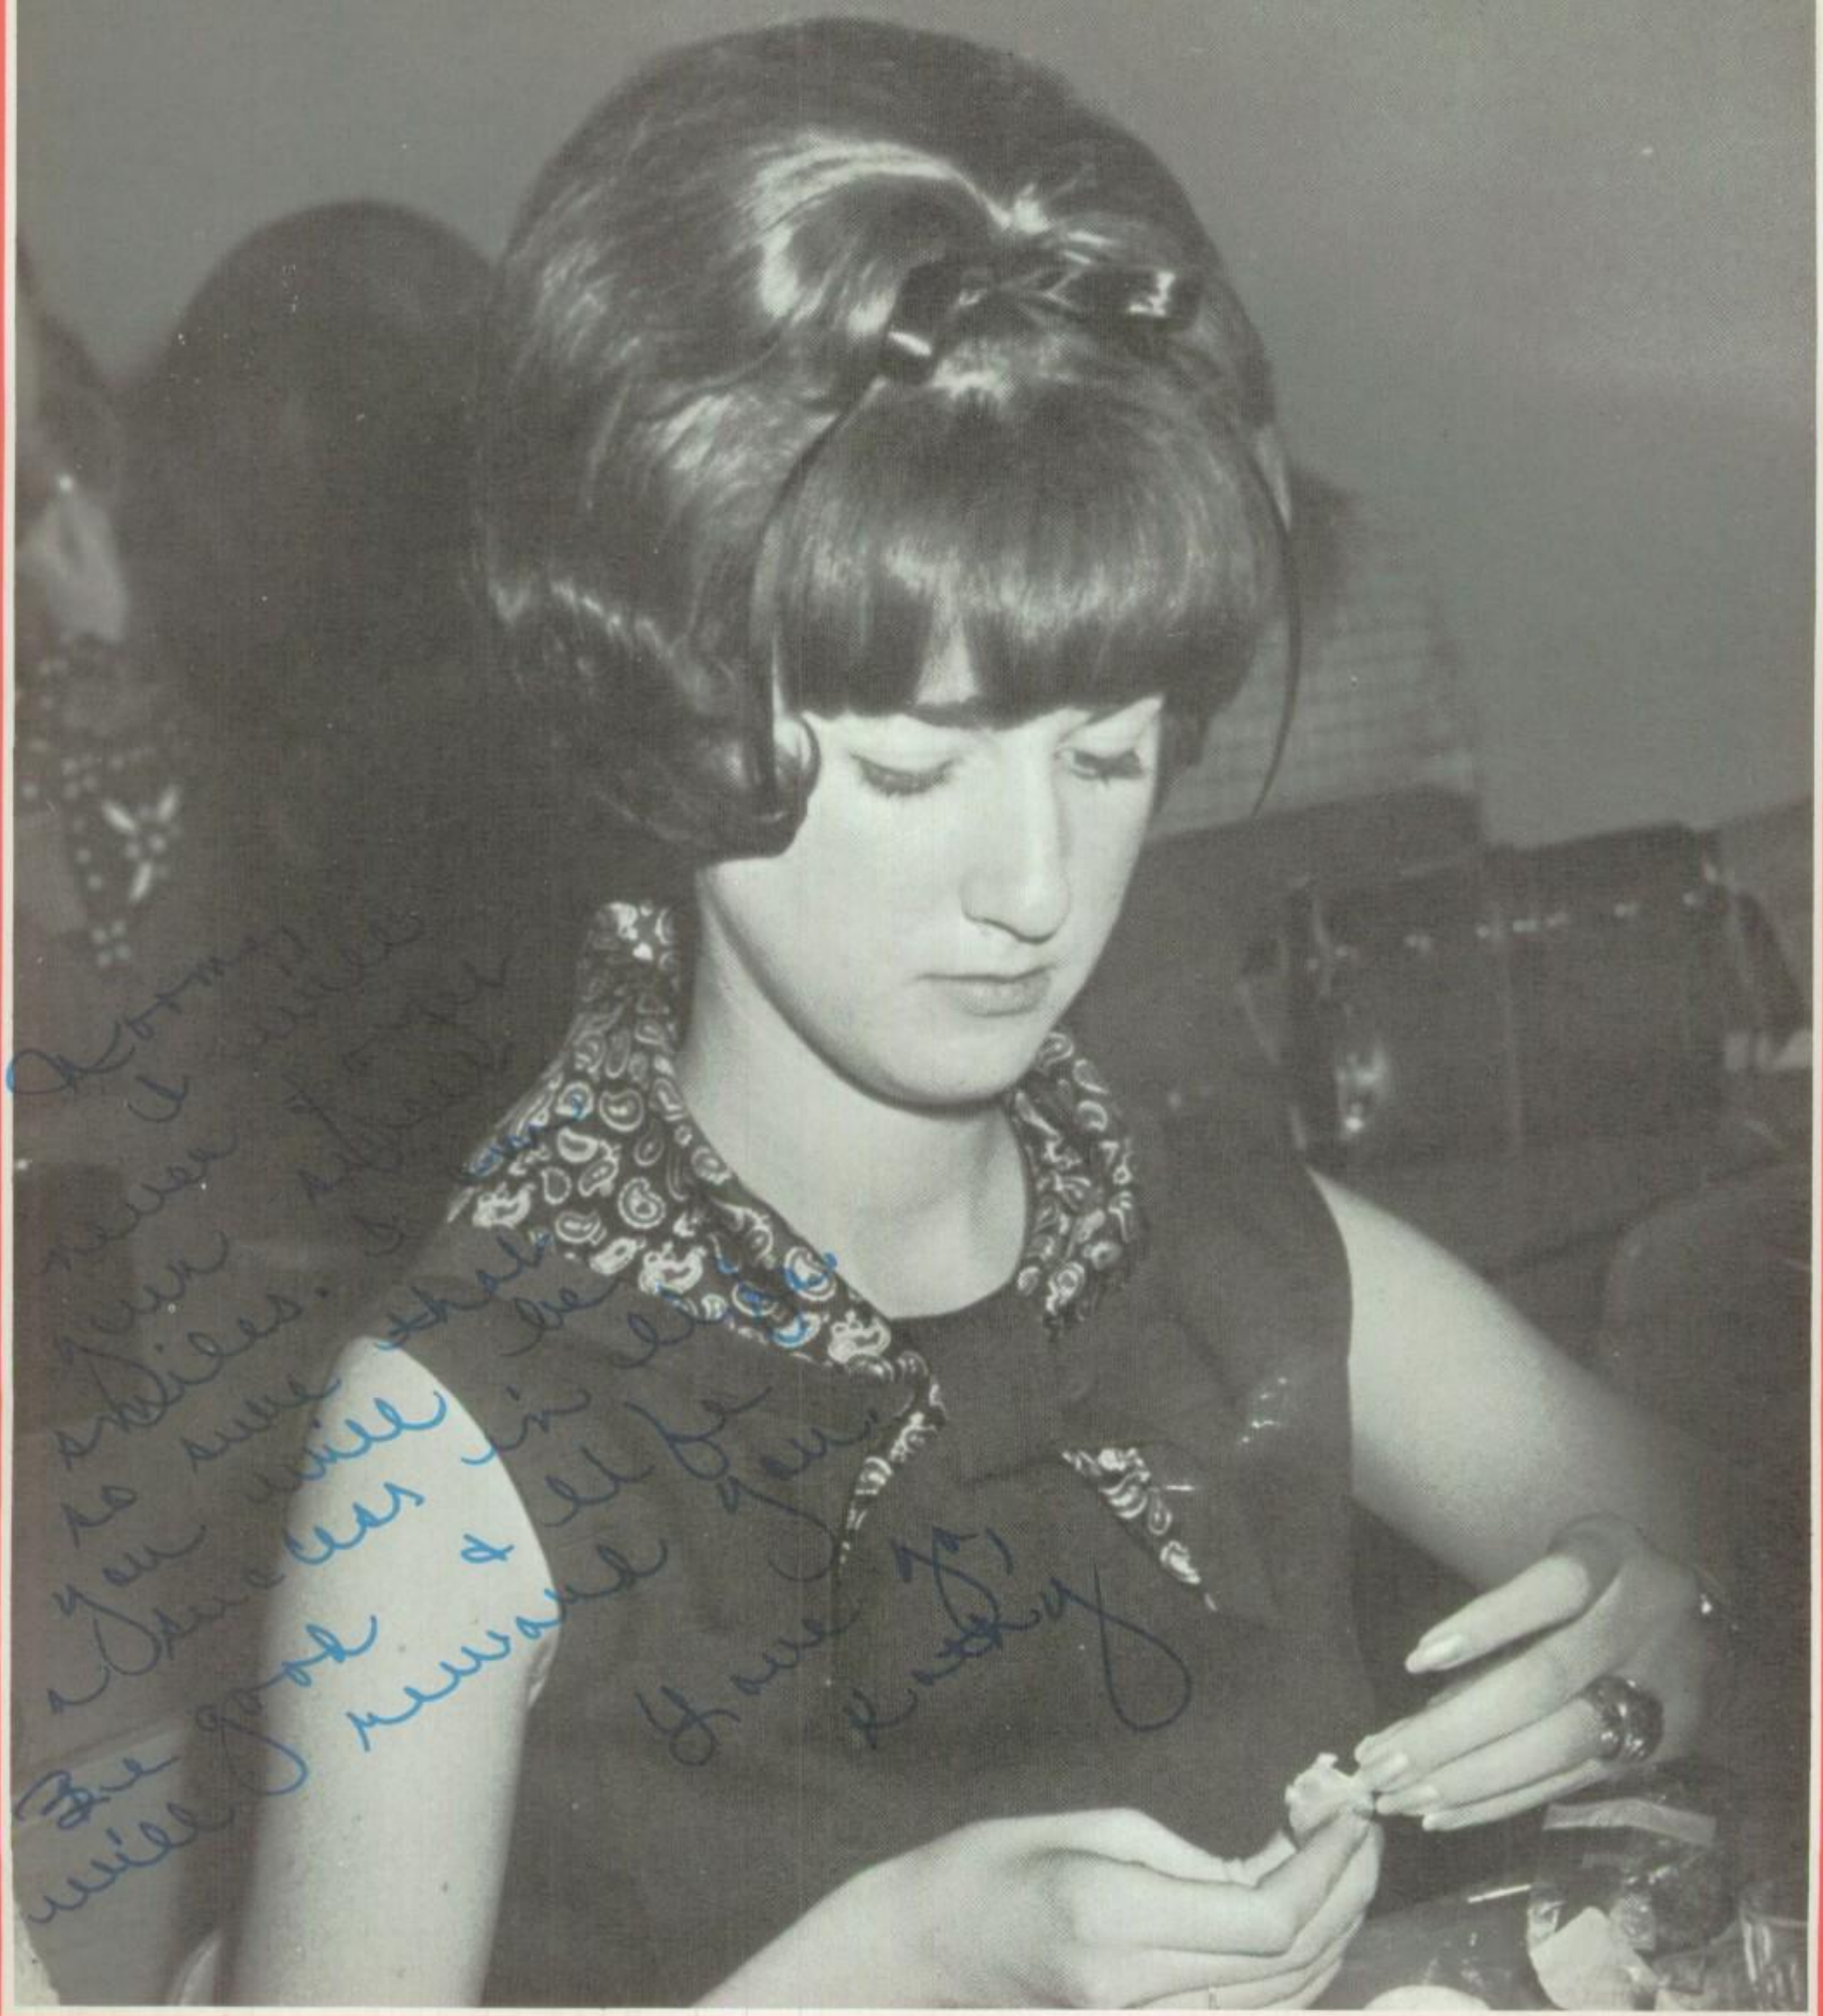

Mike Poss

Displaying a consistency in the classroom equal to his determination on the football field, Mike Poss is symbolic of the outstanding student. Fulfilling positions on both the defensive and offensive platoons, Mike has performed to the very best of his capabilities—the most that can be asked of any person.

While not participating in sports, Mike works steadfastly for the betterment of Kimball. Many school organizations have found his services irreplaceable. Perhaps Mike's greatest contributions have stemmed from his receiving the office of treasurer of the senior class. Mike's accomplishments have been recognized by having been chosen for membership in the National Honor Society.

Kathy Geist

Deeply interested and concerned in community and national affairs are traits which exemplify the character of Kathy Geist. Having attended the Bluebonnet Girls State as a delegate from Kimball, Kathy has strengthened her sense of duty to herself and others, along with her moral ideas.

After receiving membership into the National Honor Society for her scholastic ability, she was elected to the office of secretary of that organization. Outside-of-school endeavors have been receiving the attention of Kathy, among these being that she has served as a representative to the youth film forum.

Stephen Tobolowsky

Unmatchable leadership, meritorious service, greatest performer—what less than superior phrases can be used to describe Stephen Tobolowsky. Much of the honor that has been bestowed upon Kimball within the past three years can be accredited to Stephen. His performance in state one act play competition not only helped win the second place berth, but also earned Stephen the recognition as being the best actor in Texas.

During the summer, Stephen's activities did not let up. Upon winning a trip with other distinguished youth from across the nation, the group spoke to the United Nations Assembly, and Stephen was chosen the country's outstanding youth speaker.

Completing this year as president of the student body, it is clearly evident as to the reasons for Stephen's election into the National Honor Society, and the importance of the services he has rendered to Kimball.

Dan Zivney

Whether it is an invitation to represent Kimball at the Texas Boys State, or to attend the nuclear Science Symposium as a Kimball delegate, or to be the school guest of the Dallas and Oak Cliff Rotary Clubs, Dan Zivney is always willing to accept the responsibility of a good student and a fine citizen. Along with these obligations, Dan gives a great deal of time and energy to school organizations as a member and vice-president of the Future Scientists.

Dan's elections to Quill and Scroll and the National Honor Society demonstrate his high scholastic ability and respected character. As Editor-in-Chief of the Excalibur, he displays the leadership necessary for such a prominent role.

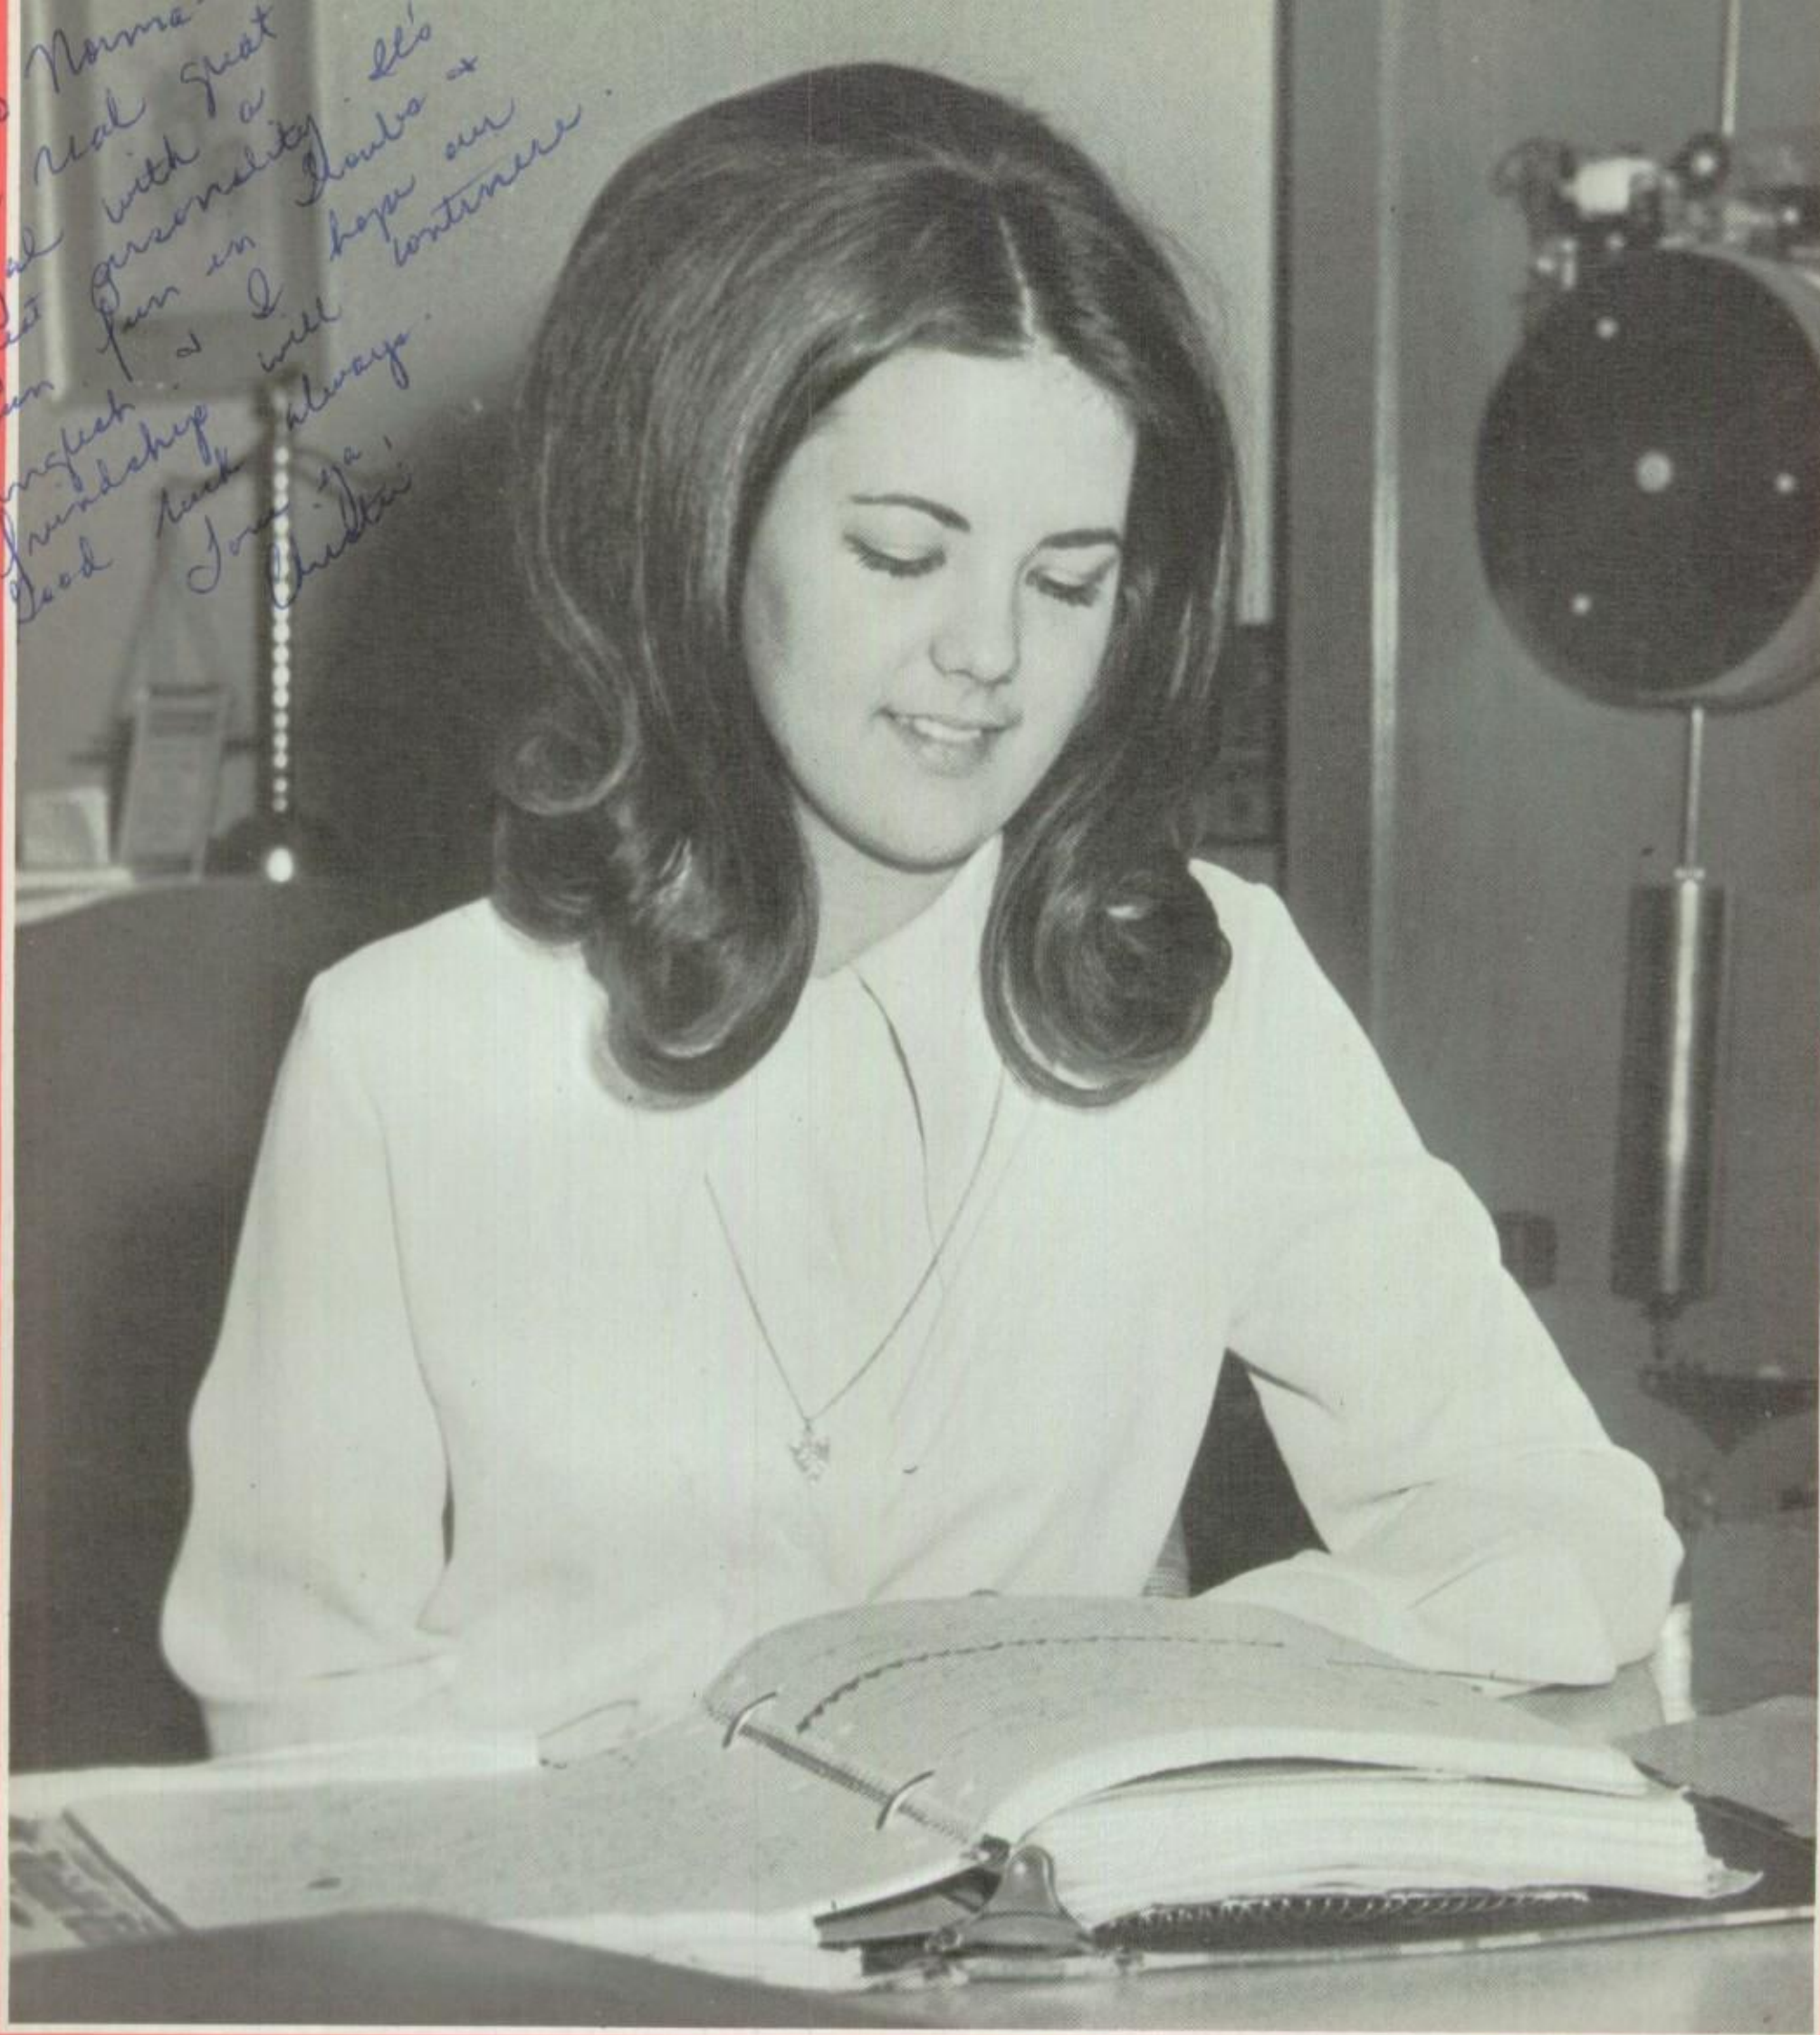

Lynne Weiser

Versatile is an adjective commonly used in describing the character of Lynne Weiser. A maze of activities dominate Lynne's life, within and beyond the confines of Kimball. Mentally, Lynne possesses an admirably high intelligence and sense of values, leading to her election into the National Honor Society and Spanish Honor Society, of which she is president.

Many strenuous hours of practice are spent by Lynne in the many clubs in which she holds membership. Besides devoting much of her time as lieutenant of the Troubadears in perfecting the drill team, Lynne has taken part in the spring musicals representing the dance club.

Lynne Weiser can rightfully be considered symbolic of the eternal spirit of Kimball.

Norma
a real great gal with a great personality

I hope our friendship will

Love ya,
Christie

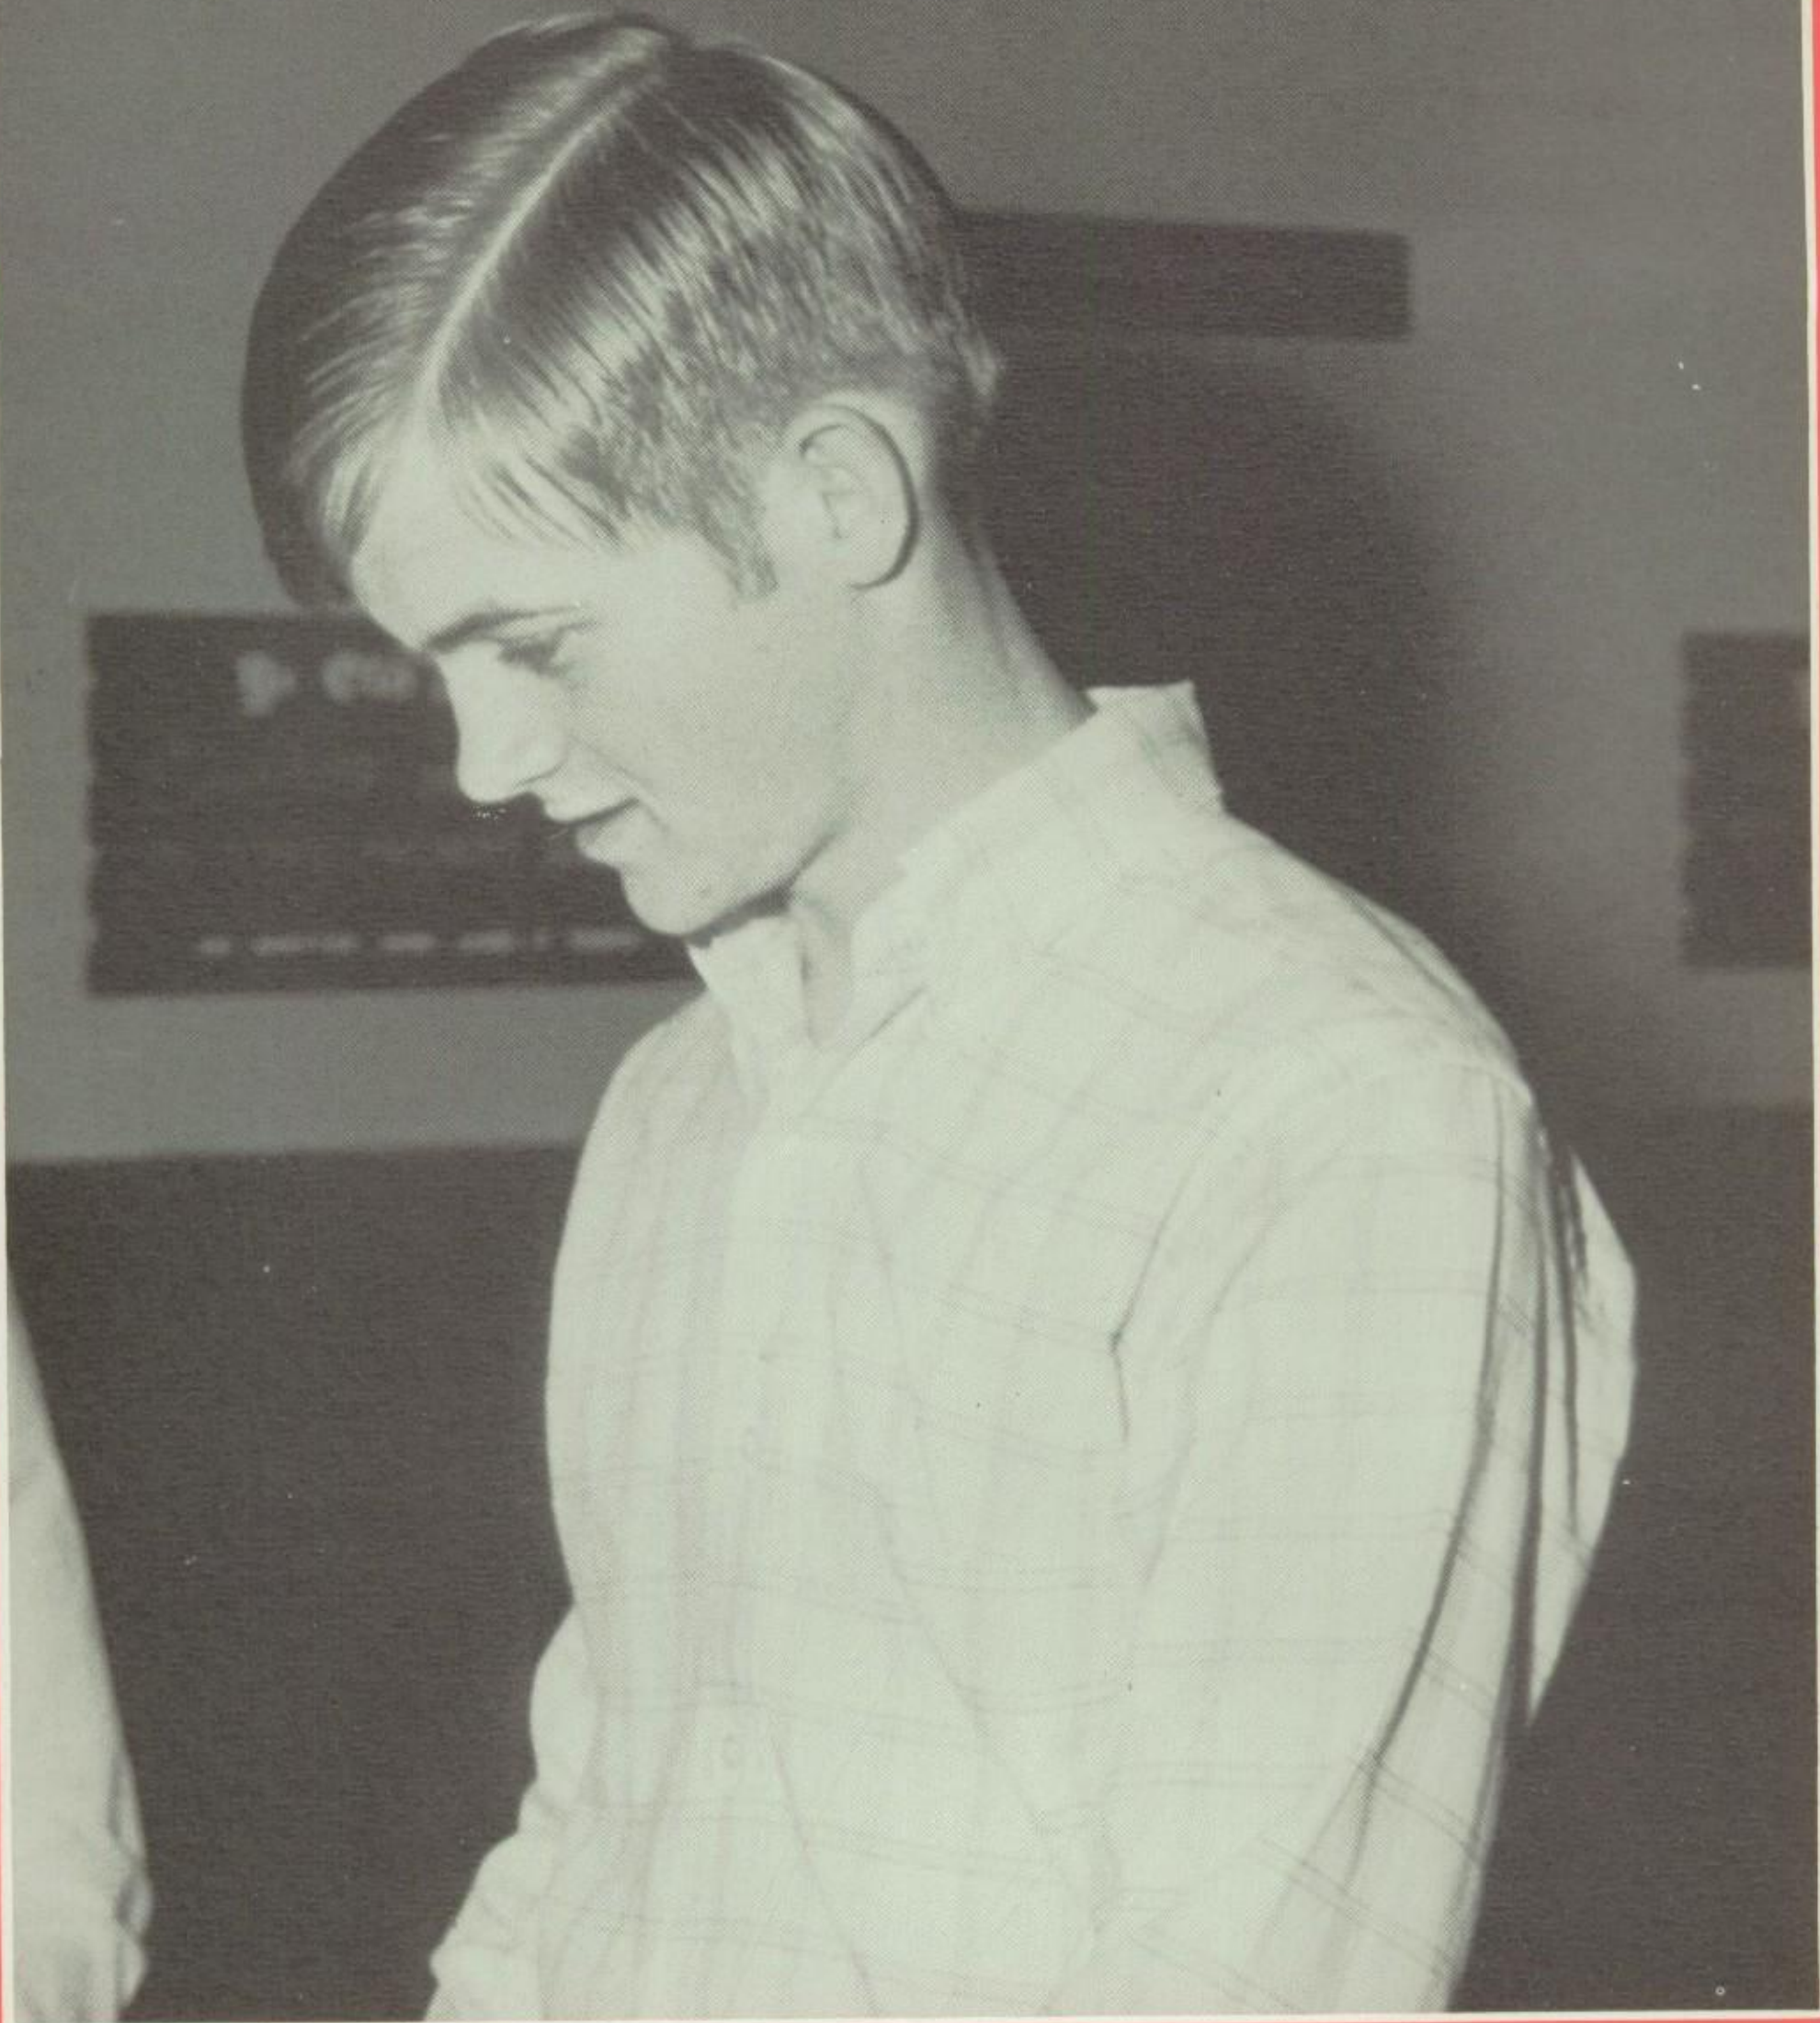

Christie Ford

Accepting the responsibility of youth involvement in state and local service projects has motivated Christie Ford to do something for others. Her convictions can be clearly cited by the fact that she has served faithfully as the county chairman for the state March of Dimes campaign. Her outstanding service for this worthy organization has been strongly felt and gratefully accepted by thousands of handicapped children.

Extending her activities within the school, Christie's kindly personality and beauty yield to instant friendship with all people with which she comes in contact. Chosen the November Student of the Month, Christie has also been honored with membership in the National Honor Society.

Denny Beall

Matching the athletic accomplishments of Denny Beall has been his endless desire to work effectively for others. If there is a job to be done, Denny is motivated by his untiring efforts to work steadfastly until the task is completed. This has been clearly illustrated by the fact that he has been chosen to serve as president of both his sophomore and senior classes.

As the activities of a school seem to become more hectic as the year progresses, the same is true for Denny. Holding down the starting position at guard on the varsity basketball team, he has obtained two letters. At the close of basketball season, Denny moves out-of-doors, where his performance as second baseman has been nothing less than spectacular. Denny Beall's membership into the National Honor Society can be attributed to the well-rounded student he has displayed himself to be.

Mike Joyce

Constant smile and continual happiness are trademarks of the personality of Mike Joyce. No one is a stranger to Mike due to this cheerful outlook on life which he displays in the classroom and while on stage directing pep assemblies as a cheerleader.

Always active and enthusiastic, Mike has also applied these attributes to the more serious side of high school activities. His willingness to work in the concert choir and student council have been fine examples of his self-determination to apply himself. However, Mike's most important contributions to the school have resulted from his being elected vice president of the senior class.

Mike Hall

Self-determination and dignity are the key traits which have led to the success of Mike Hall. Not a loud-spoken type of individual, Mike has made his presence be known through his will to grasp all that can be offered in school. It is evident that both teachers and classmates alike respect his efforts by the many offices he holds in school organizations. After being chosen for membership into the National Honor Society, Mike was elected to the club's presidency.

Leaning his interests toward the field of science, Mike is concluding a year of service as president of the Future Scientists. This position was obtained just a year after his being chosen vice-president of the same organization in his junior year.

Achieving a great many more honors during the past three years, Mike exemplifies the worldly leader of tomorrow.

To inspire, to guide, to educate—these are all integral parts of the role performed by the faculty and administration. A student comes to Kimball as an inexperienced, inquisitive sophomore. His work toward the development and advancement of Kimball as he grows into a respectable, mature senior is a great contribution. However, the valued service of each student in the cycle of his high school life ends with graduation.

This is not the case of the faculty member. A teacher's entire career is one of giving of himself to the school, through his interest, knowledge, and friendship.

A teacher relates and passes on his knowledge within the classroom. Interest and friendship are displayed by supporting productions, teams, and other activities around Kimball, and through the atmosphere of warmth he possesses while doing so.

It is the faculty that is responsible for the educational building block of Kimball. Their efforts have not made Kimball just a building, but rather an edifice of learning.

Board of Education

Dr. Estes became the Superintendent of the Dallas Independent School District on September 1, 1968. He is a native Texan and was born June 22, 1930.

Dr. Estes attended the Rio Hondo, Texas, public schools and graduated from the University of Corpus Christi with a Bachelor of Science degree shortly before his twentieth birthday. He received his Master of Education from the University of Texas in 1954. He did graduate work at Baylor University in 1956 and earned the Doctor of Education degree from Harvard in 1959. He has since done post-doctoral work at Columbia University Teachers College in New York City.

In 1965 Dr. Estes went to the U.S. Office of Education as a Ford Fellow Washington Intern in Education. In 1966

he became Director of the Division of Plans and Supplementary Centers which administers five federal assistance programs, including the innovative PACE program under Title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. Later in the same year he was appointed Deputy Associate Commissioner of the Bureau of Elementary and Secondary Education and finally he became Associate Commissioner in the U.S. Office of Education, the position he held until he resigned to accept the position as Superintendent of the Dallas Schools.

Earlier in his career, Dr. Estes taught in the public schools of Texas, served as an assistant superintendent in Chattanooga, was a superintendent in suburban St. Louis, and once served as principal in Lake Waco School.

Man
With Determination*

Mr. Durrett is busy with the paper work that is essential for the smooth operation of Kimball.

As the eleventh year of Kimball rolls around, Mr. Durrett is completing his eleventh year of successful performance of executive duties.

He was born in Missouri and attended Iowa State University. While there, he had the high public esteem of being elected President of the Student Body. Upon graduation, Mr. Durrett was bestowed with a Master of Arts Degree.

Prior to coming to Kimball, he was a coach at Oak Cliff High School, now Adamson, for fifteen years. From there he became Principal of Margaret

B. Henderson Elementary School and later Boude Storey Junior High School. Mr. Durrett was selected as Principal of Justin Ford Kimball High School when it opened in 1958.

Having been a former coach, he believes athletics increase the strength of a person's pride in himself, his school, and his teammates. Mr. Durrett voiced his philosophy thusly, "Each person who gives his best in anything he attempts will prosper."

He thoroughly enjoys being around students because he feels it keeps him young.

MR. W. P. DURRETT

Principal, Justin F. Kimball High School

MR. J. W. SHELTON, Assistant Principal

A native of central Texas, Mr. Shelton graduated from North Texas State University where he received his B.S. and M.S. degrees. Majoring in education and physical education proved to be quite useful; he was named as head coach at Hillcrest, and finally as assistant principal of Kimball High School.

His many interests include golfing, deer hunting, officiating at football games, and his young son.

Mr. Shelton explains that, "As a head coach, I came into a more personal contact with the students, whereas, as assistant principal, I am more aware of the problems of students at school and at home." He advises a student of today to take advantage of all opportunities that education offers, as this is a very competitive world. Those with the best education are a bigger success in the future.

Nine times out of ten, those students who are entering Kimball for the first time are confused. The counselors never neglect their duties to lend a helping hand to anyone who may need assistance. The counselors, in their respective categories, help new students get adjusted to the new atmosphere they encounter at Kimball, and help juniors and seniors select the courses they need in preparation for the college of their choice. Any problem a student may encounter while at Kimball, he can always depend on the assurance and guidance of the counselors.

This year at Kimball we have seventeen teachers in the Social Studies Department. In this department we have two teachers, Mr. Campbell and Mr. Hitchcock, who have previously taught at Kimball. Between them they have a combined total of nineteen years just teaching at Kimball.

In addition, we have three new teachers. Mrs. Wester, who co-sponsors the Fleur-de-lis, is one of these, along with Miss McVean and Mr. Peters.

This year Mr. Harlan, who teaches civics, becomes the third head football coach at Kimball. Mr. South also brings honor to Kimball with his award-winning track teams.

Any English department has an important task for which they teach that becomes essential to every other field of learning and life. Besides basic grammatical studies, Kimball's English Department provides a firm literary background, connecting literature with other areas of life.

The teachers of Kimball's English department lead interesting lives within and outside of school. Alan Mills, the only male member of the department, sponsors Kimball's golf team, having played golf for N.T.S.U. MISS AUDREY PATTON Kimball's library department has increased its facilities so much that, as head librarian, Miss Patton says, "We are out of shelf space and student space." Thanks to the '68 Senior class, they have a microfilm reader with a growing supply of sources. Also, there is a career information kit and two stereos and record library for the students' convenience and enjoyment. The department has also developed libraries within the American history, civics, and world history classes themselves.

Frankie Sawyer has won first prize for a short story published in the Ft. Worth Press. She was also a Duchess from the Junior class, SMU. Audrey Patton has travelled all over the United States, Canada, Europe, and Mexico.

Courses in Spanish, French, German, and Latin, taught by eight excellent teachers, and aided by a modern language lab, make Kimball outstanding in the field of foreign language. This year 828 students are taking a foreign language. Spanish classes have a combined enrollment of 348, French students number 317, there are 85 German students, and 78 students are studying Latin.

Spanish is taught by Mrs. Dorylee Plexco, Mrs. Jennilyn Thames, and Mrs. Aurora Moreno. Mrs. Plexco, one of the sponsors of El Sol, has been at Kimball for two years. Mrs. Thames sponsors the Spanish National Honor Society. Mrs. Moreno, El Sol sponsor, has spent nine of her twenty-nine years of teaching at Kimball.

Mrs. Linda Johnson, Mrs. Joan Horn, and Mrs. Ivy Blair teach French. All three of these teachers are co-sponsors of the French Club. Mrs. Blair, who has had twenty-one years of teaching experience, has been at Kimball since it opened in 1958. Along with French, Mrs. Johnson also teaches Sophomore English.

Mrs. Jana Greenway and Mrs. Ruth Hoeffler are Kimball's Latin teachers. Mrs. Greenway, who also teaches Junior English, sponsors Corona Eximia and the Junior Classical League. Mrs. Hoeffler is the only German teacher. She is the sponsor of Allerlei and the National Honor Society.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

Develops Interest in Many Fields

Welcoming four new teachers for 1968-69, the Science Department is one of the largest in Dallas. Offering two first-year college science courses for advanced students, the department is also one of the best in Dallas.

Denise Landell, M. A. Moses, Jerry Davis, and James W. Brown are the new science teachers, Miss Landell herself is a Kimball graduate. James Brown is a new basketball coach for Kimball.

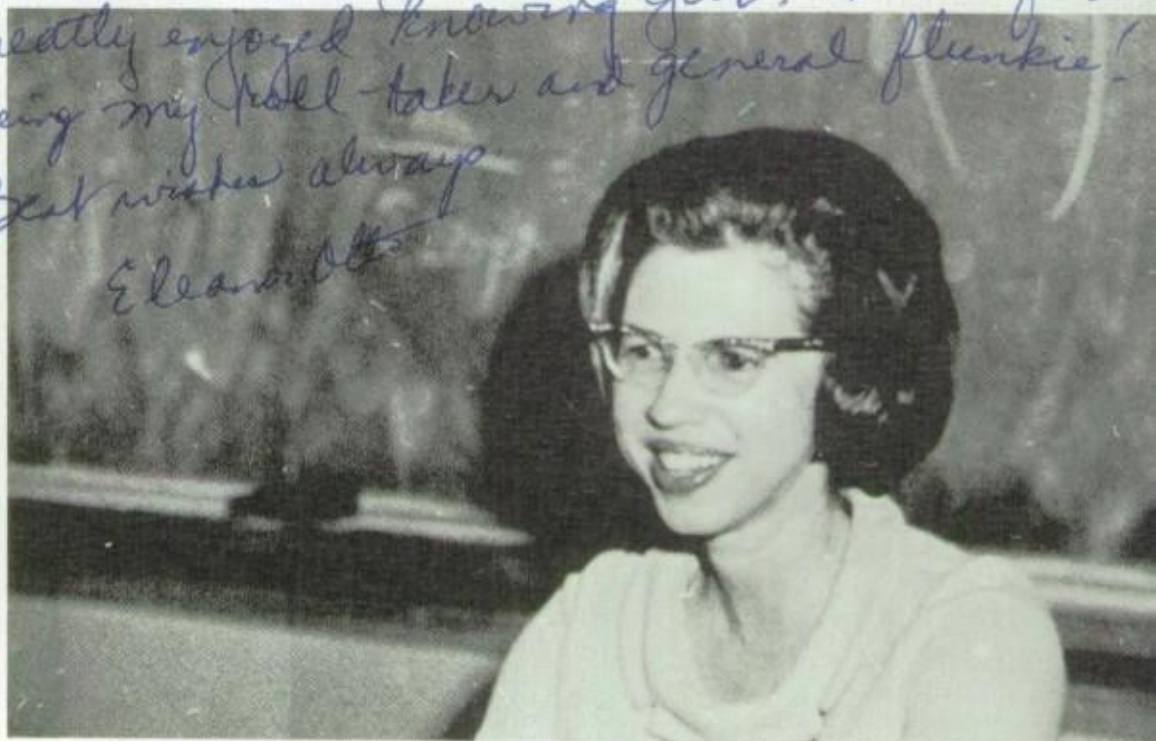

Returning for another year are Margaret Milke, Eleanor Otto, Laura Liljestrand, Terry Harlow, Paul Loftin, and Lera Pylant. Mrs. Otto enjoys her leisure hours boating with her family on Cedar Creek Lake. Mrs. Liljestrand and Mrs. Pylant sponsor the Science Club. Mr. Loftin sponsors the Biology Honor Society. Mr. Harlow helps the Student Council to function properly.

Those who have been at Kimball in years before continue to help students excel in geometry, algebra, trigonometry, and calculus. Some of our teachers help our students in other than classroom interests. Mr. Jerry Christian sponsors the Slide Rule Club, "Numbers Sense", and the Chess Club. Miss Virginia Fite sponsors a very student-oriented organization—the Student Council. Mrs. Lorene Covert sponsors the Future Teachers of America. The teachers at J. F. FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT

Entertains Dallas

All manners of activities are directed by the capable teachers in the Fine Arts department. Mr. Steve Bayless, as sponsor of the Knight Beats, the Kimball stage band, has continuously led them to high honors in the Brownwood Stage Band Festival. Miss Martha Hayes, a director of musicals, and Mr. Darrell Chambers, band director, round out the music department.

Mrs. Mary Curtis continues as speech, debate, and drama teacher to help her students win honors in various tournaments. Miss Enna Rogers heads the art classes which create many needed articles for Kimball events. These teachers continue to bring recognition to Kimball from many places.

HOMEMAKING DEPARTMENT

Teaches the Basics for Successful Living

Homemaking not only teaches one to sew and to cook, but it also prepares those students who are interested in future careers as homemakers. Homemaking is much more than just cooking or sewing. Students learn the importance of a successful home and family.

Students are shown how influential homemaking is in our modern society and are instructed as to the significance of the homemaker. As a result, the Homemaking Department is one of the most important and outstanding departments at Kimball.

STUDY HALL DEPARTMENT Gains New Member

Study Hall provides the necessary hour of study or sleep which is needed by the majority of Kimball students. Kimball's study hall teachers have compiled a total of sixty-seven years teaching experience. The extracurricular activities of these teachers range from raising cattle to attending college.

Both Mrs. Lucille Averitt and Mrs. Gwen Ramsey raise cattle. Mrs. Orelia Kline devotes much of her time to a political science course at North Texas.

Mrs. Margaret Smith is the newcomer to the study hall faculty. Prior to this year Mrs. Smith served in the office for four years.

LUNCHROOM AND CUSTODIAN STAFF Aid Kimball in Necessary Daily Routine

Kimball's lunchroom and custodial staff, led by Norma Tvete and Mr. Charles Rush, maintain the school's immaculate surroundings. These men and women give their services to make possible the necessary daily needs of the students.

Kimball's lunchroom staff insures Kimball students of wholesome meals.

Mr. Jefferson Day collects daily parking money.

Equally important as a person's educational development in high school years is his involvement in activities. Each serves to mature the student as the years progress, yet they can not be clearly separated. It has been said that education is the building block of our future, but this includes the important aspect of social involvement.

There is probably no school better equipped to lay a social foundation than Kimball. Each week presents something new to look forward to, whether it be a sporting event, the musical, or one of the several dances.

In later years when we look back on our high school days, it will be these good times that we will most remember, and every student must make the most of them as each opportunity arises and presents itself.

Activities

We Shall Always Remember . . .

Fall . . .

Spring . . .

Winter . . .

. . . and Summer.

Fall

... a somewhat melancholy season, bringing sad memories of a golden summer past and the excitement of a new school year to come. The warm, free days which slipped through our fingers end like the sand we vacationed on. Yet the fall brings the dawning of a new way of life. This way of life is the way of life of a student.

There are no week day dates, few late hours, and disciplined studies. The fall doesn't slow our pace down. The Longview trip, pep rallies, and football games kick off the season. All of this time, the sophomores are adjusting to the way Knights live. The fall and Junior plays give additional culture, and the first six weeks drags on. The only relief in sight is Thanksgiving. This marks a climax to the funfilled fall and a few brief days to rest up for the long winter ahead.

September

Sophomores Adapt Quickly to New Environment

On September 3, more than 800 sophomores and new students assembled in the auditorium to receive instructions and guidance for their first year at Kimball. The cheerleaders greeted the newcomers and taught them a number of yells and the school song. Mr. Durrett spoke to the sophomores and acquainted them with the school traditions and rules. A few weeks later, the sophomores were assembled again and representatives from the various school clubs and organizations explained the purposes and various functions of their clubs.

Sophomores get their first glimpse of life at Kimball.

Representatives from the various clubs await their turn.

Sophomores listen attentively to instructions on procedure at Kimball.

Longview Trip Bolsters School Spirit

This year's out-of-town football game involved a clash with the Lobos of Longview High School. Suffering a disappointing defeat, the Knights returned still optimistic about their remaining games. Thirteen busses took the students to Longview, involving almost 800 of the school's personnel. Spectators at the game were entertained at halftime by the Band and Troubadears in their first performance of the season.

Chaos reigns supreme on the Troubadear bus.

Students anxiously anticipate the beginning of the Longview trip.

Spirited Knights

Elissa Martella displays unlimited enthusiasm.

"Orville" Davis and "Wilbur" Pearson present their famous invention.

Pep Assemblies Rouse School Spirit

The pep assemblies this year were unequal in energy and in vivacity. Victory apples for the football boys highlighted six assemblies. These apples were provided by different groups of students each week.

Mr. Durrett, the coaches, and various teachers spoke to stimulate the noted Kimball school spirit. The cheerleaders, band, Troubadears, majorettes, Fleur-de-Lis also added much to the assemblies in performances as well as participation.

Jimmy Livingston returns to Kimball to prove, "once a Knight, always a Knight."

The Excitement of the 1968 Fair Day Is Never to Be Forgotten

Kimball students are among the many at the Fair.

Nancy Corley and Debbie Richie don't seem too impressed by that last ride.

Building a pyramid was a simple diversion obviously amusing to all.

Doris Kramp and Sandy Oakley make good use of the scenic rest areas available at the Fair.

Wayne Kofnovec and Cathy Hodge seem to be enjoying the beginning moments of the Paratrooper.

Gusie Smith and Mike Sanguinet come to the end of another electrifying ride.

Sandy Oakley and Elzada Yarborough see the sights?

Fascinating exhibits, wild and whirling rides, intriguing games, prizes galore, and delicacies of all kinds were just a fraction of the fun experienced by thousands of students attending the 1968 High School Day at the State Fair of Texas.

Together with the excitement of the many games and rides, there was the welcome sight of a cool place to rest. There is little or no doubt in anyone's mind that participating in the many activities at the Fair can be quite tiring. But who thinks about being tired while he is enjoying the sights at the Fair? There are so many things happening that everyone's mind is preoccupied and they are enhanced to a point that nothing else is allowed to interfere. Such are the powers of the great State Fair of Texas.

Kimball students went to the Fair searching for good food, challenging games, and rewarding prizes. They certainly found an abundance of everything.

Religious Values Stressed By Special Assemblies

Dr. Tom Shipp visited Kimball this year, as he has done in years gone by. He spoke to the students on the spiritual and moral values in life. With his many outside activities, he is well qualified to speak on these subjects. Dr. Shipp is a Methodist minister residing here in Dallas.

Besides this eminent speaker, Kimball was visited by the New Folk Singers, a group of college students belonging to a group like Young Life. These students travel from campus to campus in their campaign to promote good will among the young people. They entertained the Kimball student body with current music, including tunes from certain commercials. The theme, however, was one well known.

The New Folk Singers really swing in their performance for Kimball.

In their almost all singing presentation, the New Folk Singers give life a more spiritual meaning.

Dr. Shipp endeavors to get across a special point.

Though the ideas are the same, the music is new.

Homecoming Festivities Highlight Halftime Ceremonies

As the fall season gets into full swing, former Knights from different colleges all over the country return to Kimball for Homecoming. To each Knight, Kimball's Homecoming is a high point in the long list of activities. This year we played the Carter Cowboys for our Homecoming game. At half time, the Troubadears performed a special prop routine to the theme from "The Apartment." After their performance, the sophomore, junior, and senior nominees were driven around the outskirts of the football field on floats. Escorted by their fathers, the girls then lined up on the field. Then came the long awaited announcement. Our new Homecoming Queen was Gayle Cordray. The junior and sophomore attendants were Jan Day and Patty Rollings. Following the game, there was a dance in the girl's gym to celebrate the festivities. At the dance, the student body was entertained by the Soul Expressions. The seniors will remember this Homecoming as their last, but will look forward to the coming years when they may come back as those who have gone before them.

Queen Gayle receives a kiss from everyone's "Knight in shining armor," Mr. Durrett.

Some people can't be happy with just one mum for Homecoming.

Seniors, Beth Hardin, Dan Surber, and John Adams enjoy the Homecoming dance.

to complete the Homecoming festivities, the Soul Expressions played for the dance afterwards.

Armistice Day Brings Remembrance of Gallant Americans

The New Tyme Syngers instill pride with their songs.

Dr. Estes congratulates Mr. Durrett on the assembly.

Royal Lancers express their pride in a special way.

Armistice Day has become a tradition at Kimball. On this one day a year we pay tribute to those men who so gallantly gave of themselves to sustain the freedom of our nation. Men had to fight to form this nation and Americans are still fighting today—to these men we also express our gratitude. In addition to the ROTC, the New Tyme Syngers presented a brief history of the nation in song.

The Unknown Soldier is not forgotten.

The NHS Exemplifies the Epitome of Excellent Students

Robert Cooper and Mary Ann Smith await their turn to announce new members.

Mike Johnson, Mike Poss, and Denny Beall discuss the new members.

Stephen Tobolowsky congratulates Francis Alvin on her membership.

New members prepare to take oath of induction.

The National Honor Society consists of students who possess exceptional academic abilities, but this is not the only criterion for membership. Members must also have the quality of leadership. They must be able to lead the other students in the school. Membership does not come easily, for it is the teachers that decide who shall be admitted from a list of nominees. In this way only the best shall be accepted.

Thanksgiving Assembly

Produced by Speech Department

The Speech Department produced this year's Thanksgiving assembly, a play on the life of Abraham Lincoln. Written by Frances Galvan and directed by Mrs. Mary Curtis, the play featured Jim Rigby as Lincoln, Marshall Millsap as the Narrator, Julie Davis as Anne Rutledge, and Diane Nixon as Nancy Hanks. The play depicted the blessings our country has received.

Young Lincoln engages Anne Rutledge in conversation.

Pat Rosenbury and Ginger Martin discuss Mr. Lincoln attributes.

A chorus of speakers recites some lines from the play.

Winter

... snowflakes, basketball, warm clothing, Christmas, and mid-term exams. All of these are synonyms for the winter months of December, January, and February. In December, everything leads to the Christmas vacation. The annual Christmas basketball game is the climax of the holiday school activities. With the beginning of school in January, everyone must buckle down with homework before mid-term exams start. Seniors don't dread exams quite as much as everyone else because they are hopeful that these are the last they'll take in high school. February is a month of many and varied activities. First of all, the senior play, "Anne Frank," was given the fifth and sixth. Valentines brought the announcement of the "cutest couple." Finally, the long, cold winter months are ended by the annual Spanish Fiesta given by El Sol. The winter is truly a time of holiday spirit.

Cindy Funderburk Becomes Tenth Annual Battalion Sweetheart

In an event which for many cadets is not only a gala occasion but also a rest after exams, Hon. Maj. Cindy Funderburk was chosen by the Kimball R.O.T.C. battalion as their over-all sweetheart. From among eight girls, each representing a unit of the corps, and chosen by the members of the unit, the cadets chose the one to reign supreme. The beauty of the one chosen is matched by the pageantry of the occasion, and it is an event to be long remembered.

After being crowned, Cindy begins the traditional dance.

The sweethearts and their escorts enjoy the dancing after the over-all sweetheart has been chosen.

The battalion commander and the newly chosen sweetheart lead the Grand March.

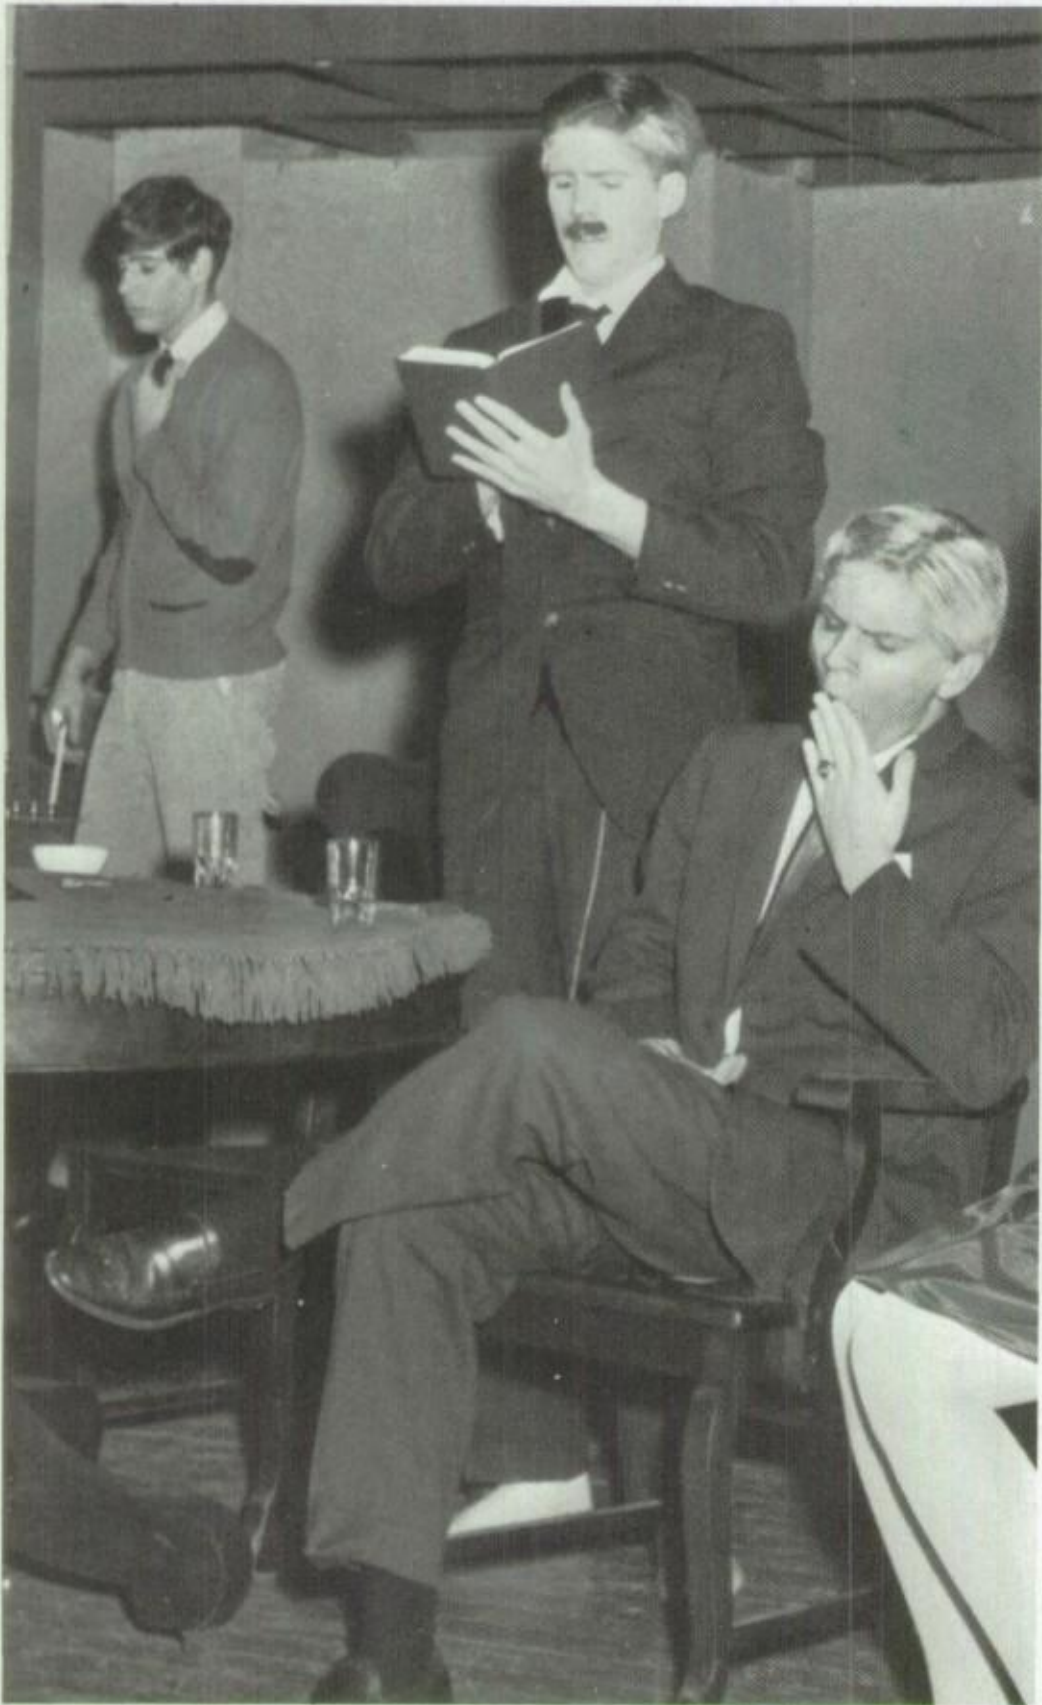

Before the announcement, eight sweethearts wait expectantly: Sandi Conatser, Debbie Green, Karen Yates, Cindy Funderburk, Marcie Walker, Janice Bates, Joan Christopherson, and Debbie Bednarz.

Mr. Dussel introduces himself to Mrs. Van Daan on his arrival.

The Senior Class of '69 Presents, "The Diary of Anne Frank"

When the play The Diary of Anne Frank opens, the war is over and Mr. Frank has returned to the attic where his family and his friends hid for more than two years. The play begins to unfold in his memory.

It was the summer of 1942 when the Franks and the Van Daans began their long stay in an attic in Amsterdam. Their many fears are not abandoned until their capture in the winter of 1945.

In this time, many things happen. These two families must go through many difficulties. During this time, two young people, Anne Frank and Peter Van Daan, fall in love. They also find their goal in life.

Spanish Fiesta Profits Go Toward Summer Scholarships to Mexico

The 1969 El Sol Fiesta was considered to be a valuable success. The proceeds from the Fiesta will go toward summer scholarships to Mexico, braces for crippled children in Mexico, and to the Dallas-Fort Worth District Project in Peru.

Reigning as King and Queen of the Fiesta were Jerry Hays and Patti Kelly. Winners of the talent contest were Julie Tacker and Bobby Forman. The exhibit that collected the most money was the candy booth. It received a prize of five dollars. The best decorated booth was the Jail.

Julie Tacker and Bobby Forman won the trophy for the talent contest.

Marilyn Van Derber Challenges Kimball Students to Succeed.

Former Miss America, Marilyn Van Derber, spoke to an attentive audience as she explained that her success was not the result of natural ability, but the result of hard work, desire, and self discipline. As she challenged each student to set a definite goal and to obtain that goal, her confidence and determination spread to her audience. Kimball students left the auditorium with a new challenge and the desire to meet that challenge.

"You must have a goal," Miss Van Derber stressed.

Marilyn Van Derber ends her program with song.

Miss Van Derber tells humorous stories of her days as Miss America.

Miss Van Derber meets Student Body President Steve Tobolowsky.

Spring and Summer

... the two seasons of the year which are filled with fresh, bright, new things and new horizons. To start the spring season off, the Coronation was March seventh. The Coronation is one of the extravaganzas of the year which no one misses. April is the month for entertainment. Inter-scholastic League competition is beginning and Kimball's musical is presented. This year's musical is Brigadoon, starring Helen Roberts and Larry French. Since the musical occurs so late in the year, the annual has to show the musical from the previous year. May brings graduation exercises for all of the 1969 graduation class. Summer begins with fresh ideas and summer jobs. Each student goes his separate way. The seniors are on their way to a different kind of life, college. The juniors and sophomores prepare for the next school year to come. It will be filled with just as many wonderful activities as the year of 1969 held.

March

Sweethearts, past and present, lead off the processional with their escorts.

Following the Grand March, couples danced to the music of the Euel Box.

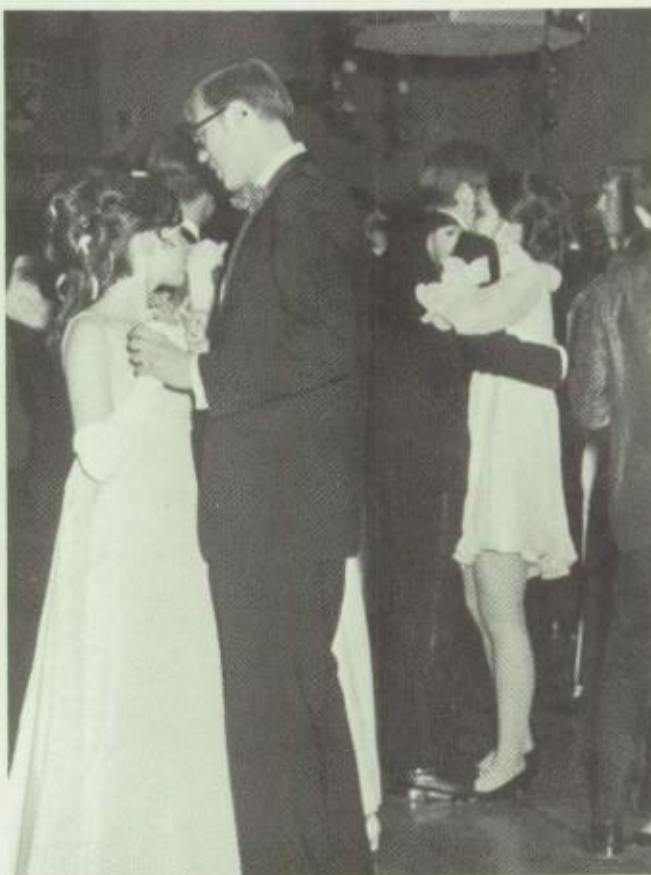

Coronation Enhances Spring Activities

Recognized as the outstanding activity of the year at Kimball, the 1969 sweetheart coronation presented the utmost in beauty, both of the fifteen lovely sweetheart nominees, and of the enhancing decorations. Each candidate anxiously awaited the decision as she sat in the foreground of the beautiful southern mansion. Chosen as sweetheart of the senior, junior, and sophomore classes were Kathy Kemble, Jan Day, and Gloria Toombs. Then the 1968 school sweetheart, Cindy Armstrong, relinquished her crown to the 1969 Kimball sweetheart, Gayle Cordray.

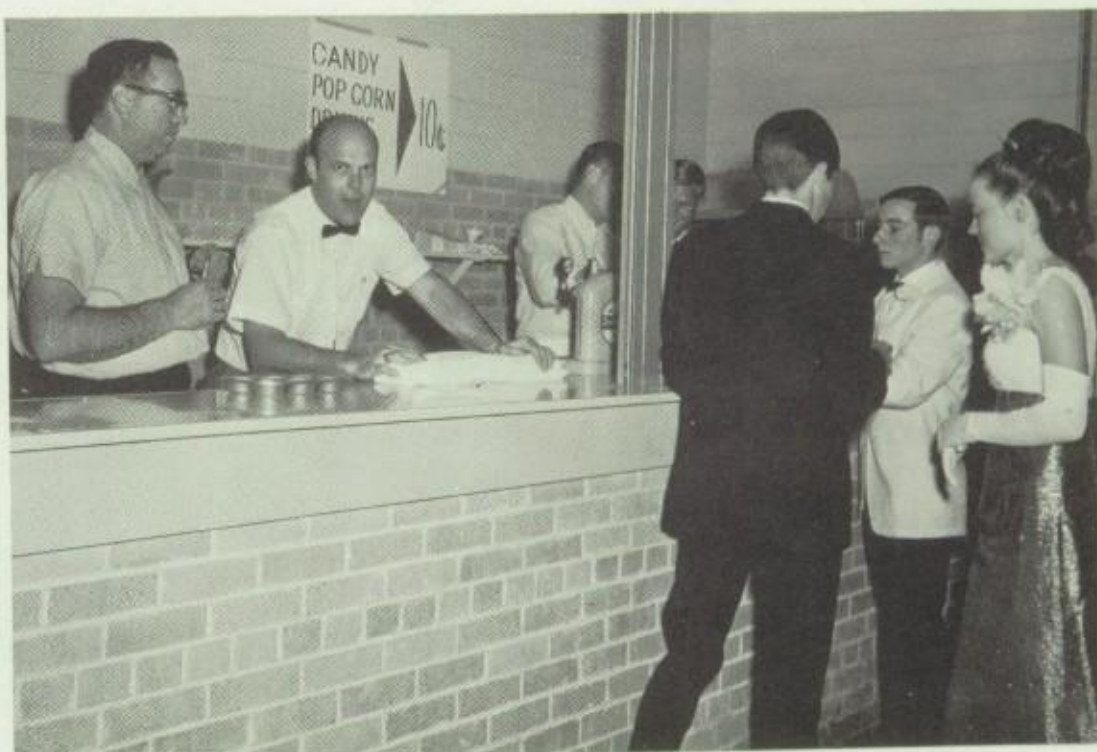

Proceeding to the gym in the setting of a night in Paris, the traditional Grand March was led by Gayle Cordray with her court. The festive occasion then continued with a dance for all that were in attendance.

Queen Gayle begins her reign by leading off the first dance.

The quiet pleasures which all enjoyed made this a most memorable evening.

Under the direction of Miss Marty Hayes, the Concert Choir presented How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying in the spring of 1968. It was a terrific success and was given for four consecutive nights. The play was double casted so each cast gave it two nights.

This year's musical is Brigadoon. Unlike the business world atmosphere of How to Succeed, Brigadoon is a mythical tale of old Scotland. It is about a town which reappears every one hundred years.

Excalibur Staff Presents a Scrapbook of Memories

Climaxing a year of long hours of hard work was a memorable experience in the lives of Kimball students—E Day 1968. For the Excalibur staff, much time and patience had gone into producing this the tenth volume.

As the student body poured into the auditorium, each member of the staff was tensely awaiting the verdict of the school as to the success of Excalibur 1968. After introducing the twelve outstanding new members of Kimball's Roundtable, Editor-in-Chief Tucker Bishop proclaimed Mrs. Aurora Moreno as the dedicatee to the heartwarming ovation of the student body.

Returning to the classroom, each student happily received his own copy of Excalibur. To him, this was a scrapbook of memories of another year at Kimball. This was E Day 1968.

Fundango Raises Money for Longview Trip

On May 17, the doors of the gyms opened on Fundango, a dance sponsored to reduce the cost of the Longview trip. In the boys' gym was a dance with live music, and the girls' gym housed a number of indoor games, such as volleyball, ping-pong, and badminton. Food was furnished by the Troubadears, who also helped clean up the gyms after the dance. Ticket sales to Fundango went to a mutual fund which was divided equally among those who attended the dance.

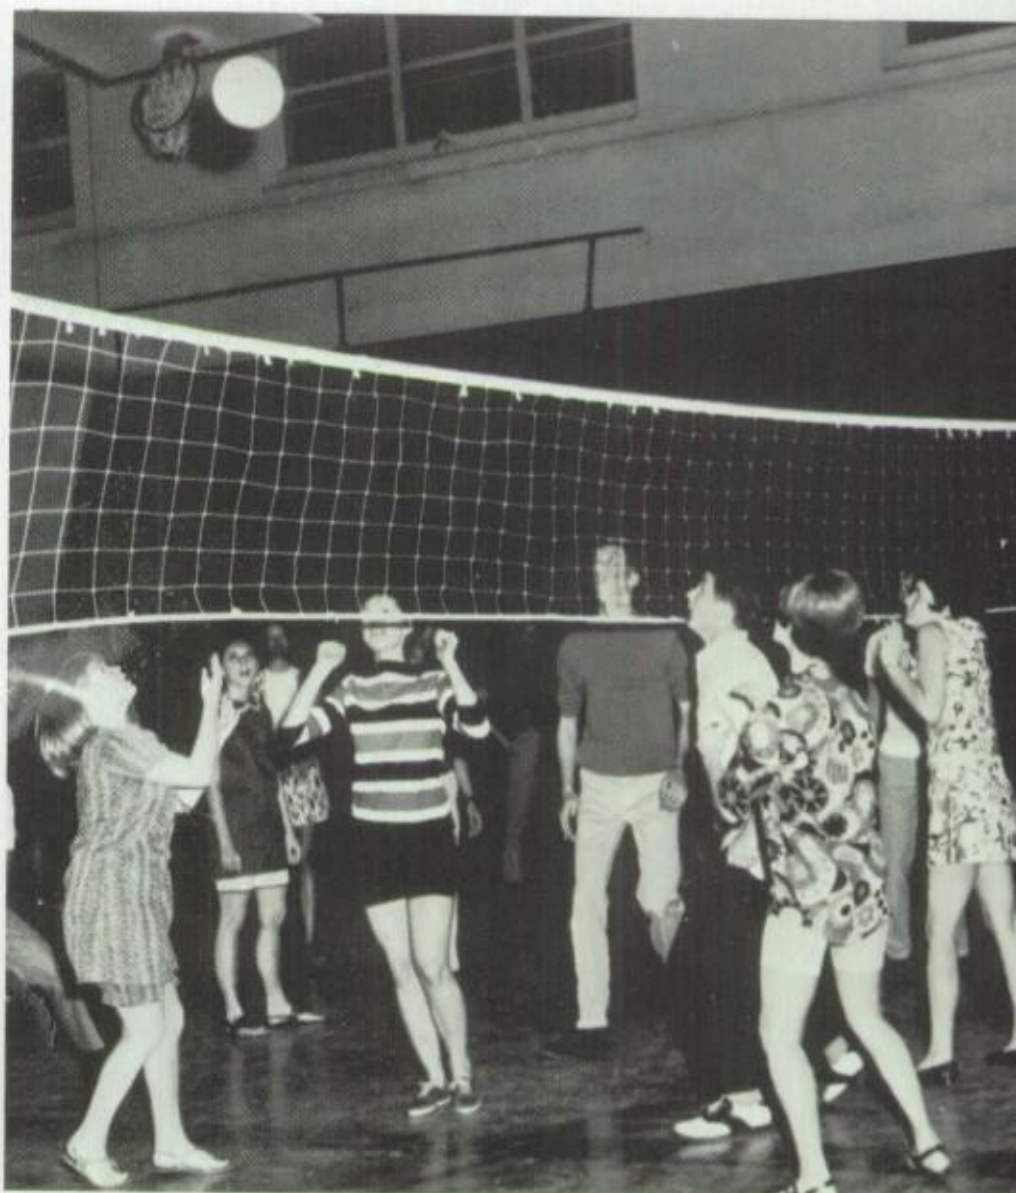

Dancing was the favorite form of relaxation of the evening.

Skipper Sherard, Karen Yates, Diane Boyd, and Rusty Simmons play a highly competitive game of ping-pong.

John Bishop and Becky Pollock collect tickets at the door.

Students anxiously wait for the volleyball to come down.

Teaching Is Only Part of a Teacher's Life.

Few teachers would survive the world of ungraded papers and belligerent students if their world was limited to the classroom. Kimball's faculty is no exception. There are a number of ways to escape the drudgeries of their profession. Many have found working as sponsors of various clubs very rewarding. The coaching staff would be lost without the sports curriculum—and other faculty members enjoy the game, too. Even a quiet rest—with no students around—might be a perfect “extra-curricular activity” for a tired teacher.

Mr. Harlow isn't bragging. He's just telling admirers about his son Craig.

Even Mr. Durrett needs an occasional rest.

Miss Rogers watches from backstage as the Troubadours perform.

Summer Knights to Remember

Summer days are ones that bring special memories to Kimball Knights. Whether it be practicing for band or drill team, students still find time for various activities. Pictures bring alive and recapture the thrill of these cherished days.

Susan Rice and Pat Huff enjoy a summer day.

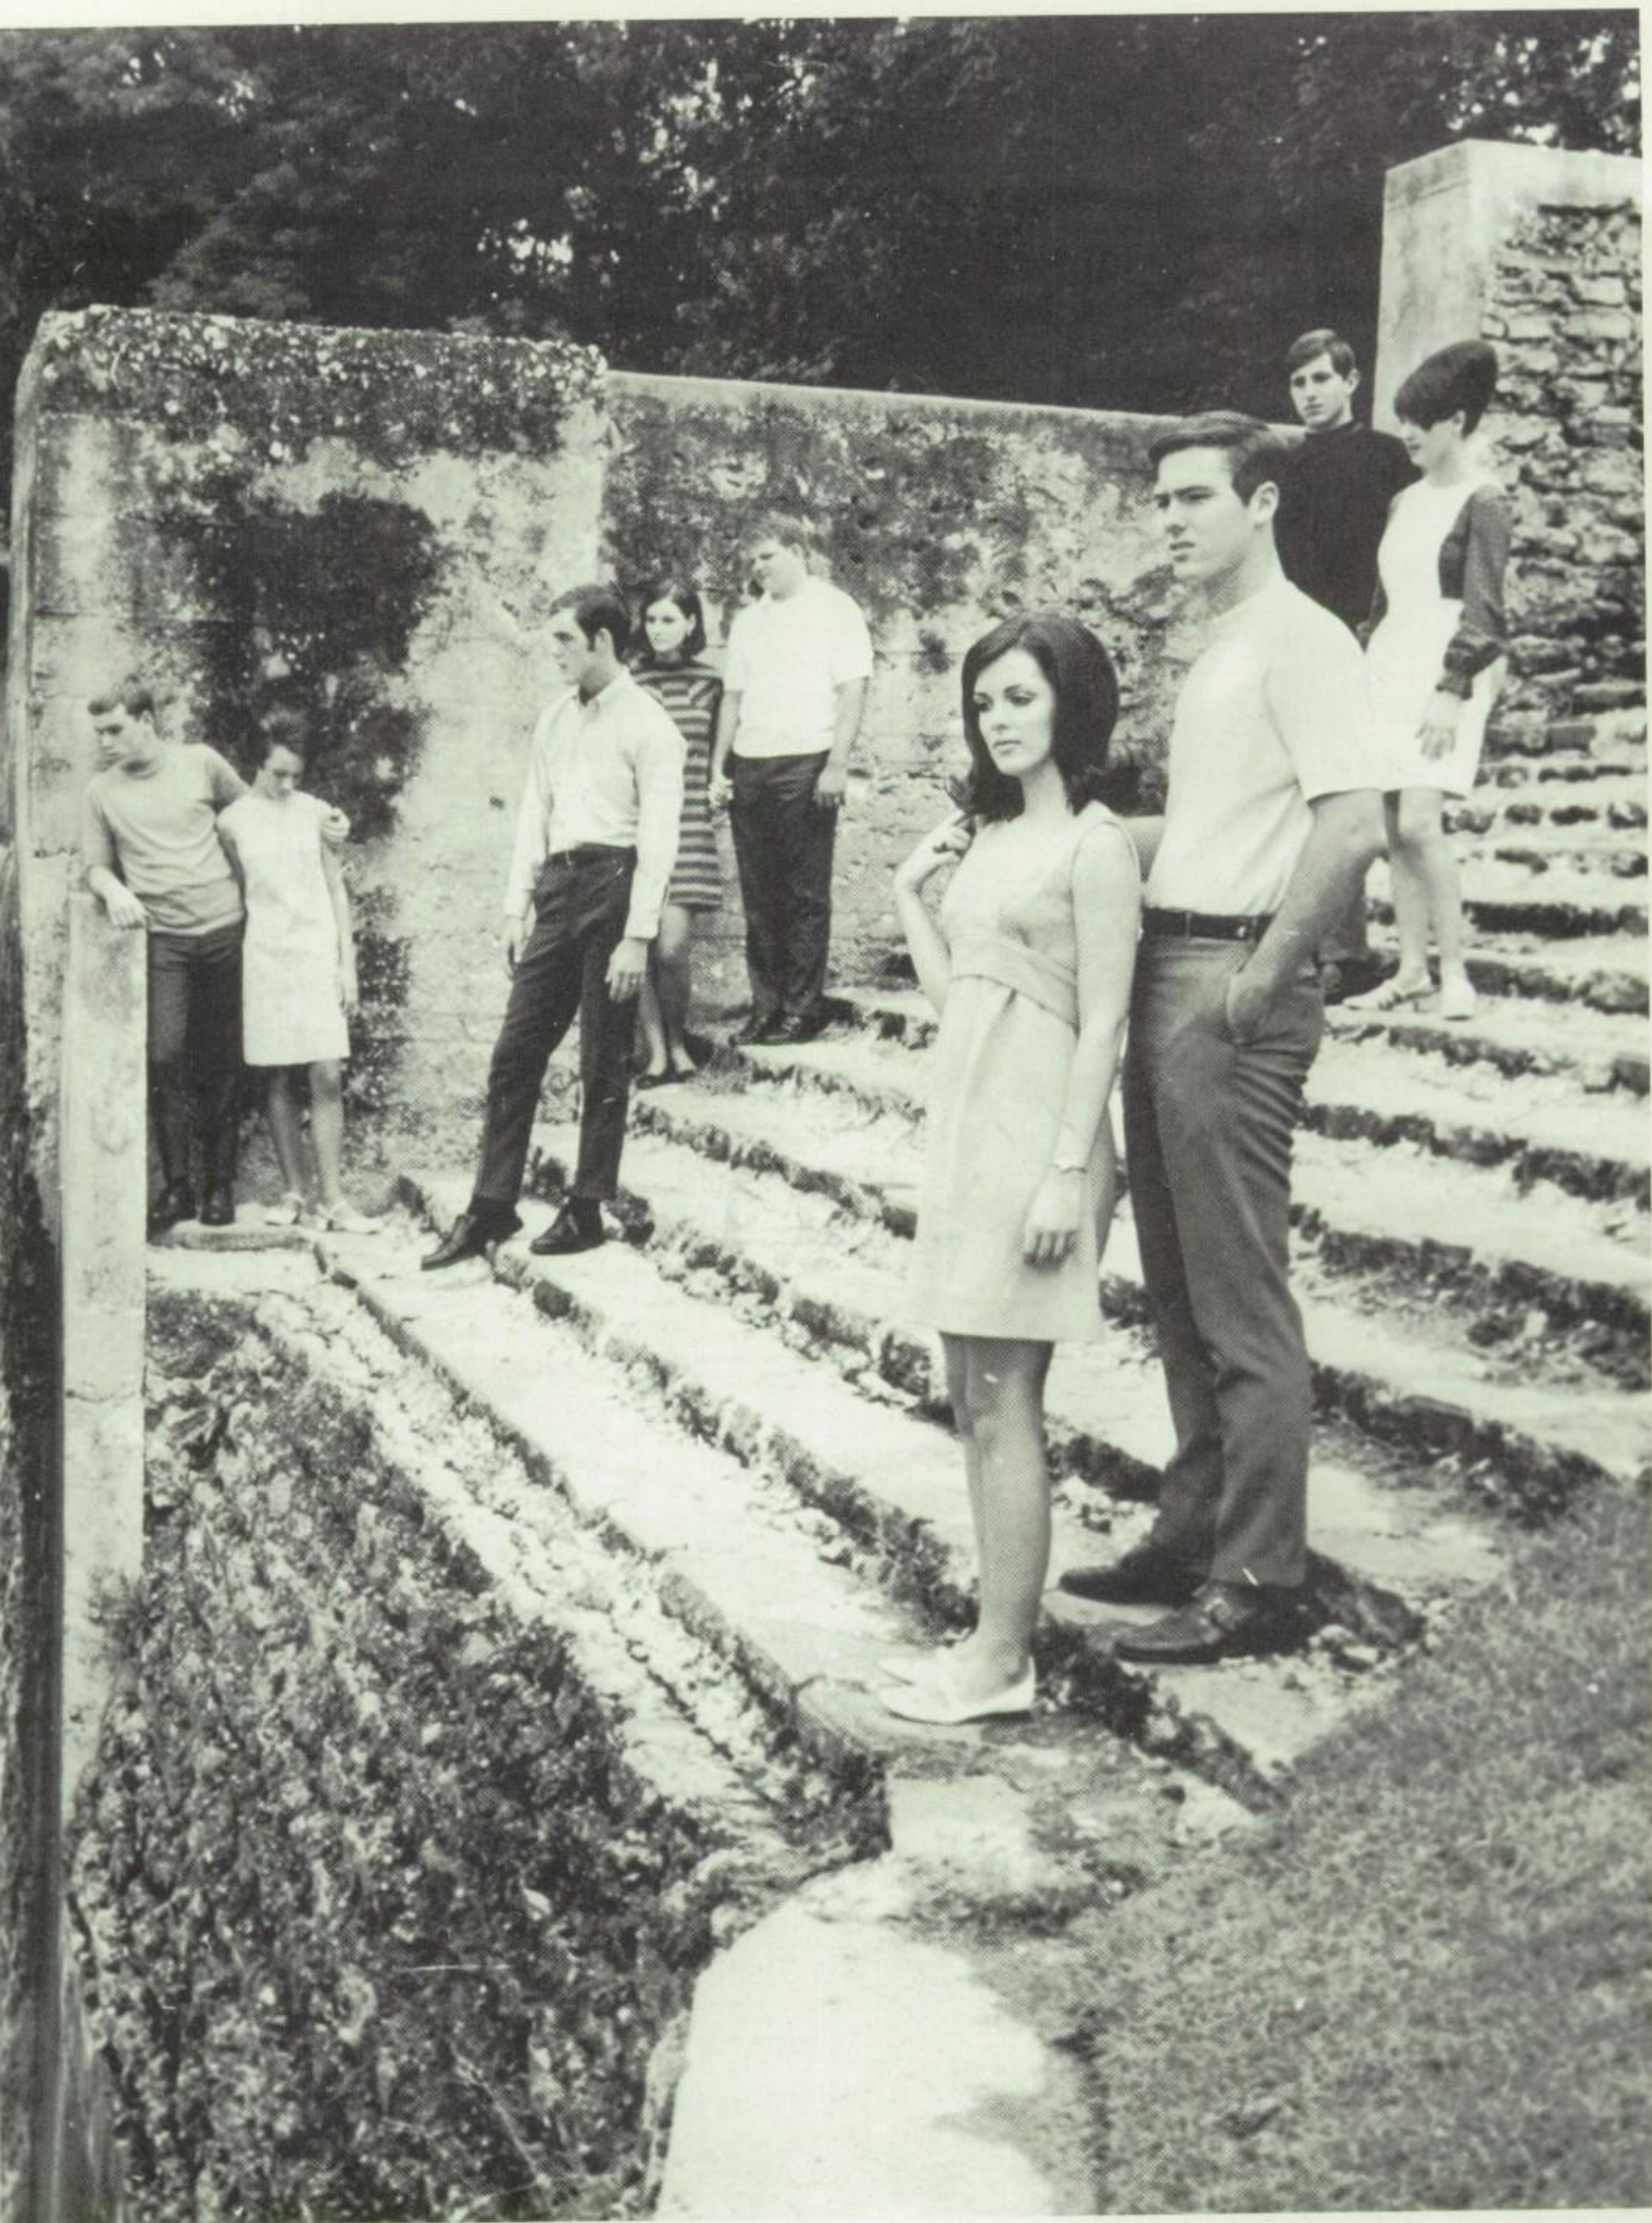

Our faithful band in summer rehearsals.

Elsie and Boo ... forever.

Summer finds the Trobadears hard at work in a practice session?

Senior thoughts reflect over their days at Kimball.

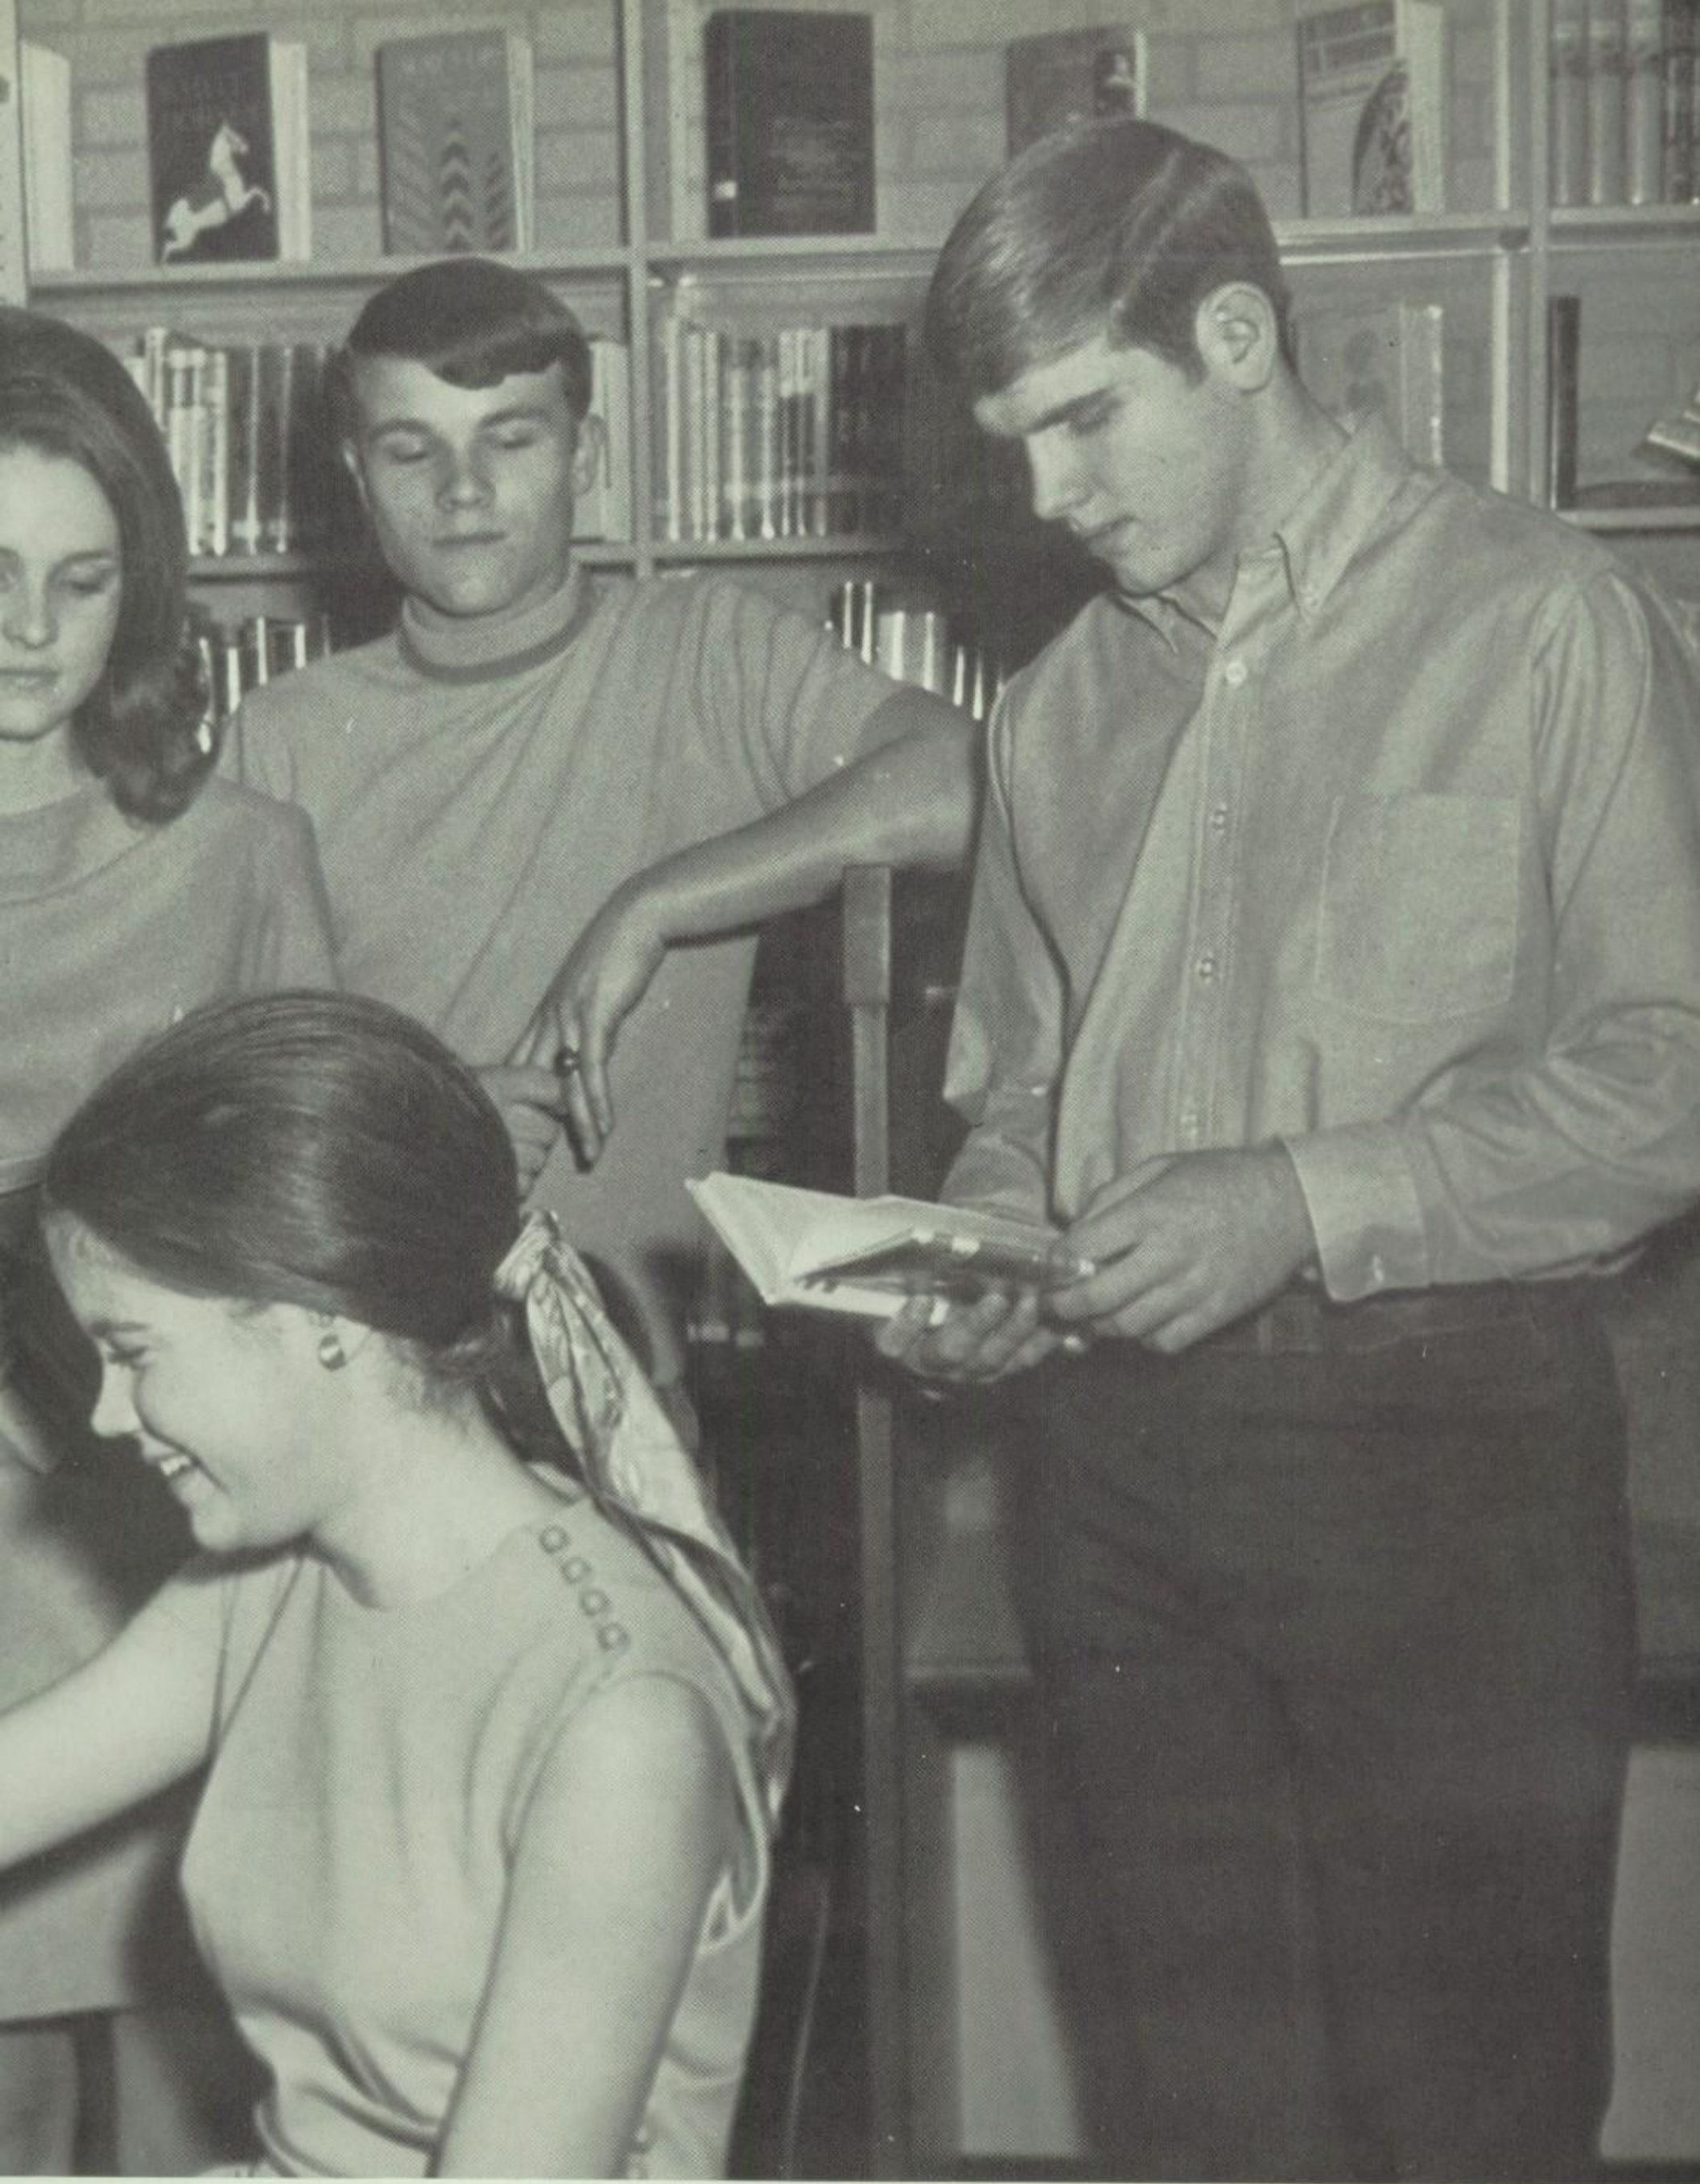

Despite the numerous interests that are present in a student body of twenty-four hundred, the school-sponsored organizations serve in uniting this diversified group into a unified whole. Just how successful these clubs are in fusing together the basic concerns and desires of the pupils is the determining factor of the greatness of any high school.

In excess of forty organizations are presently in operation at Kimball. Each offers to its members the opportunity to expand their depths of knowledge and understanding through leadership, attendance, and responsibility. This can be illustrated within the six general categories in which each club can be classified.

Offered by the literary organizations to their members is the chance to relate to fellow students the memories of high school that will be treasured in later years. Aiding peoples from other countries and strengthening an understanding of these lands are the primary goals that the language clubs strive for. Planning for the future is the main theme of the vocational organizations. The athletic, fine arts, and service clubs work for the betterment of student life as well as the reputation of Kimball. Finally, the honorary societies have been founded for the purpose of recognizing the outstanding students among the student body.

EXCALIBUR STAFF

New Additions Made to 1969 EXCALIBUR

A hardworking addition was made to this year's 1969 EXCALIBUR. This addition is Miss Linda Wade the new annual sponsor. Her enthusiasm and dedication is another reason why the 1969 EXCALIBUR is the best ever for Kimball.

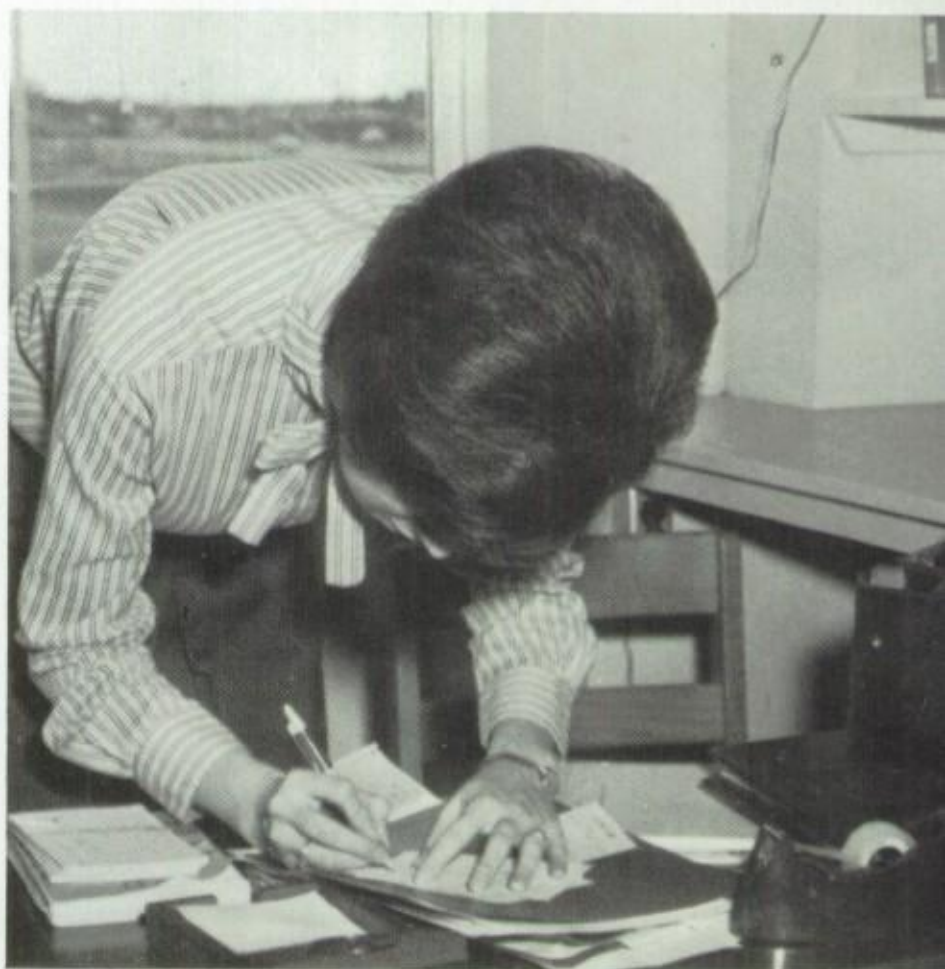

Other additions are the five junior staff workers. With the help of Dan Zivney, Editor-in-Chief, and the other four editors, these juniors will carry on the tradition of the fine work of the EXCALIBUR staff. For the seniors to come there will be the expectation of even better yearbooks in the years to come.

Jeff Parr, Ruthie Hejl, and Dennis Driggs, all staff workers, exchange views for a new layout.

Latin Club Dramatizes the Ancient Saturnalia at Christmas Party

In ancient Rome, Saturn, the God of Agriculture, was worshipped by festive activities at the annual Saturnalia which occurred about the same time of the year as Christmas. Members of Corona Eximia, Kimball's Latin Club, dramatized this festival at their Christmas Party, then mixed Christmas with the Saturnalia by singing Christmas Carols in Latin.

The Saturnalia is not the only holiday that the Latin Club dramatized this year. One of the Roman Holidays was celebrated at each of the meetings of Corona Eximia. All activities of the Latin Club are designed to create more interest in the customs of Rome as well as in the Latin language.

Thespians Exhibit Skills in "Inherit the Wind"

This year the Thespians' fall production was "Inherit the Wind." It was a wonderful success and starred two of the outstanding Thespians, Jim Rigby and Steve Tobolowsky.

Among the other works of the 1969 Thespians was an original Thanksgiving play written by Frances Galvin. It was on the life of Abraham Lincoln.

As always, the Kimball chapter of the National Forensic League is continually bringing many honors to our school. They participate in many speech tournaments all over the U.S. Among these include tournaments in Louisiana and the largest tournament in the nation, Bellaire in Houston. From each tournament, trophies are always brought back in large quantities.

Every high school in Dallas asks itself what it is that makes Kimball students such winners. Much of the credit must go to the hardworking members of the league. Many hours go into a winning debate team or an excellent orator, yet there is still another factor. This factor lies in the sponsor, Mrs. Mary Curtis. It's hard to put into words what her trick is in always bringing home such honors. It might be called determination, pride, or even "magic."

The Kimball Chapter of the National Forensic League is well known throughout the state because of its many victories in the various speech tournaments.

With the spring musical rapidly approaching, there is plenty that needs to be done. Equally as important as the music department is the Dance Club. This club assists students who wish to enter careers in dramatic fields. With each new routine learned, the members are that much closer toward achieving their goals.

CONCERT CHOIR

The 1968-69 Concert Choir is indeed a unique choir. The choir, the largest in Dallas, consists of about 160 talented members. For their Christmas Concert, the choir performed the Ron Nelson "Christmas Story," a contemporary cantata with brass and timpani, as well as traditional Christmas Carols.

The second year of New Tyme Syngers proved to be very successful. Winners of Chanel 39's "Singing Bee," they taped a Christmas program for the station.

No choir can function properly without the aid of accomplished and hardworking accompanists. Concert Choir was fortunate in having four: Becky Anderson, Cindy Mills, Julie Tacker, and Nancy Neal.

RESERVE OFFICER TRAINING CORPS

Kimball R.O.T.C. Continues to Excel

High school R.O.T.C. teaches young men some of the facts of soldiering but concentrates mainly on building character and leadership, both qualities desired in virtually every phase of life. The battalion at Kimball, led by commandant Lt. Col. Harmon White and student battalion commander cadet Lt. Col. Marvin Faulkenburry accomplish their jobs admirably. In the past few years Kimball has not relinquished the Best Battalion trophy, given to the outstanding R.O.T.C. unit in Dallas during a school year. Weekly parade and inspection early each Tuesday morning keep the battalion sharp by testing each cadet's drill and appearance.

The corps offers students an opportunity to prove themselves in many ways. Each cadet is given the chance to lead others, and sometimes has the responsibility of teaching his fellow cadets. There is also a precision drill team and a rifle team for those members of the corps that enjoy the spirit of competition. The corps strives always to do its best.

The American flag provides a continual inspiration to each cadet.

The battalion staff has direct responsibility for the performance of the battalion. Each Tuesday morning they inspect the companies and grade them on a competitive basis. They make out the training schedule and then make sure that the subjects are taught. It is due to these young men that the battalion does as well as it does, in all the forms of achievement.

The Royal Lancer drill team is made up of cadets who try out on their own for the team. They spend many hours drilling together to perfect their drill. They are a precision team. During the year, they enter into various competitions with drill teams from other schools, sometimes from out-of-state. During the 1967-68 year the Lancers emerged victorious over all Dallas and Ft. Worth teams. In 1968-69 they did the same and came out higher than ever before in competition with more distant teams.

Besides competitions, the Royal Lancers are invited to march in some parades, such as the Armed Forces Day parade. They also perform at certain Kimball events, and at some junior high schools.

TROUBADEARS

The 1968-69 Troubadears, under the capable guidance of a new sponsor, again proved the excellence of the group. Miss Polly Rogers has as many reasons to be proud of her first drill team as they do of her. The Troubadears performed to such hits as "Sunny," "Going Out of My Head," and "Lady Godiva." They also marched in two downtown parades.

Two weeks of hard work before school began in August, plus two weeks of practice in September was highlighted with the trip to Longview. That trip will live long in the memory of all.

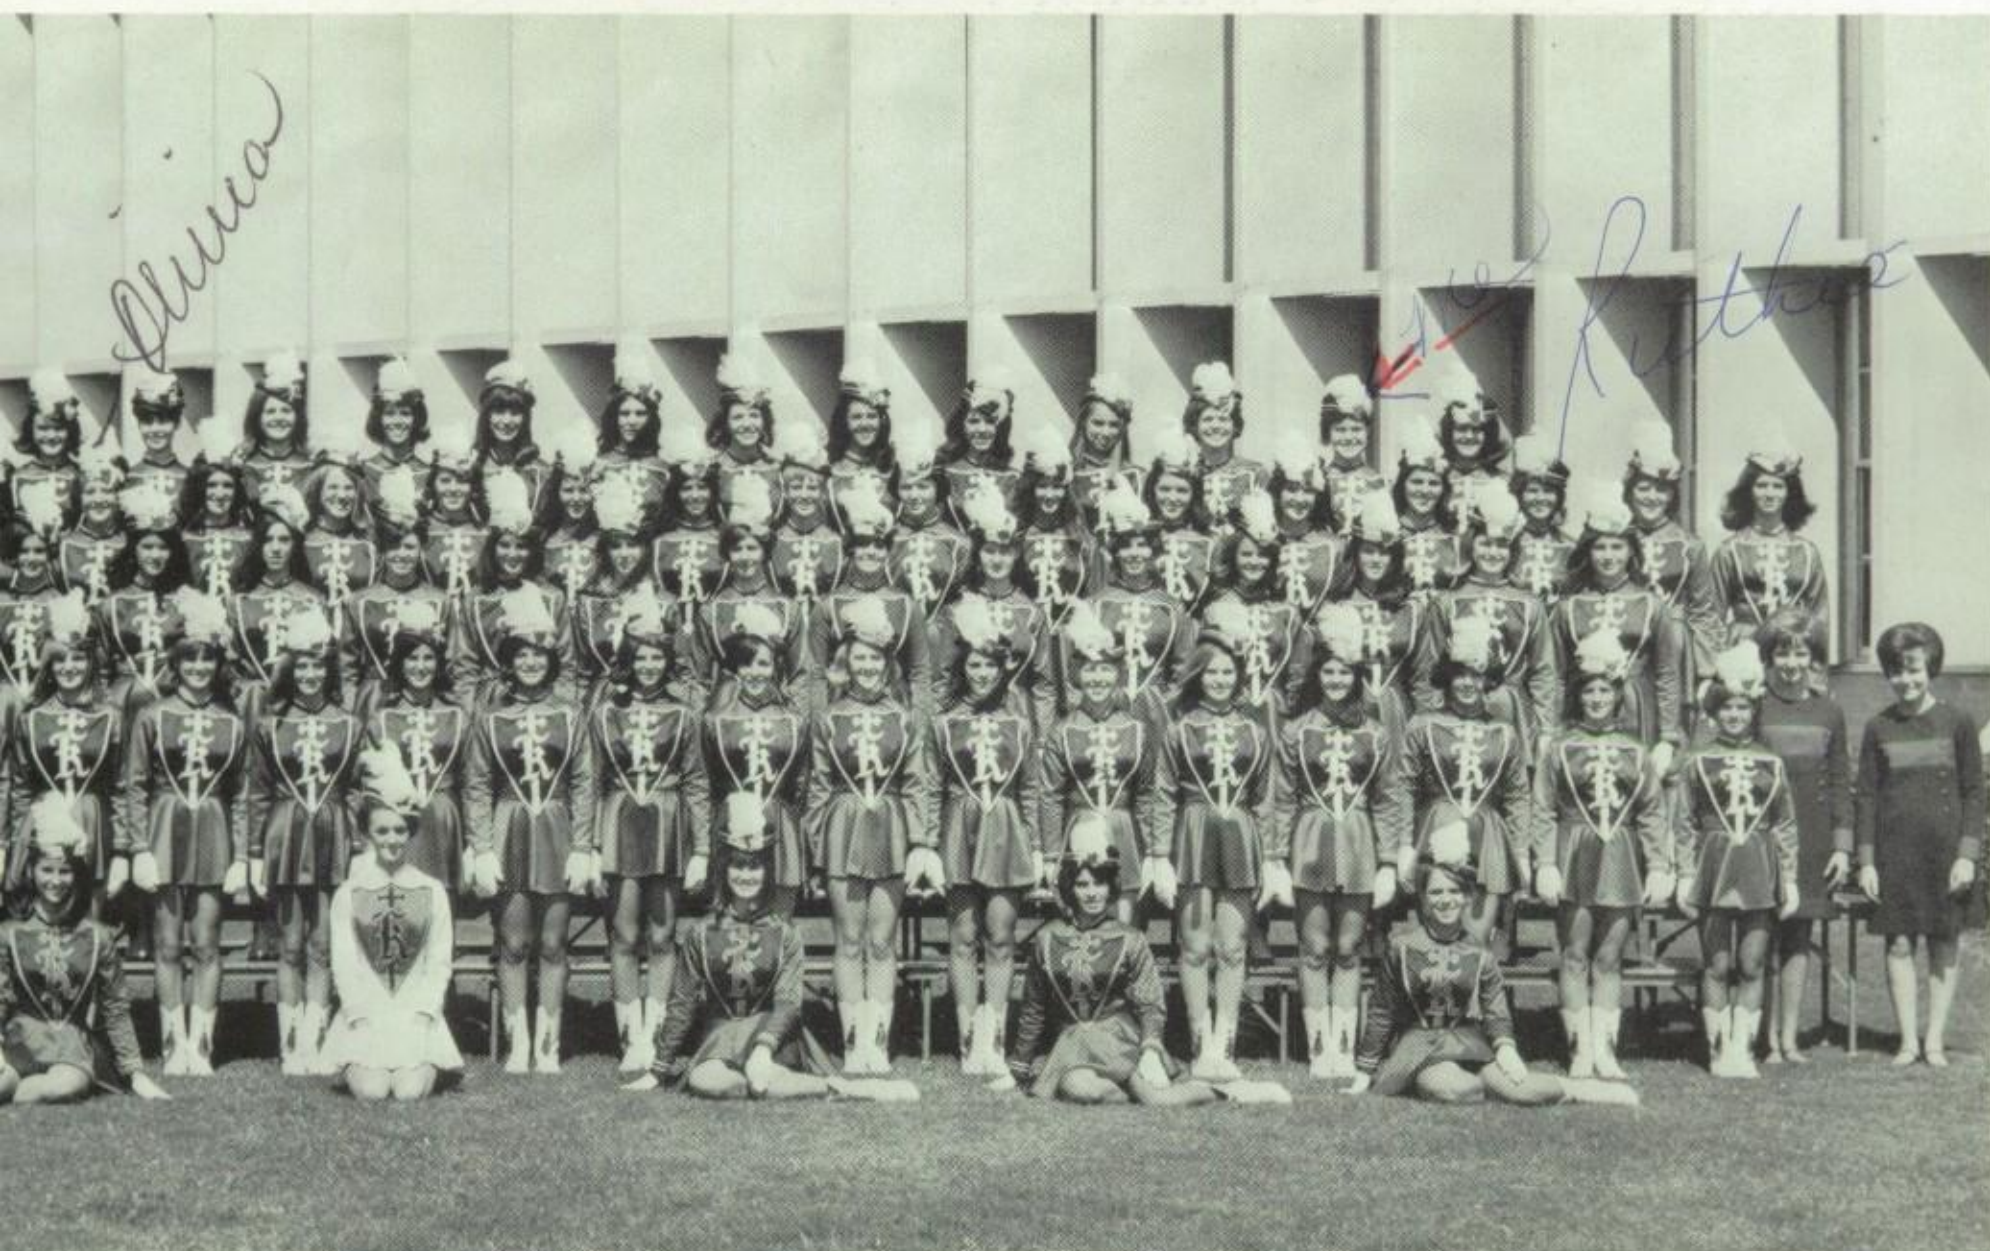

Pam Denton, Peggy O'Neill, and Petrece Toon exhibit their great Senior talents.

CHEERLEADERS

Kimball's Spirited Eight Win Honors

In August, before the excitement of football season, the eight Kimball cheerleaders attended the S.M.U. Cheerleader School. As a result of their great enthusiasm and spirit, it is no wonder they won three firsts, a second, a third and walked off with the coveted spirit stick.

Kimball was also distinguished by having three Dallas Cowboy cheerleaders. They were: Gayle Corday, Mike Joyce, and Mike Crutcher.

Spirited chants led by cheerleaders disperse through the stadium. The explosion of bat against baseball drives in the winning run. The gymnasium buzzer signaling the end of the night's basketball game with another victory delivers jubilation to the fans. All of these are representative of a minute portion of the athletic achievements at Kimball.

The desire to participate which is evident within every athletically inclined student at Kimball has been well rewarded. This motivation has produced within the past few years records of high standing, if not at the very top, in district competition in every school sponsored sport.

Nevertheless, the prestige of victory is least in importance as to what can be gained by these athletic endeavors. To completely live up to the school motto, each of us must seek the true meaning and an understanding of sportsmanship, good character, and exemplary conduct, in defeat as well as victory.

Knights Finish Second in District Play

A fine record of five and three in district play put Kimball in second place in district 12-AAAA. Although Kimball started out like a team on fire, a late season faltering dropped the Knights to second place.

The football highlight of the year was the victory over Sunset. Kimball was in the race for the championship until the last three games of the season. Woodrow Wilson's upset victory halted the Knights number of consecutive wins at five.

Then came the humiliating homecoming loss to Carter, in which the Knights could do little right and Carter did little wrong.

Post-season honors went to Dickey Morton, Charlie Greeson, William Poe, Greg Duffey, Emo Black, Steve Pollard, Perry Geiser, Larry Lee, Mike Atnip, and Jimmy Lee. Dickey Morton was selected Offensive Player of the Year.

Knights Falter in Season Opener, 23-0

Friday the thirteenth proved to be an unlucky day for Kimball. The Knights were completely dominated by the superior Longview Lobos. Kimball gained only 115 total yards and lost three fumbles. Eighty yards in penalties did little to aid the Knight's cause.

Longview led only 6 to 0 at the end of the first quarter due to the outstanding defensive play of Charles Greeson and Jimmy Lee. However the defense could not stop the surging Lobos as they took a 16 to 0 lead at halftime. Longview added seven points in the third quarter, but was shut out in fourth period.

Kimball's offense never got rolling, due partially to a poor blocking game. Offensive standouts included Dickey Morton, who carried fourteen times for 62 yards, and Wayne Kofnovec, who carried twelve times for 30 yards.

Mike Poss and Bill Britton enter game hoping to stop Longview drive.

Knights Crush North Dallas, 39-7

Atnip leaps high in air for overthrown pass.

Bulldog defense stops Morton after short gain.

A potent ground attack and stubborn defense led the Knights to a 39 to 7 victory to open district play. The offense, led by Dickey Morton, collected 376 yards. Dickey scored two touchdowns and gained 158 yards rushing from scrimmage. His first score came on a 57-yard scamper which appeared to be stopped at the line of scrimmage, but Morton reversed his field and raced into the end zone untouched. With four seconds remaining in the game, Morton returned the Bulldog kickoff 83 yards for a touchdown.

Mike McCain scored two touchdowns on a pair of one yard plunges. Wayne Kofnovec and Jimmy Lee scored on six and eight yard runs.

The stingy Knight defense held the Bulldogs to nine yards rushing. However North Dallas quarterback Traversia Bradford found a weakness in the secondary as he completed eight passes for 103 yards and one touchdown.

Knights Slaughter Bulldogs, 49-0

Kimball put everything together this week as the Knights rolled over the Booker T. Washington Bulldogs. Dickey Morton led the offensive charge with 110 yards on 11 carries, including a 66 yard run from scrimmage. He also returned punts 66 and 52 yards for touchdowns.

Quarterback Mike McCain rambled 29 yards for a touchdown. Greg Duffey ran 21 yards for six points. Mike Poss tallied the final touchdown on a perfect 25-yard pass from Mike Lowe. Angel Torres tacked on the extra points.

The defense held Washington to 109 total yards. Jimmy Lee trapped the Bulldog punter in the end zone for a safety. On the ensuing free kick, Morton scampered 62 yards for a touchdown.

Knights Rip Leopards, 28-7

A rugged defense and the fleetfooted Dickey Morton led Kimball to its third straight district win. Adamson controlled the ball for 75 offensive plays to Kimball's 58. However the defense, led by Bill Britton and Perry Geiser, held Adamson to seven yards rushing and dropped quarterback Jack Frampton eight times for 71 yards in losses.

Dickey Morton scored three touchdowns including a 99-yard punt return. The Leopards, aware of Morton's ability to return kicks, punted to him only once. Dickey fielded the punt on the one, broke several tackles, and streaked down the sideline 99 yards for the touchdown. Throughout the remainder of the game, the Leopards punted the ball out of bounds which resulted in a 25-yard punting average. Morton also scored on a four-yard pass from Mike McCain and on a four-yard pitch-out.

Mike McCain connected on five passes for 102 yards. He also scored on a two-yard plunge.

Knights Mutilate Mustangs, 35-13

Dickey Morton and the stingy Kimball defense again led the Knights to victory. Morton picked up 236 yards on 24 carries and three touchdowns. His first tally came on the first play of the second half as he burst 74 yards down the sidelines. He also scored on runs of five and six yards. Morton collected thirty-five yards on pass receptions and eighty-seven yards on punt and kick-off returns.

William Poe and Jimmy Lee headed a brilliant defense that limited Roosevelt to a minus thirteen yards rushing. Roosevelt did however collect 149 yards passing.

Kimball took a 14-7 lead at halftime on one yard blasts by Mike McCain and Mike Atnip. Morton then took over to make the final score 35-13. Anger Torres tacked on the extra points.

Mike McCain's 58 yard touchdown pass to Mike Atnip opened the scoring for Kimball as the Knights pulled out a squeaker over Sunset. Atnip slipped behind the Bison defense and was all alone as McCain tossed a perfect pass over the heads of the surprised Sunset defenders.

However, Sunset came back in the third quarter to take an 8-7 lead on Rudy Jaramillo's powerful running. In the fourth quarter, Sunset scored again to lead 14-7 as the extra point failed.

Dickey Morton burned up the turf as he evened the score at 14-14 on a sixteen yard run. Later Morton took off on a 55 yard scamper. Torres converted and the score stood at 21-14. Sunset came back with six points on Jaramillo's halfback pass. Sunset attempted a two point conversion hoping for a win, but Jerry Cox and Jimmy Lee stopped quarterback Ricky Duff to preserve Kimball's 21-20 victory.

Knights Wallop White, 41-7

The W. T. White Longhorns were the victims of Kimball's offensive machine this week. Jackie Landess started the scoring on the Knights' first possession on a 49-yard scamper. Dickey Morton scored one of his three touchdowns on a four yard plunge. However the Horns fought back and the Knights took a 13-7 lead at halftime.

On the first play from scrimmage in the third quarter Morton went 58 yards for the score. Morton gained 190 yards during the game.

On the following kick-off, Jimmy Lee recovered a White fumble. Wayne Kofnovec scored the next touchdown by bulling his way over from the four. Before the third quarter ended, Morton scored again on a 59-yard romp.

In the fourth quarter substitute back Greg Duffey took over. Duffey broke for 66 yards before being stopped at the five. Greg again got the call and scored the final touchdown.

Woodrow Slips Past Knights, 27-21

Woodrow Wilson's Wildcats proved to be the spoilers of the south zone for the second straight week. Last week they bumped off Sunset and this week it was Kimball. Led by the seemingly unstoppable John "Train" McCrumbley, the Wildcats jumped off to a 20-7 lead at halftime. Dickey Morton scored the touchdown on a 73-yard pass from Mike McCain.

However, the breaks seemed to fall to Woodrow. The Wildcat quarterback scooped up a fumble on the two and scored a touchdown on a play which was going nowhere. In the fourth quarter the Wildcats faced a third down and three yards to go at the 42. The Woodrow halfback was apparently thrown for a loss, but a fumble and strange bounce saw the ball go out of bounds at the 31. Woodrow retained possession and went on to score the winning touchdown.

Kimball came back strong in the third quarter, narrowing the score to 20-14 when Morton carried two yards for the score. Kimball's final score came on a quarterback sneak from the one.

Carter Grows Up, Stomps Knights, 42-7

Carter grew from Kimball's little brother to a giant killer this week to spoil homecoming for the Knights. The first quarter ended scoreless, but the homecoming jinx took over from the second quarter until the end of the game. The Cowboys, led by halfback Steve Starnes, racked up twenty-one points before the half.

Starnes scored three touchdowns and ran for 238 yards as the Knight defense fell apart. He scored on a 64-yard pass-run play which should have been stopped after a short gain. At least three Knights missed tackles along the sideline.

Kimball's lone score came when defensive end John Ott fell on a Carter fumble in the end zone. Dickey Morton collected 111 yards rushing, but most of it came in the fourth quarter after the damage had been done.

SOC Clobbers Knights, 22-0

South Oak Cliff closed out the football season by pinning a 22-0 loss to Kimball's record. A rain soaked field did little to hinder SOC's fleet halfbacks. The Golden Bear defense held the Knight offense to ninety-eight total yards. The deepest penetration Kimball had was to the 16-yard line.

The Golden Bears lit the scoreboard in the first quarter on Mike McDaniels 20-yard pass to Ronnie Washington. McDaniels was used sparingly the rest of the game, as SOC took little chance of losing him for the bi-district game with Bryan Adams.

SOC took a 20-0 lead at halftime. In the third period quarterback Randy Horton was trapped in the end zone for a safety, to run the final score to 22-0.

Woodrow Wilson was also the only team to score against the rugged Squire defense. Jimmy Herndon, Bobby McCullough, and Rickey Bale were standouts. Quarterback Gene Hansen led the Squires offensive play.

Dwayne Fontaine served as an offensive as well as defensive player before being moved up to the varsity team.

Knights Finish Sixth in District 12-A AAAA

Frustration is the word to describe the 1968-69 season. The Knights were contenders for the early part of the season, but could not keep pace with the top teams. Kimball ended the year with seven wins and nine losses. Of the nine losses only four were decided by more than six points. Several of the games were decided by the referee's whistle.

Misfortunes hindered the Knights, as Robert Long was hampered throughout the season by injuries. Robert still played tremendously as a spot player and brought the Knights from disaster several times with his rebounding and shooting ability. For most of the season the Knights were led by sparkplug Denny Beall. His spectacular play kept Kimball fans' hopes alive in many crucial games. Denny's outstanding play was rewarded when he was selected to the Second Team All-District and Honorable Mention All-City. Lacking the height of some of the more colorful teams in the district, the Knights developed one of the most impressive full-court presses in the loop.

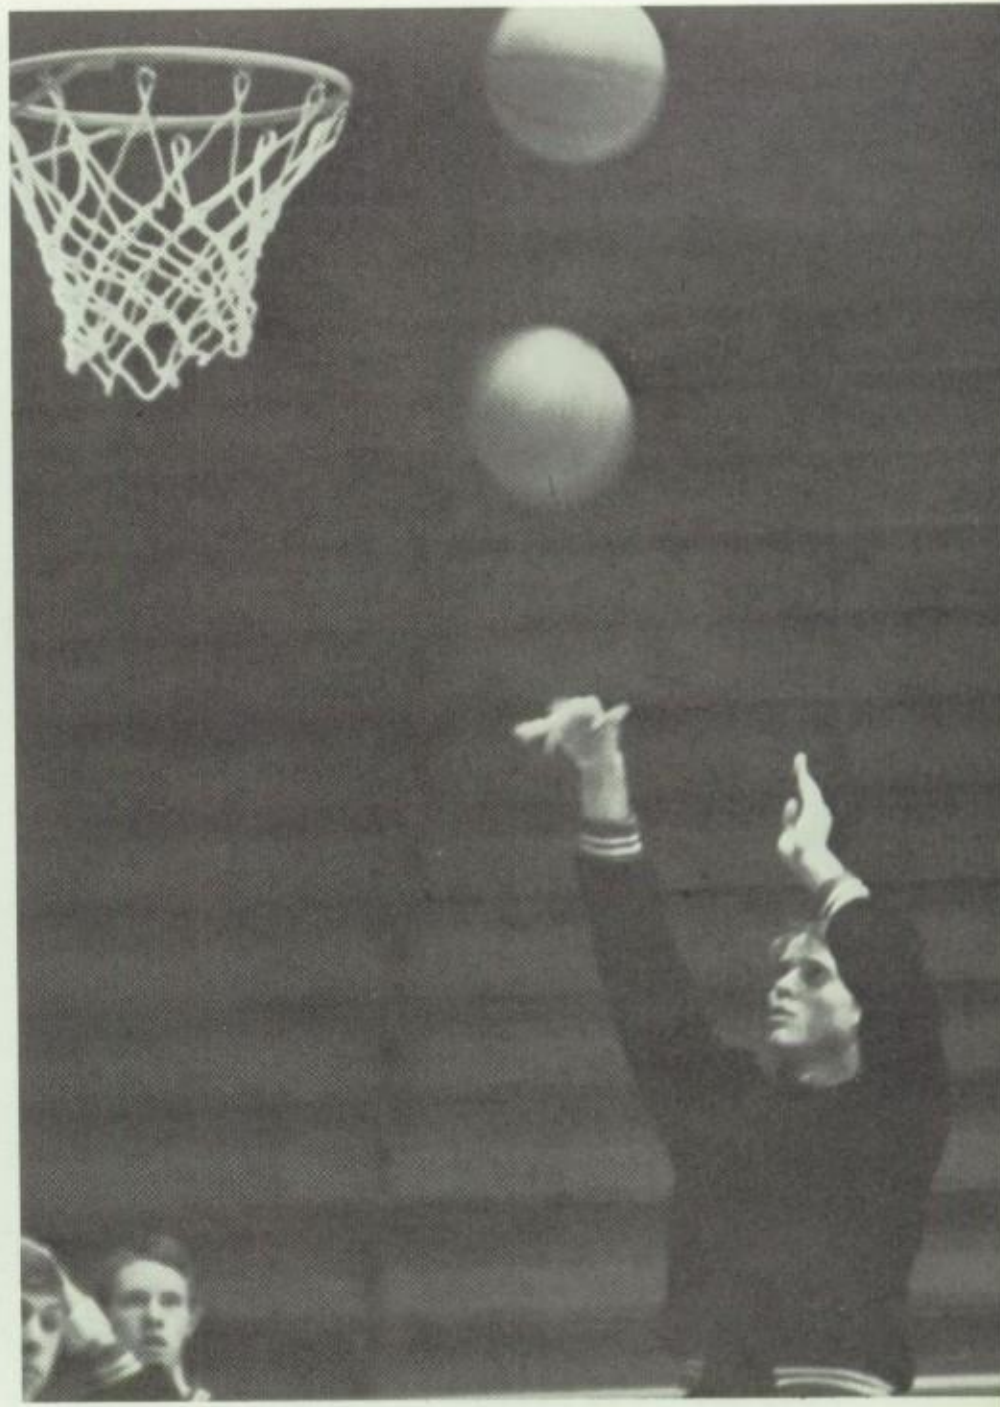

All in all the Knights proved to be an explosive team which could never be counted out under any circumstances.

Coach Pete Brown discusses pre-game details with manager Dan Walston.

Pre-season games did not seem to agree with the Knights as they won only four of ten games. However, this included a 50-37 revengeful drubbing of Thomas Jefferson. Kimball received second place in the Highland Park Tournament after being nipped by the Scotties 53-51 in the championship game.

District play started with a squeaker over Crozier Tech. Kimball couldn't get rolling in the first quarter as they hit only five points. Eddie Warner kept the Knights alive throughout the game with his clutch shots, and Kimball managed to pull out a two point victory. The Knights looked like the team to beat as they handily defeated North Dallas and Carter, but the winning streak was halted at three straight by Washington.

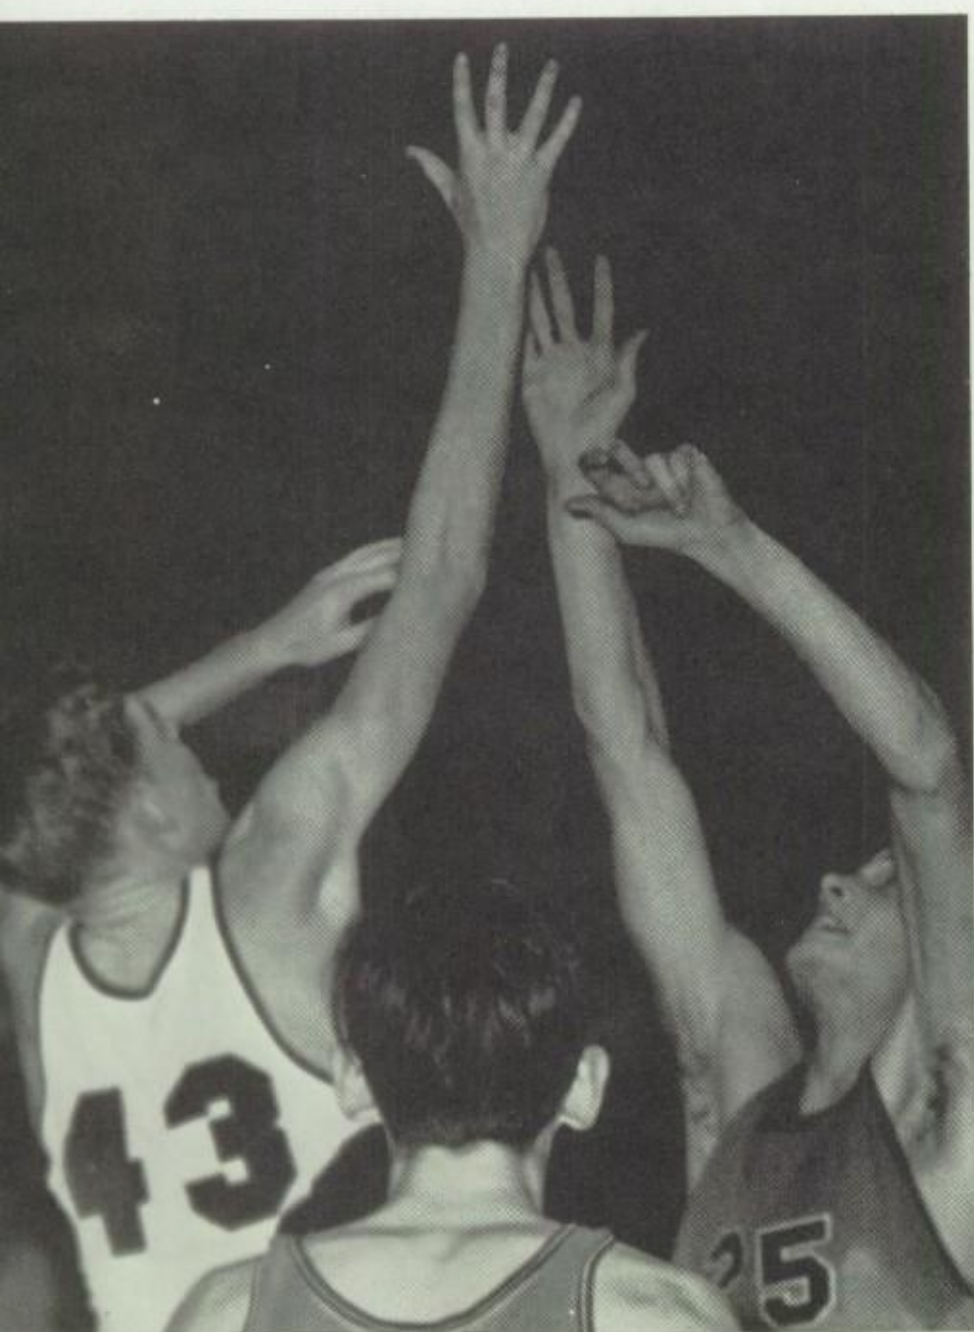

Kimball got back on the track the following week by defeating Adamson in overtime. The Knights completely dominated Adamson in the first half, but the Leopards came back strong in the second half. With only four seconds remaining in the game, Adamson fed the ball to Julius Howard, whose turnaround jump shot knotted the score as the final buzzer sounded. The Knights secured the game in overtime by three points.

Denny Beall's 21 points failed to save the Knights from their second district loss to Roosevelt. Sunset dropped Kimball's record to 4-3 in an overtime win. Eugene Stoner's basket, just as the buzzer went off, sent the game into overtime. However, the Bisons took the game in the overtime period. The Knights rolled over Crozier Tech and outscored North Dallas by five points. Kimball next stomped Carter in a fast moving game.

The final four games of the season proved disastrous to the Knights, as they dropped all four games. Washington with big Sammy Hervey at the controls defeated the Knights by four points. Several questionable calls cost the Knights the game. Sammy Hervey seemed to take away sure baskets just as they reached the rim. However the superstar pumped in 46 points, several seemingly illegally, to pace the Bulldogs. Robert Long played a fantastic game guarding the 6-6 Hervey, but Robert fouled out just before the end of the second half.

Adamson's Julius Howard blew the Knights out of Sprague Fieldhouse as the Leopards walked away with a 80-68 win. Kimball led all during the first half, but couldn't keep pace in the second half. Denny Beall led the Knights in scoring with 27 points. Sunset was the next spoiler. Sunset took a thirteen point lead at half-time, but the Knights came back strong in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to two points. The Knights' terrific full-court press almost pulled out the exciting game.

Roosevelt knocked the bottom out of the basket from anywhere and everywhere to pin a third straight loss on the Knights. South Oak Cliff exploded to a 29 point win in the final game of the season. The Knights held the district champion Bears to a 36-36 tie at halftime. SOC came roaring back in the second half for an easy win. Robert Long ended his high school career by hitting 27 points.

Having much to be proud of is this year's B-Basketball team. Posting a nearly flawless season record, they easily won the district championship. However, the season ended on a sad note, as they were edged out for the city crown by Bryan Adams.

Boasting many players who moved up to the varsity team in the latter part of the season, the squires should add much promising depth to the ranks of next year's varsity basketball team.

Knights Battle to Regain Lost City Title

A well-balanced attack should lead the district defending Knights to recapture the crown. With eight returning lettermen, the Knights feature strong pitching, powerful hitting, and a well co-ordinated defense.

The pitching staff headed by Greg Duffey and Terry McCullough appears to be the best around. All-City pitcher Duffey should again this year have opponents fishing for the ball. Terry McCullough did a terrific job pitching last year. The highlight of his season came when he defeated Bryan Adams in the second game of the city playoffs.

Terry Matthews, Charlie Cole, Denny Beall, Jim Moffett, and Mike Lowe should provide plenty of power at the plate. Denny was selected All-District at second base last year. Moffett was voted sophomore of the year as a catcher last year, but will play the "hot corner" this year.

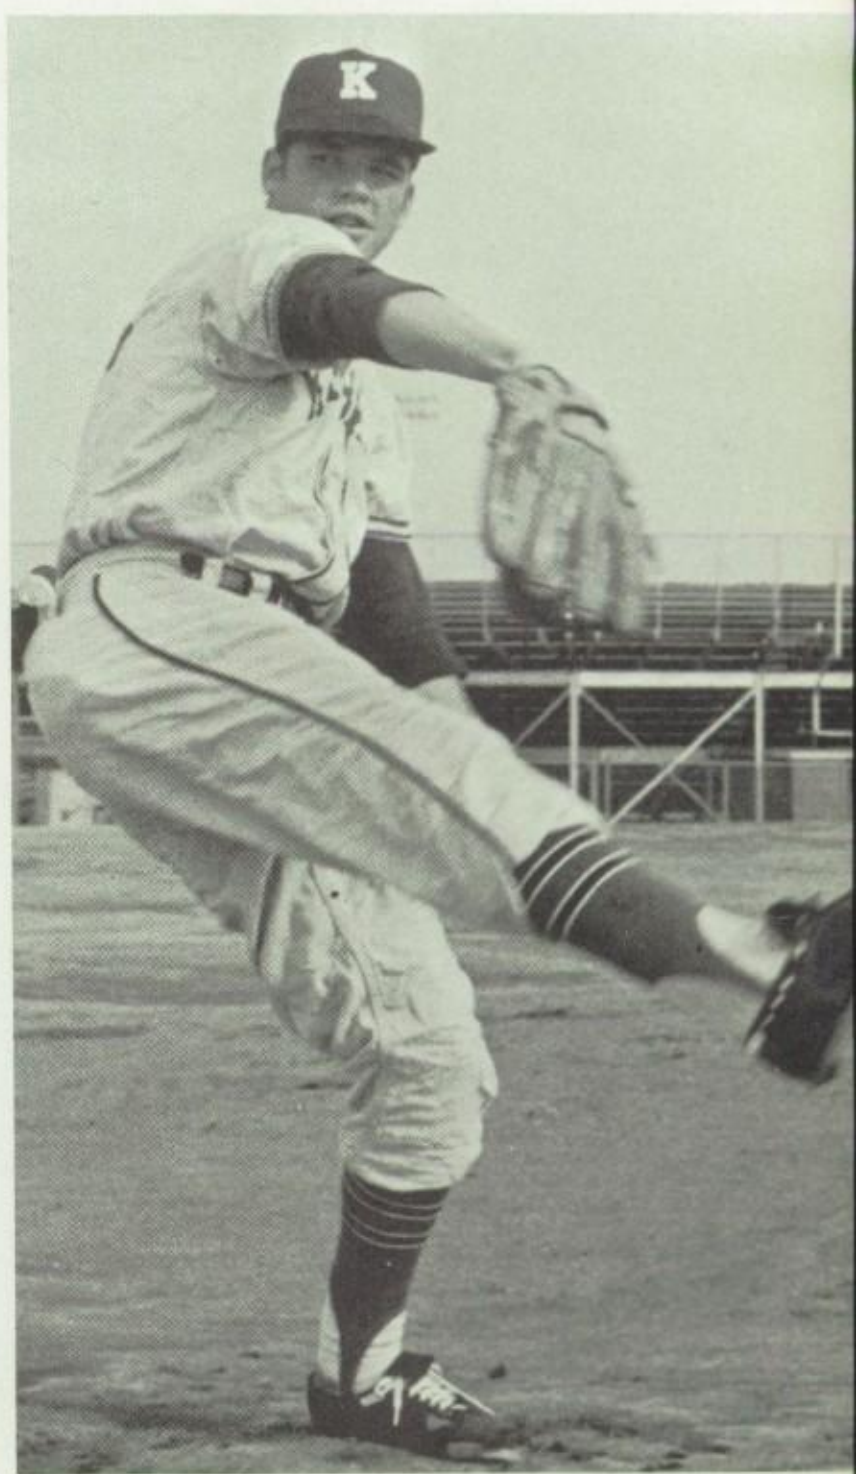

Coach Troy Miller's valuable experience and coaching abilities should lead the Knights to victory. This season the Knights will be trying to regain the city baseball crown which they lost to Bryan Adams last season.

Developing the respect and friendship of a student body—one the size of the senior class of Justin F. Kimball—takes several months of hard work. Yet this type of task is one which must come naturally. Simply hiding one's true feelings and character behind a mask may fool his peers for a brief period, but sooner or later the inner emotions will leak out.

To become a person of prominence with surrounding students, practice in self-discipline is necessary to withhold one's more harmful thoughts and feelings which could be damaging to the pride of others. However, of prime importance in the attempt to receive the respect of students is an accomplishment that is important in all walks of life—to be yourself.

These twelve students who have been voted upon as the Senior Favorites of nineteen sixty-nine have done exactly that. Each possesses a friendly disposition; something which is lacking in the present society. These students are symbolic of the fellowship and success of Kimball High School.

As the final days of high school for the senior class rapidly tick away, each individual is overcome with mixed emotions. Glancing into the past, a senior sees the pleasures and regrets which he has encountered—sophomore enrollment, making new acquaintances, the rain-soaked trip to Spring Branch, the first Coronation, and the everyday activities. This leads to remorsefulness and hesitant thoughts toward leaving Kimball and facing the “big cruel world” on one’s own.

Looking to the future, a senior’s mind visualizes what life will be like at his chosen college, or is deciding on what vocational field he should enter. Whichever path he will follow, the graduating senior from Kimball has had the best possible high school preparation and background for these future endeavors.

This, the tenth graduating class of Justin F. Kimball High School, has much to be proud of. Numerous within this class are the leaders of the future who have excelled in many school departments—academically, all areas of sports, and speech and dramatics. The senior class of nineteen hundred sixty-nine has successfully attempted to uphold the outstanding spirit, school pride, and way of truth upon which the “Home of the Fighting Kimball Knights” was founded.

Howdy
 Sylvia Sims and Michaelyn Hawkins discuss one of the many Civics films they've seen.

Very shortly, the junior class will take over the reins of leadership of Kimball. Following several successful senior classes, their newly-acquired task will be a difficult one.

In order for Kimball to operate with the most pleasureable system which each student would enjoy, there must be a large body of students willing to accept this responsibility. This year's junior class, sporting many students capable of performing this feat, seems willing and eager to accept this challenge. Found within it are many reputable students who have already begun to prepare for their obligations as part of the next senior class—as athletes, scholars, and promoters of school spirit and integrity.

Each member of the class of 'seventy realizes that he owes it to himself to make his upcoming senior year the best of all his school years. In doing so, his efforts will be fruitful for the senior classes of Kimball in many years to come.

About to finish their first steps toward adulthood is this year's class of sophomores. For many, the first few days of high school were a high strung adventure. Surveying the map of the building between classes often led to slanting remarks such as "Sophomore!" from the upperclassmen.

However, after a period of time, the sophomore class grew into respectability. Slowly beginning to mingle in the halls with juniors and seniors led to acceptance on somewhat closer-to-equal terms. This helped to disprove their earlier conclusions that a sophomore's participation in high school was all for naught.

Presently on the threshold of passing down the title of lowliness, the members of the sophomore class hope that they have profited from their past year's experiences. Not bearing grudges against anyone, the sophomores know that their year of leadership and superiority is still yet to come.

Neon signs, billboards, crowded stores—these are all representative of the importance of big business in this rapidly moving nation. This trend can be positively related to the increase in use of the multi-million dollar industry of advertising.

What accounts for this increase in publicity? Simply because it works. Local businesses which take the opportunity to advertise in the Excalibur are interested in Kimball—restaurants, department stores, pharmacies—all feel that the students must be able to purchase the very best that can be offered, and at the most reasonable prices for the customers.

These merchants display through advertising their pride in this community. After seeing these ads, a student can shop to fulfill his needs without distrust, knowing that each merchant has revealed his integrity in business in that he cares for the future of the students and the community in which they live.

In Recollection of Our Goals

Upon reaching our final obligations and responsibilities in the production of Excalibur 1969, we find ourselves comparing our goals in the beginning with the final accomplishments. We realize that perfection is beyond our grasp; but a minimum amount of success has been the motivation of our toils.

It has been our attempt to provide the students with an aid in future years to the reminiscence of school activity at Kimball. For this is the determining factor in the success of Excalibur 1969. Unfortunately, there may be areas in which we have fallen short. However, the prosperity of this annual can be correlated with the achievements of the student body. Excalibur 1969 is the scrapbook of accomplishments of the eleventh student body of Kimball High School.

Norma,
 You're a real nice
 and smart girl.
 You must be nice
 because you're friends with Sheila Long.
 Sheila is nice too.
 Good luck in whatever you do.
 Luv,

Norma,
 You've gotta be one of the nicest but
 sweetest girls around.
 I think you make a great betony. You luck in college & always!
 Love,
 Nancy Neal

Norma
It's been great sitting next to you this semester in Chemistry. I'm sure none of us could forget it! Stay as you are & the future is yours. Good luck, have lots of fun this summer, and don't change.
Love
Mike

It's really been a great knowing you this year. It's been so much fun doing all the different things with you this year, such as, being food up here for the judges, coming up here for musical practice.
You're a great Senior. Best of luck in the future and may God bless you.

Great! It's really been a blast. Stay as you are. Bless.
May God bless.
Mariah Mathews

Love ya,

Sns. 70

Norma,

It has really been fun this year. FBLA made quite an "effect" on me - you were elected President - now I'm nuts! I really have enjoyed knowing you this year. I'm glad we became friends; I hope we may remain friends for a long time. On the years ahead, I feel you will go far because you have "interesting fortitude" that keeps you going. I hope your future with ~~me~~ Marshal will be bright. (The Perfect Couple?) And Good Luck in everything you do from now on. (I'm sure you will do it also). Have fun in college.

Love,

Susan

Gleason

P.S. Hold on to Marshall!
I'll hit you if you don't!

Norma,
You've been so
sweet this year
to a great friend
Hope we will still be good friends
next year. I hope to see you a lot this summer. I wish you all the happiness in the world. Good luck
out of school

Norma,
 You're a great person and I'm glad I got to know you this year. Poi has been great and loads of fun you've got a great future ahead at Best of luck anyway!

Yours,
 Paula Dennis

Norma,
 with you I had a most fantastic time. You are a wonderful girl. May you always get the best in college.

 Shelley

Norma -
 Best wishes to a wonderful girl but a sorry POD & Circus student. Seriously, you're very intelligent & will go far. We've had a lot of fun with Pritchett, white & Burney. Come back to Shakey's
 - The Phantom Haggie &
 Pizza Organ Grinder
 Landy Walker

Norma -
 I hope you have been as much fun this year! I look forward to putting up with the seven "able"
 I hope!

Norma,
I have really enjoyed knowing you all these three years. It's been great and it wouldn't have been complete
without your friendship.
Good luck always.

Norma
It has really been fun knowing you & now. We will never be able to forget Miss M. Nolis's love. Best of luck always -
Margaret

Norma,
I have enjoyed being in English with you this year
Best of luck in all that you do -

Norma -
few people possess
as much poise & serenity as you - and qualities like that are appreciated in our better-shelter surroundings. (especially by me.) So please retain those qualities - they'll work wonders for you, I'm sure.
Sincerely, Jilly Jones

Norma,
You are one of the friendliest persons I know and your friendship has meant a lot to me. I hope I get a chance to see you this summer and next year. Good luck always and God bless you. Lindsey
L.L. (my love)

Normal,
I have certainly enjoyed knowing that you go to my papers reason the way I know
to give a joyful lot of fun
I hope you have this best of luck as ever.
R. G. G. G.
Sincerely,
S. G. G. G. (I hope)

Norma - Never have I met anyone quite like you.... Don't worry, that's a compliment!
Don't ever forget the good ol' times at "Big X" - especially Concert Choir! (Ha! Ha!)
I want to also thank you for asking me to walk across the stage
and the Senior Luncheon.
Never forget me....

God Bless you

Keep you....
